THE MANAGER,
London Joint City and Midland Bank Limited,
Wesleyan Hall, Westminster, S.W.1

Telephone Nos.: Victoria 8308 and 8309

Midland Bank Ltd.

Westminster Branch : Central Buildings, Westminster.

Special Facilities

are given for the Accounts of Trustees, Stewards and Ministers of Wesleyan Chapels throughout the country.

Circuit Accounts.

Arrangements will be made for these accounts to be opened at the above Branch. Moneys will be received for the credit of such accounts, and cheques paid, at any of the Branches of the Bank. Special paying-in books have been prepared, which will be supplied to local Treasurers, for each part of a Circuit. Arrangements will be made for Credits to be received by another bank in any district where the Bank has no Branch.

Ministers' Private Accounts.

The Itinerancy system need not necessitate a frequent change of Bankers. A permanent account opened at the Wesleyan Hall Branch may be operated upon through other Branches and Banks by arrangement.

Foreign Missionaries' Accounts.

Special financial facilities are given to Ministers leaving for foreign countries, and instructions accepted for payment of Insurance premiums and other periodical payments. Deed Boxes, Wills and Documents are held for safe custody without charge. Drafts on all places abroad are issued at the finest rates.

The London City and Midland Executor and Trustee Co. Ltd., undertakes the Executorship and Trusteeship of Wills, and the Trusteeship of Marriage and other Settlements.

The

Wesleyan Methodist Trust Assurance Company, Limited.

38 Fountain Street, Manchester

The Company was established in 1872 with the sanction and commendation of Conference for the insurance of Connexional property against loss by Fire. Powers were subsequently obtained for the transaction of other classes of insurance, including Workmen's Compensation, Third Party, and Burglary.

The Company exists for the benefit of the Connexion. The chief beneficiary under the Articles of Association is the Worn-out Ministers' Fund, which has received £83,400 in annual grants since the foundation of the Company. This year's grant is £5,000, free of income tax.

The Company is limited by its Articles of Association to Connexional and Ministers' insurances, and is therefore entirely dependent on Connexional support.

It is the aim of the Company to give as good terms and as good service as ordinary first-class Insurance Offices, and ministers and laymen by giving it their support can help the Connexion without cost to themselves.

Insurances for Ministers.—(1) "Inclusive" policy, covering Fire, Burglary, and Domestic Servants' Liability, besides other Household Perils. (2) Personal Accidents and Specified Diseases.

ISAAC A. MACK, J.P., Chairman.
J. RATCLIFFE, M.A., Manager and Secretary.

The British & Foreign Bible Society

It makes the Bible the cheapest and most accessible book in the world.

It has helped the Gospel to speak in 558 different tongues, and publishes a new version about every five or six weeks.

It provides the Foreign Missions of almost every Reformed Church with the editions they need, without expense to the Missions themselves.

It supplies Methodist Missions throughout the world with the Scriptures in 107 different forms of speech.

It is spending nearly £1,200 every working day; and for each £1 only about 8s. comes back to it as the proceeds of sales.

It stands in urgent need of ampler support. While the demands on its resources constantly increase, the production of its books is far more expensive. Its huge popular editions now cost the Society two or three times as much as they did before the war.

Thirteen complete and separate Dickens Programmes, from "Pickwick" to "Great Expectations," each lasting about two hours. In each the essential scenes are built up and the principal characters faithfully delineated, making a complete and continuous story.

LONDON AND ALL PARTS OF THE COUNTRY

"Mr. Charles Andrews . . . thrilled a seasonable audience (of nearly 4,000) at the Colston Hall, Bristol, with his rendering of the 'Christmas Carol.' . . . The large building was crowded within six minutes of the opening of the doors, and hundreds were regretfully turned away."—Western Daily Press, December, 1922

"A masterly performance."—London Dickensian.

"As a reciter of Dickens, Mr. Andrews must assuredly stand alone."—Essex Times.

"Mr. Andrews passed from one character to another with amazing agility . . . a genuinely creative artist."—Birmingham Daily Post.

"Mr. Andrews has achieved considerable fame as an exponent of Dickens . . . that reputation is fully justified."—Belfast Telegraph.

"Mr. Andrews is one of the finest authorities on the great English novelist. With intensely dramatic effect . . . he takes his audience through the essential scenes of the story, giving his hearers, even those who know their book, a more thrilling idea of the grip and immense variety of the genius of the Great Victorian. . . ."—Yorkshire Post.

A MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT—

"I regard the work of the Children's Home as one of the greatest activities of modern times, and of vital importance both to the Church and to the Nation.

"In saving the children we are building the City of God. Every child rescued and trained is a centre of influences for good that are incalculable."

6. The Rev. AMOS BURNET was nominated for election as President of the Conference of 1924; and the Rev. THOMAS KIRKUP was nominated for election as Secretary of the same.

7. The Conference in its Representative Session consisted of such Members of the Legal Conference as had declared at the May Meeting of the District Synods their intention to attend, and of such Ministers and Lay Members as were duly chosen. The Roll is printed in the Conference Agenda, 1923, pp. 1–8, and is duly recorded in the Journal of the Conference.

8. The Conference in its Pastoral Session consisted, in addition to such Members of the Legal Conference as were able to be present, of such other Ministers as had been authorised to attend.

9. The Representative Session assembled on Wednesday, July 18, and concluded its business on Tuesday, July 24. The Pastoral Session assembled on Wednesday, July 25, and completed its business on Tuesday, July 31. At each Session the Minutes of the Session were read. The several Minutes of both Sessions were adopted by the Legal Conference.

10. In the following pages, the business which belongs to the Representative Session is placed first; that belonging to the Pastoral Session, second; and then follows that which stands in relation to both.

SECTION I.

THE REPRESENTATIVE SESSION.

COMMITTEE OF PRIVILEGES.

Q. I. What are the Committees for Guarding our Privileges during the ensuing year?

A. 1. The ORDINARY COMMITTEE: which shall have full power to take action on all national occasions, and in all cases affecting the interests, duties, rights, or privileges of our Church, unless in its judgment, or in the judgment of the President of the Conference, it is deemed expedient to refer any case to the Extraordinary Committee named below. The Committee must act in conformity with any existing resolution of the Conference.

2. In all cases where proposed legislation or administration affects the interests of any Department managed by a Special Committee appointed by the Conference, the Committee of Privileges shall act in consultation with the particular Committee in such manner as the President of the Conference may direct; and a joint meeting of the Committee of Privileges and of the Committee of the Department affected may be summoned by the Secretaries of both Committees, if directed by the President of the Conference, in order to determine what action shall be taken.

The Ordinary Committee shall meet whenever it is convened either by direction of the President of the Conference or by its Secretaries.

THE MINISTERS' CHILDREN'S FUND.

Q. IV. What are the Resolutions of the Conference respecting the affairs of the Ministers' Children's Fund?

A. 1. The appointments for the ensuing year are:

(1) Treasurers: Rev. MARSHALL HARTLEY and Mr. WILLIAM MEWBURN.

(2) Secretaries: Rev. JOHN KINNINGS and Rev. JOSEPH T. GURNEY.

(3) General Committee: The PRESIDENT, the EX-PRESIDENT, and the SECRETARY of the Conference; the Administrative Governors of the Schools, and the Revs. W. Harold Beales, Henry M. Bleby, B.A.,

Dr. W. Theophilus Davison, James E. Dixon, Charles Feneley, John Grimshaw, J. Wesley Hart, William H. Hart, Dr. H. Maldwyn Hughes, Charles F. Hunter, B.A., Charles W. Mitton, Arthur Rudman, E. Lightwood Smith, Sherwin Smith, M.A., B.D.; Sir A. Ernest Bain, K.B.E.; Messrs. Thomas K. Bingant, Frederick Greenwood, James T. Lightwood, Alfred Long, Miss E. M. Moulton, B.A., Miss Caroline H. Peet, Messrs. Donald H. Potts, Frank Richards, M.A., Walter Walker, Hubert A. Wootton, M.A., B.Sc.

General Secretary: Rev. JOHN KINNINGS.

N.B.—The General Committee is the Legal Governing Body of the Schools.

(4) In conformity with the provisions of the scheme for the administration of Kingswood and Trinity Hall as inspected and recognised Schools, the Conference appoints an Administrative Governing Body consisting of nine Ministers and nine Laymen for each School as follows:

Administrative Governors of Kingswood School: The President of the Conference, Revs. Dr. William T. A. Barber, Joseph T. Gurney, Marshall Hartley, C. Claud Mayes, B.A., Albert E. Raw, H. Arnaud Scott, J. Walthew Simister, Owen S. Watkins, C.M.G., C.B.E.; Mr. Edward G. Barber, Dr. Hartley Bunting, Mr. P. Endres Gane, Lt.-Col. Sydney L. Hosking, Mr. J. Arthur Jutsum, Dr. T. Martin Lowry, F.R.S., Messrs. George S. Pickard, Frank A. Potts, M.A., Dr. H. H. Swinnerton, and three gentlemen nominated by the Board of Education.

Secretary: Rev. OWEN S. WATKINS, C.M.G., C.B.E.

Administrative Governors of Trinity Hall: Revs. George H. Bainbridge, Wesley T. Bosward, H. Oswald Brigg, Alfred J. Costain, M.A., Joseph T. Gurney, Marshall Hartley, James R. Irving, John Kinnings, Arthur O. Sanderson, M.A.; Messrs. J. Rayner Batty, Henry Brooke, Miss Emily Davies, Messrs. Edward R. Lightwood, B.A., Isaac A. Mack, William E. Nelson, Dr. H. Payne, Messrs. Richard Solomon, George W. Walker.

Secretary: Rev. WESLEY T. BOSWARD.

2. For REGULATIONS concerning admission to the Kingswood and Trinity Hall Schools, see Minutes, 1917, pp. 17–22. Applications for admission to Kingswood in September must be made not later than May 15, for admission in January not later than October 15, and for admission in April not later than February 15. The school year at Trinity Hall commences in September, the entrance examination is held in February, and applications for admission must be made not later than January 15.

3. The General Committee and the Governors shall meet during the ensuing year on Friday, November 23, 1923, at Kingswood School, Bath; and on Friday, June 13, 1924, in London.

4. Not later than March 1 each Superintendent shall send to the Rev. JOSEPH T. GURNEY, 3, Salisbury Road, New Brighton, Wallasey, a particular account of all claims for Educational Allowances in his Circuit; specifying distinctly the names of the children for whose education the claims are made, together with the date, year, and place of their birth, and the exact number of years during which the allowance has been received. Any claims delayed beyond the date of the May Synods are delayed at the risk of the parents. No claim to be entered upon this schedule for children at the Schools.

5. The following Resolutions of the last Conference (Minutes 1922, pp. 13, 14) are re-affirmed:

(1) That the Maintenance Allowance shall be £8 8*s.* per annum; and that this Allowance shall be made in future up to 18 years of age instead of 19 years.

(2) That the parents of the children in the Schools shall pay the cost of travelling to and from the School, as used to be the custom, and that a pooling system shall be adopted.

(3) That all parents of children in the Schools, except Widows and Supernumeraries, in addition to surrendering the Education and Maintenance Allowances shall pay £5 per term for each child, and that the Schools shall continue to pay for ordinary Medical Attendance, Laundry, etc., as heretofore.

It is understood that the General Committee is preparing a scheme whereby special cases of need may be met by the founding of entrance scholarships, such scholarships to be awarded to boys who attain a reasonable standard in the entrance examination, and whose parents' circumstances are such as render it necessary that they should be excused the extra £15 per annum.

(4) That the charge for extra years on payment shall be £40 per annum, authority being given to the Governors to give special consideration in cases where necessary.

(5) That the Music Fees shall be raised so as to meet the actual cost.

(6) That when a boy or girl is awarded an extra year's scholarship, the Maintenance Allowance shall be surrendered during the period that the scholarship is held.

6. For Report of Committee upon (1) Educational Allowances, (2) Kingswood School and Government Grants, see Appendix IV.

Remittances, whether Circuit Collections, Subscriptions, or Assessments, to be sent to the Rev. MARSHALL HARTLEY, 1 *Central Buildings, Westminster, S.W.*1. Other communications are to be addressed to the Secretaries—Rev. JOHN KINNINGS, 25, Trafalgar Road, Birkdale, Southport; Rev. JOSEPH T. GURNEY, 3, Salisbury Road, New Brighton, Wallasey.

CHAPEL AFFAIRS.

Q. V. What are the Resolutions of the Conference with regard to Chapel Affairs?

A. 1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee (Agenda, 1923, pp. 193–215).

2. The Conference directs the insertion in the Journal of the Sales sanctioned by the Chapel Committee during the year.

3. Gifts of Chapel and other Trust Property.—The Conference presents its respectful thanks:

(1) To Miss Wyburn, of Hadley Manor, New Barnet, for the gift of a house at High Barnet, in the New Barnet Circuit, of the value of £800.

(2) To Sir Francis Leyland-Barratt, of 68, Cadogan Square, London, S.W.1, for the gift of the Freehold of the St. Blazey Gate Chapel, in the St. Austell Circuit.

(3) To Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Oldroyd, of Carlton Lodge, Dewsbury, for the gift of Centenary Manse, in the Dewsbury Circuit, at a cost of £1,400.

(4) To Sir John S. Randles, of Bristowe Hill, Keswick, for the gift of "The Birches," Minister's House, Keswick, in the Cockermouth and Keswick Circuit, at a cost of £925.

(5) To Mr. P. W. Thompson, "Eskin," Barton Court, New Milton, Hants, for the gift of "Carlton House," in the Cockermouth and Keswick Circuit, at a cost of £1,000.

(6) To Mr. F. J. Pickard, of Clarendon House, West Ashton Road, Trowbridge, for the gift of a Primary School at Manvers Street, in the Trowbridge and Bradford Circuit, at a cost of £600.

(7) To Mr. G. E. Lowe, of "Oakhurst," Anchorage Road, Sutton Coldfield, for the gift of a Minister's House at Erdington, in the Birmingham (Sutton Park) Circuit, at a cost of £1,600, this being the third Minister's House he has presented to the Circuit.

(8) To Messrs. Williamson and Edmund S. Lamplough for the gift of a caretaker's house at Sunfields at a cost of £450.

4. Special Report as to Irregular Chapel Cases.—The Committee reports that in the returns of new erections, enlargements, etc., presented through the May District Synods, there are thirty-two cases in which the conditions of the Chapel Committee have not yet been complied with.

The Conference directs the Chapel Committee to send the particulars to the several District Synods of those cases in which it is, in the opinion of the Committee, desirable that special inquiry should be made from time to time until it shall appear that the conditions of erection or enlargement have been fulfilled. The Conference further directs the District Synods to call the attention of the Trustees to those cases in which the proportion of Debt is excessively heavy, or the proceedings wholly irregular, and to communicate the judgment of the District Synod to the Trustees through the Superintendent.

5. The Conference authorises the President, during the year, to affix his signature to any consent to the sale of Trust Property which may be certified to him as approved by the Chapel Committee.

6. Sir WILLIAM MIDDLEBROOK, of Morley, and Mr. ALFRED BROOKES, of Lytham, are re-appointed Treasurers of the General Chapel Fund.

All communications are to be addressed to the Rev. JOHN HORNABROOK, Central Buildings, Oldham Street, Manchester, Secretary to the Board.

Retirement of Mr. Thomas Cole.

(1) The Conference deeply regrets that Mr. Thomas Cole, who has been a member of the Board of Trustees for fifteen years, finds it necessary to retire on grounds of health. The Conference places on record its high appreciation of the services which Mr. Cole has rendered as a member of the Board, and expresses the hope that his health may be so far restored as to enable him still to render valuable service to the Church of which he has been a loyal and generous supporter for so many years.

(2) The Conference hereby appoints Sir Henry Holloway as a member of the Board of Trustees in the place of Mr. Thomas Cole retired.

The Hamley Bequest.

(3) At the Conference of 1915, the following resolution was adopted: "The Conference repeats the instruction of last year, authorising the President and Secretary of the Conference to take all necessary steps, with a view to the transfer of the legacy of the late John Hamley, late of Thruselton, Devonshire, to the Trustees for Wesleyan Methodist Chapel Purposes (Registered), to be administered by the Board in the interests of Methodism."

(4) The Conference appoints the Secretary of the Board of Trustees to give a discharge for the legacy.

(5) The following Committee is appointed to advise the Conference as to the appropriation of the money: Revs. Marshall Hartley, F. Luke Wiseman, B.A., H. Arnaud Scott, Sir William Middlebrook, the Rt. Hon. Thomas R. Ferens, Mr. Thomas S. Howorth, with the Rev. John Hornabrook as Convener.

C. Sargant, G. McArthur Scales, Enas J. Truslove, Charles Vernon, R. Hugh Volckman, Sir Kingsley Wood, M.P., and Miss Wyburn.

Rev. Leonard Hale, Convener.

XI. Spiritual Advance.

In adopting the report of the Home Mission Committee on Spiritual Advance, the Conference records its deep thankfulness to Almighty God for the gracious visitation of reviving grace recently granted to our Churches, and calls our people everywhere to take full advantage of the opportunities for united and vigorous effort to reach the " outsider " which the times afford. It commends the details of the scheme of advance contained in the report, to the prayerful consideration and practice of our Churches, and invites Superintendents and officers of circuits to accord to Ministers with evangelistic gifts facilities for occasional absence from their circuits, for the purpose of taking part in some of these special evangelistic missions :

I

The Committee reports with much gratification the ready and general response given by our churches to the resolutions on Spiritual Advance adopted by the last Conference and records its deep thankfulness to God for the rich and manifold blessing resting upon the special evangelistic efforts of the year.

Without doubt there is open before us "a great door and effectual." From all parts of the land come tidings of gracious revival. Remarkable results have attended the Gipsy Smith Campaign. Vast congregations have gathered nightly; the Evangelist's message has been with convincing power; thousands of men, women and young people have openly professed their desire to follow the Lord Christ. In some Districts the mission has been preceded or followed by local missions throughout the District. Astonishing results have followed the Methodist United Mission on the Tyneside. In many towns of the Bolton, Sheffield and Kent Districts there has been gracious awakening and ingathering. The increased staff of Connexional Evangelists has been fully engaged; in some of the places visited mighty power has rested upon the congregation, and hundreds have been brought to the feet of the Saviour. Many circuit ministers also have helped forward the movement by undertaking special missions both in their own and in other circuits. Not a few have rejoiced to find themselves possessed of an unsuspected gift of successful evangelistic appeal. Cliff College Evangelists have rendered most effective services, conducting during the year no less than 250 special missions, culminating in a week's mission in Rotherham in which the College concentrated its whole strength. The wonderful scenes of Chesterfield were repeated and hundreds, even thousands, were turned to the Lord.

Great as have been the spiritual results so far achieved, the Committee believes that the revival is destined to become yet more general. The work of the year should be regarded as preparative rather than as consummative. It has revived the faith and quickened the fervour of our members. It has brought thousands of young people already associated with us to definite decision for Christ. Backsliders have been recovered to the fellowship of the Church, and hardened sinners converted. Our churches are now better fitted to receive and to care for new members, and are equipped with an army of workers ready for Christian service and eager to undertake the adventure of aggressive work. Furthermore, the efforts of the year have done much to quicken the spiritual sense of the nation—creating interest in the Kingdom of God, awakening longing for personal salvation and kindling hope in the World's Redeemer. The people, moreover, are impatiently seeking a way of escape from present economic distresses and social inequalities. The true remedy for a disillusionment that courts revolution, and a despair of betterment that seeks oblivion in frivolity and carnal pleasures, lies in a fresh realisation of the import of the Gospel message and of the illimitable resources of the Head over all things to make all things new. To the widespread and confident proclamation of the Gospel of Redemption, the needs of the time, the opportunity of the hour, and the tradition of our Church call us.

II

The Home Mission Committee therefore appeals to the Conference to take steps to conserve the gracious influences now resting upon our Churches and to use them for the extension of the work so auspiciously begun. It ventures to urge the definite mobilising of the forces of our Church for a united prayerful, vigorous and well-directed effort to reach the " outsider " and bring the Gospel to the masses of the people. Conditions and circumstances in various parts of the country differ so widely that no plan could be devised of universal applicability. Uniformity of detail is unattainable even if desirable. Scope must be given to local ingenuity and initiative. But general participation in a common effort is of the greatest importance and value. The scheme might include :

(1) A still more general and well-informed presentation of the Gospel in the open-air. Open-air services are increasingly well organised at which Christian testimony is faithfully borne with gracious results. But to-day, as never before, the enemies of the Cross are taking the field. The concomitant of the open door is " many adversaries." It is up to the defenders of the faith to answer the challenge and to push the battle to the gate. The attack should be systematically organised, led by our ministers and supported by the best equipped of our preachers and workers. Its purpose the exposition of the Kingdom of God as the Christian solution of the problems of the age no less than the answer to the deep and abiding needs of the individual soul.

(2) The arranging of special evangelistic missions by the United Methodist Churches during the next winter or spring. Those who took part in the memorable Tyneside Mission speak of the spiritual power attending the united testimony, the heightened joy resulting from fellowship and the profound effect made on the people by the union of the churches. In several towns arrangements are already in a forward state for missions on similar lines. It would be well to make this the special feature of the year's campaign. The other Methodist Churches are desirous of co-operating in such missions.

The better to make requisite arrangements, the Committee suggests that Conference should invite circuit stewards and Quarterly Meetings to co-operate in the special effort of this year by allowing ministers with evangelistic gifts facilities for occasional absence from their circuits for the purpose of taking part in some of these special evangelistic missions.

(3) A carefully planned and systematically sustained effort of house to house visitation especially in the neighbourhood of the chapel. By such means an opportunity of friendly intercourse may arise ; former adherents may be found and induced again to come to the services, new attendants gathered, children added to the Sunday School, and the sick and the distressed may receive welcome ministration. Encouraged and led by experienced workers many of the new members would be ready to undertake this service.

(4) Greater concentration upon the spiritual activities of the Church. However desirable and expedient the social and institutional side of the work, it is auxiliary to the spiritual not a substitute for it. The Church truly is a home of all God's children and seeks to provide for the many sides of their nature; yet it exists to serve not to be served, to witness not to be entertained, to seek and to save not to be pampered. Especially when the need and opportunity for aggressive evangelistic work is so great as at present, effort should be made to bring all the resources of the Church to bear upon the task.

(5) The bringing of the ordinary Sunday Services into the sphere of operations. Special services have their special value, but what is wanted is to lift the ordinary to the level of the extraordinary. As the greater number of our services are conducted by Local Preachers it is essential that their co-operation should be secured. Many who little suspected they had the gift of evangelism have during the year made the joyful discovery that they also can be used in the work of conversion.

The times are critical. A similar opportunity may not occur again for years. The nation is looking for spiritual leadership. Endowed with the abundant life which Christ gives, it will come to clearness of vision and strength to attain to the higher plane of moral excellence and social well-being for which it longs. The twentieth century calls to the Children of the Evangelical Revival to do for it a like work to that which their fathers were enabled to accomplish for the eighteenth.

Chairmen of Districts without Pastoral Charge (Agenda 1923, p. 41).

The Conference receives the memorandum on Chairmen without Pastoral Charge and refers the same to the Home Mission Committee for further consideration during the year and to report to the next Conference.

SEAMEN'S MISSION.

1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report (Agenda, 1923, pp. 51–2).

2. The Conference is gratified to hear that the manifold activities of the Mission on behalf of the men of the Mercantile Marine have been so fruitful during the year. It regrets, however, that a work so valuable to the Empire is hampered by debt and that, in consequence, the Committee has been unable to provide the increased accommodation so urgently needed at the Queen Victoria Seamen's Rest. The Conference heartily commends the Mission and its appeal to the prayerful sympathy and generous support of the Methodist people.

3. The following is the Committee for the ensuing year: The President and Secretary of the Conference; the Trustees of the Queen Victoria Seamen's Rest; the Officers of the Home Mission Committee; the Chairman and Secretary of the First London District; the Secretary of Common Cash; the Ministers of the Seamen's Mission; the Seamen's Mission Circuit Stewards, and the Treasurers of the Mission; with the Revs. J. 4. The cordial thanks of the Conference are presented to Mr. Major Lawson, the Executor of the will of the late Miss Ada Pearson, who bequeathed a house for a House of Rest at Bridlington to be known as "The Josiah Pearson Home of Rest for Ministers" with the sum of £700 as an endowment for the upkeep of the house.

THEOLOGICAL INSTITUTION.

Q. XI. What are the Resolutions of the Conference with regard to the Theological Institution?

A. 1. The Conference receives the Report of the General Committee, together with the financial Statement of the General Treasurers (Agenda, 1923, pp. 161–92).

2. The Conference directs that the financial year of the Institution Fund shall close on June 6 of each year.

3. Educational Standard for Students entering College.

The Conference is strongly of opinion that the prescribed standard is a modest and reasonable requirement from men who offer themselves for the Christian Ministry and considers it inadvisable to lower the standard.

Recognising, however, that cases arise of Candidates whose failure to reach the required Educational Standard is more than counterbalanced by remarkable gifts in other directions, the Conference resolves that its regulation shall not be so applied as to prevent any such candidate accepted by the Conference from entering the Theological Institution.

4. The Rev. MARSHALL HARTLEY and Mr. THOMAS S. HOWORTH are appointed the General Treasurers; the Rev. W. PERCY HUTTON, B.A., is appointed the General Secretary; Mr. GEORGE PARKER and Mr. J. ARTHUR RANK, D.L., are appointed the Treasurers of the Richmond Branch; Mr. GEORGE F. BYROM and Mr. WILLIAM E. POTTS are appointed the Treasurers of the Didsbury Branch; Mr. ALBERT W. BAIN and Mr. WALTER C. ATKINSON are appointed the Treasurers of the Headingley Branch; Mr. ALFRED LONG and Mr. JOHN LEES are appointed Treasurers of the Handsworth Branch; the Rev. HARRY BISSEKER, M.A., is appointed the Treasurer of the Cambridge Branch; the Rev. LESLIE F. CHURCH, B.A., is appointed the Secretary of the Richmond Branch; the Rev. ALBERT H. WALKER, B.A., is appointed the Secretary of the Didsbury Branch; the Rev. ARTHUR RUDMAN is appointed the Secretary of the Headingley Branch; the Rev. GEORGE B. ROBSON is appointed the Secretary of the Handsworth Branch; and Mr. A. PAGE GRUBB is appointed the Secretary of the Cambridge Branch.

5. The following are the General Committee for the ensuing year: The Rev. T. FERRIER HULME, M.A., President of the Conference; Rev. JOHN E. WAKERLEY, Ex-President; Rev. THOMAS KIRKUP, Secretary of the Conference; the General Treasurers; the Local Treasurers; the General Secretary; the Local Secretaries; the Tutors of the several Branches; Revs. Josiah Banham, Frederick H. 4. The Education Committee from its own members shall each year appoint Executive Sub-Committees, responsible for the following matters:

(a) Primary Education. A Committee consisting of twenty-four members.

(b) Training Colleges. A Committee that shall also be recognised as the Governing Body of the Westminster and Southlands Training Colleges, consisting of twenty-four members. At least two-thirds of the members shall be persons resident in or near London, and six shall be women.

(c) Wesleyan Secondary Education. A Secondary Schools Committee of twenty-four members, which shall be deemed to be the Governing Body of the said Schools for all purposes required by the Board of Education. Provision to be made for the representation of the several Secondary Schools owned by the Board of Management. In respect of this Committee the term "Board of Management for Wesleyan Secondary Schools" shall be retained.

The ex-officio members of the above three Executive Sub-Committees shall be:

(i) The President of the Conference.
(ii) The Treasurers of the Education Fund.
(iii) The Secretary of the Education Committee.

These Committees shall be elected annually, and shall hold office until the election of their successors; but matters involving expenditure beyond the annual budget must have the sanction of the Education Committee. In all ordinary matters of administration the above Committee shall have the fullest power of action.

The rules of the Conference as to the retirement of members of Connexional Committees shall apply to the Education Committee, but not to the Executive Sub-Committees.

5. Closing of Wesleyan Day Schools.—In the interests of the Methodist Church and of the Education of the Country (especially in rural districts), the Conference deeply deplores the giving up of any Methodist School, and would impress upon all our Managers that before any steps are taken towards transfer or surrender, they should lay the case before both the District Education Committee and the Connexional Education Committee for their counsel and assistance.

6. Grants to Day Schools.—In applications for Grants coming before the Education Committee, the judgment of the Chapel Committee or Sunday School Committee of the District Synod, from which these applications come, shall be obtained and laid before the members of the Connexional Education Committee when such applications are being considered. This rule shall apply to ordinary applications, and not to those of special urgency.

7. Administrative Resolutions and Resolutions of 1891, 1895, and 1899 (see Minutes, 1905, pp. 64–8).—The Conference directs that the following Resolutions, previously adopted, shall be reprinted:

(1) The Conference empowers the Wesleyan Education Committee to make Grants towards expenditure incurred by structural and other alterations demanded by the Board of Education in Day-school premises.

(2) Day and Sunday Schools.—The Statistics of the Day and Sunday Schools of each Circuit shall be read in the March Quarterly Meeting; but if sufficient time be not then available for the discussion of the Statistics, and for inquiry into the state of the Schools, such discussion and inquiry shall take place in the June Quarterly Meeting.

(3) The Education Schedules, having been duly filled up and presented to the March Quarterly Meeting, shall be sent by the Superintendents to the District Sunday School Secretary not later than April 3 in each year.

(4) District Sunday School Committees shall have charge also of the interests of the Day Schools in their respective Districts.

8. Southlands College Chaplaincy.—The Conference approves the re-appointment of the Rev. James Critchison as Chaplain, for the Connexional year commencing September 1923.

9. Westminster and Southlands Colleges.—In view of the Board of Education Committee, the Conference instructs the Education Committee, in consultation so far as may be necessary with the Trustees, to inquire into the whole position of the Westminster and Southlands Colleges, and to report. It is especially instructed to inquire to what extent, if any, economies may be effected by the pooling of financial and educational resources.

10. Single School Areas.—The Education Committee is instructed to bring before the Board of Education the unfair position of Non-conformist children in single school areas where there is no religious teaching available than that of one denomination.

The Committee is also instructed to impress upon the Board that in all such areas there should be absolute eligibility of appointment for all teachers, irrespective of their religious opinions.

11. Grant to Connexional Local Preachers' Committee.—The Conference refers the following recommendation to the sympathetic consideration of the Education Committee:

That in view of the educational work of the Connexional Local Preachers' Committee, an annual grant of £200 be made from the Education Fund to the Connexional Local Preachers' Committee.

12. Rydal School, Colwyn Bay.

The Conference resolves:

(a) That the scheme for the administration of Rydal School, Colwyn Bay (approved by the Conference of 1922) be entered on the Journal of the Conference.

(b) That the Scheme of Administration referred to in the Minutes of Conference, 1922, p. 46, is the scheme set forth and printed in the Wesleyan Education Report 1923 and is accepted by the Conference as such.

(c) Under the Scheme for the administration of Rydal School, Colwyn Bay, two of the Governors appointed by the Conference are to retire annually. The Conference accordingly retires the Rev. Dr. Workman and Mr. Edward R. Lightwood, B A., both of whom are hereby re-appointed. The following is a complete list of the Governors, the first six named being appointed by the Conference : Revs. Frederick J. Briggs, John Hornabrook, Dr. Herbert B. Workman ; Messrs. Charles W. Ashcroft, J. Rayner Batty, Edward R. Lightwood, B.A. (Chairman), Alfred Brookes, Ernest Broxap, M.A., A. Winter Cockeram, Sydney R. Dodds, M.A., LL.B., Samuel Hough, William Lancaster, Robert H. Posnett, William H. Smith, Arthur E. Sutcliffe.

Appointed by the Board of Education : Lady Colwyn, Prof. Ramsay Muir, Dr. R. Phillips. Secretary, Mr. Charles H. Mitchell.

13. Mortgage of Certain Wesleyan Secondary School Properties.—The Conference adopts the following Resolution :—That in accordance with the provisions of Clause 4 of The Wesleyan Methodist Secondary Schools Trust Deed of 1903, the Conference directs the Trustees to raise a mortgage of Fifteen Thousand Pounds (£15,000) on the real properties of the Trustees at Bury St. Edmunds, Canterbury and Truro, for expenditure of Five Thousand Pounds(£5,000) on the improvement of the Bury St. Edmunds School, and of other sums not exceeding Ten Thousand Pounds (£10,000) to be raised and expended from time to time for other improvements of Secondary Schools as and when the same shall be approved by the Board of Management for Wesleyan Secondary Schools.

14. Wesleyan Methodist Secondary Schools Trust Deed of 1903.—The Conference adopts the following resolutions :

(a) That notwithstanding anything to the contrary in Clause 4 of the Trust Deed for Secondary Schools, the Conference in virtue of its powers to alter and amend at any time the Trust Deed authorises the Rev. Marshall Hartley, Brigadier-General Sir John Barnsley, the Treasurers of the Trust, and the Rev. Dr. Workman the Secretary of the Trust, to complete the said mortgage without first formally submitting the same to the Education Committee.

(b) The Conference accepts the written resignation sent to the President of the Conference (Rev. John E. Wakerley) of the Rev. William F. Lofthouse, M.A., D.D., and of Mr. William H. Smith, from the Wesleyan Secondary Education Trust.

(c) That all purchases and mortgages of property and other acts of any nature whatsoever carried out by resolution of the Wesleyan Methodist Secondary Schools Trustees under the Trust Deed executed in 1912 shall be deemed and are hereby declared to be valid acts of the Trustees, notwithstanding that the resignation of the Rev. William F. Lofthouse and Mr. William H. Smith had not been formally presented to and accepted by the Conference before the passing of this resolution.

SECONDARY SCHOOLS.

15. The following Schools acquired by the Twentieth Century Fund are now under the control of the Education Committee:

(1) East Anglian School, Bury St. Edmunds.

THE LEYS SCHOOL.

The Conference receives the Report of the Leys School, Cambridge (Agenda, 1923, p. 131).

UNIVERSITY SCHOLARSHIPS.

(1) ADDITION TO TRUST DEED. As under the Deed of 1905 the powers of the Trustees to receive bequests are somewhat restricted, the Conference, on the request of the Trustees, approves the following addition to Clause 1 of the Trust Deed :—

> In addition to the said sum of £4,000 the Trustees may accept donations, gifts, legacies, or transfers of personal estate either with or without conditions as they think fit and the same shall when accepted form part of the Trust Fund and be subject to the same trusts powers and provisions as are declared in these presents with regard to such Trust Fund except such modifications as may be necessary to comply with the conditions (if any) accepted by the Trustees.

For copy of Trust Deed adopted by Conference see Minutes of Conference, 1905, pp. 495–7.

(2) The Conference receives the Report of the Trustees (Agenda, 1923, pp. 129–30), and appoints Miss Laura Smith a Trustee in place of Mr. H. A. Smith, deceased.

WESLEY DEACONESS INSTITUTE.

Q. XIX. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on the Wesley Deaconess Institute?

1. The Conference receives the Report of the Wesley Deaconess Institute (Agenda, 1923, pp. 299–304).

2. The Conference expresses its satisfaction with the work of the Wesley Deaconess Order, both in this country and on the Foreign Mission Field. It looks for a steady increase in the number of women called and qualified for this indispensable and honourable Service, and earnestly commends this important work to the steady and sympathetic support of our people.

The total number of Deaconesses in the Order on June 1 1923. was:

Deaconesses	221
Set apart this year	8
		229
Probationers		45

(4) One Minister and one Layman, nominated by each Synod in Great Britain.

(5) Sir Ernest Lamb, C.M.G., is re-appointed Treasurer.

I. The Temperance Movement.

1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report (Agenda, 1923, pp. 265–70).

2. The Conference recommends that the last Sunday in October (October 28) should be observed as Temperance Sunday, and that the week following should be observed as a "Temperance Week," during which the appeal for personal abstinence from intoxicating liquors as beverages, and for active service in the cause of Temperance, should be made in all spheres of Church life.

3. The Conference rejoices in the successful development of the Educational Temperance Campaign, sanctioned and initiated by the Conference of 1921, and urges our people everywhere to respond to the appeal to be made in the forthcoming connexional year on behalf of personal total abstinence from the use of intoxicating liquors as beverages, and for active service in the cause of Temperance Reform.

4. The Conference welcomes the success attending the inauguration of the National United Temperance Campaign of the Churches, under the auspices of the Temperance Council of the Christian Churches of England and Wales, and counsels our people in all parts of the country to continue a hearty co-operation with their fellow-Christians of all denominations in a common fight against the evils of alcoholism.

5. The Conference records its hearty support of the Intoxicating Liquor (Sale to Persons under Eighteen) Bill, whereby the sale and supply of intoxicating liquors in drinking-bars to young persons under eighteen years of age will be prohibited; and welcomes the assurance of the Prime Minister that "the Government will be prepared to grant facilities before the end of this session" for the passage of the Bill through its remaining stages.

6. The Conference rejoices to learn of the union of Temperance forces throughout Scotland in preparation for the second Local Option pollings, and earnestly counsels our people in Scotland to work whole-heartedly in co-operation with the National United Campaign Committee, and the No-Licence Committees in their respective areas, and to spare no pains to secure that the full Methodist vote shall be cast in favour of "No Licence" at the Local Option polls in the coming winter. The Conference further recommends that on the Sunday preceding the Local Option polls in Scotland, special attention should be called to the necessity of our people using their votes and influence on the side of No Licence.

7. The Conference congratulates the Temperance forces of the Methodist Church in Ireland on the passage, by the Northern Parliament of Ireland, of legislation which, among other reforms, enacts Sunday closing of drinking-bars, abolishes the bona fide traveller, prohibits the sale of intoxicants for their own consumption to young persons under eighteen years of age, and provides for the early abolition of all grocers' licences.

8. The Conference directs the Temperance Committee to consider the whole question of the illicit liquor traffic between the West Indian Colonies and the United States, and to make such representations to the Government as may seem desirable.

9. The Conference re-affirms the following Resolution adopted by the Conference of 1920:

> "The Conference declares that the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors for beverages is definitely opposed to the best interests of the State and to the Kingdom of God, and recommends our people everywhere to work and pray for the total and permanent prohibition of the common manufacture and sale of alcoholic drinks."

10. The Conference directs the Committee to prepare, for submission to the Conference in 1924, a statement which shall briefly define, in general harmony with former declarations of the Conference, its attitude to the Drink Evil, with special reference to: (1) The bearing of this subject on Christian discipleship, and on the corporate responsibility of the Church of Christ; (2) the urgent necessity for legislative action which shall open the way for a just and permanent solution of the national drink problem; and (3) the safeguarding of native people against the curse of alcoholism.

II. Public Morals.

1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee (Agenda, 1923, pp. 271–2).

2. The Conference welcomes the Matrimonial Causes (Regulation of Reports) Bill, 1923, introduced by Sir Evelyn Cecil, in view of the restrictions that the Bill proposes to place upon the publication of the reports of judicial proceedings, and urges upon His Majesty's Government the immediate necessity of a drastic limitation, in the public interest, of the reports of divorce cases and similar judicial proceedings.

III. International and Industrial Relationships.

1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee (Agenda, 1923, pp. 273–5).

2. The Conference records its determined opposition to the legalising of betting, and to the creation of a new vested interest by the licensing of bookmakers. The Conference, recognising that to legalise betting and to license bookmakers would inevitably involve the official sanction and support of the State to an evil which disastrously affects the economic, social and moral life of the community, urgently appeals to His Majesty's Government to refrain from these retrograde measures.

3. The Conference recognises the urgent need for reform of the laws relating to Gambling, so as to secure a diminution of the widespread inducements which constitute so grave a temptation, particularly to the youth of the community. The Conference therefore approves the proposal to appoint, from the Standing Committee of the Department, a group who shall examine the facts relating to Gambling, and the existing legislation relevant thereto, with a view to suggesting further legislative action.

4. The Conference records its determined opposition to any attempt to raise revenue by the taxation and legalisation of betting.

5. The Conference re-affirms the following Resolutions adopted by the Conferences of 1921 and 1922.

(1) "The Conference views with deep concern the increasing hold which the practices of gambling have upon large sections of the community, and particularly deplores the growth of sweepstakes and raffles in business and social circles."

(2) "In view of the many disguises under which raffles are frequently announced, the Conference calls attention to the fact that under no circumstances are raffles of any description permitted in halls, schools, institutes, or other premises forming part of our Church buildings, nor in association with any of our Church funds; and urges upon all our people the necessity of refraining from engaging in any competition in which the principle of the raffle is involved."

(3) "The Conference emphasises the need for careful and persistent education of young people in Sunday Schools, Wesley Guilds, Bands of Hope, and other boys' and girls' organisations respecting the nature and evil of gambling in its manifold forms."

(4) "The Conference, having regard to the serious development of gambling throughout the country, urges upon all Church members who have influence in commercial and industrial life the necessity of using every available means to reduce the temptations to this vice which frequently confront young people in the circumstances of their daily work.

(5) "The Conference deeply deplores the growth of betting and gambling in the community, and especially the increased participation in sweepstakes by young people. Realising the need for an unmistakable Christian witness on this matter, the Conference urges all our people definitely to dissociate themselves from all forms of gambling, including sweepstakes and raffles for charitable purposes."

6. The Conference records its satisfaction that the question of the International Drug Problem is in the capable hands of a Commission of the League of Nations, and thankfully acknowledges the services already rendered by that Commission.

At the same time the Conference recognises the need for a watchful and informed public opinion on this great evil; especially with a view to securing restriction of manufacture as well as of cultivation.

7. The Conference, deeply concerned at the industrial unrest, remits the whole matter to the Temperance and Social Welfare Committee for their consideration during the year.

8. The Conference, recognising the urgent need for a courageous moral leadership in international affairs on the part of the Christian Churches, and believing that the active and continuous co-operation of the British and American peoples is essential to a settlement of the present international difficulties, resolves to invite the Methodist Churches of the United States and of the United Kingdom to take the steps requisite to effective co-operation in the promotion of world peace.

Further, as a means to this end, the Conference invites the Methodist Churches of the two countries to appoint representatives to a Joint Committee for the promotion of this purpose.

9. The Conference expresses unhesitatingly its conviction that war is an un-Christian method of settling disputes between nations, and pledges itself to work for conditions which will guarantee that there shall be no more war: (a) by calling upon Christian people everywhere earnestly to seek by prayer and effort the promotion of the spirit of peace; (b) by perfecting international organisation for the removal of the causes of war, the settlement of disputes, and the promotion of international co-operation; (c) by developing an international sense of solidarity which will make war impossible.

IV. Sunday Questions.

1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee (Agenda, 1923, pp. 275–6).

2. The Conference directs that, on the first Sunday after Easter, the subject of the significance and sanctity of the Lord's Day shall receive special attention in our Churches and Sunday Schools.

The Conference earnestly entreats all our people, by personal endeavour and example, to maintain the habit of Divine worship on the Holy Day of Rest.

3. The Conference re-affirms its resolution of 1922, protesting against the decision of the London County Council to permit Sunday games in the London parks, and calls upon the London County Council to revoke that decision.

4. The Conference deplores the rapid growth of the habit of treating Sunday as a day of pleasure amongst all classes, and that Sunday games are indulged in even by many professedly Christian people. The Conference is convinced that an excuse is thereby given to those who are seeking to secularise the Sunday. Such practices inevitably tend to the neglect of public worship, of Sunday School work, and other Christian social services which are of the utmost importance to the nation and the Church. The Conference believes that the situation has been greatly prejudiced by the conflicting views expressed by prominent Christian leaders. It therefore instructs the Department to consider carefully, with such consultation as may be necessary, whether common action by the Christian Churches may be possible similar to that achieved on the subject of Temperance by the institution of the Temperance Council of the Christian Churches.

5. The Conference rejoices that a new interest has been awakened in all the Churches, and in the public mind generally, concerning the obligations, purposes, and privileges of the Lord's Day. The Conference urges our Ministers and people everywhere to be vigilant in safeguarding from thoughtless and selfish uses, a sacred heritage essential to the spiritual mission of the Christian Church and the common welfare of the nation.

METHODIST SETTLEMENT IN LONDON.

Q. XXI. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on the subject of the Methodist Settlement in London ?

1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee (Agenda, 1923, p. 281).

2. The following are appointed the Committee for the year: The PRESIDENT, the EX-PRESIDENT, and the SECRETARY of the Conference; Revs. Frank C. Beecher, B.A., Harry Bisseker, M.A., K. Harley Boyns, Henry Carter, Ernest F. Drew, R. Newton Flew, M.A., Edward J. Gawne, Grainger Hargreaves, G. H. Baron Hay, B.A., B.D., W. Marshall Johnson, Roderick M. Kedward, Dr. J. Scott Lidgett, M.A., William F. Lofthouse, M.A., D.D., G. Boyd MacGarr, H. Arthur Meek, B.A., W. Hodson Smith, C. Ensor Walters, Eric S. Waterhouse, M.A., D.D., F. Luke Wiseman, B.A.; Messrs. George Parker, Talbot Peel, M.A., T. Edwin Pomeroy, Benjamin A. Richmond, M.D., B.S., B.Sc., Rt. Hon. Walter Runciman, Mr. George Shrubsall, Miss Mary Simmons, Mr. George W. Stuchbery, Mr. Hubert A. Wootton, M.A., B.Sc., together with three Representatives each, to be chosen by the Wesley Societies at Oxford, Cambridge, and Edinburgh.

3. Mr. CHARLES E. PARKER is re-appointed Treasurer, and the Rev. Dr. J. SCOTT LIDGETT is re-appointed Convener.

Q. XXII. What Resolutions provisionally adopted by the last Conference in its Representative Session, and sent to the Annual Synods for consideration, are now confirmed ?

A. 1. That the District Sunday School Council shall nominate to the September Synod a name for appointment as District Treasurer. If the Synod approves the nomination, the one so nominated shall be one of the six Laymen elected by the Synod as Members of the District Sunday School Committee, and shall report annually upon District Sunday School Finance.

2. That the Circuit Secretary of the Women's Auxiliary, being a Member of Society in that Circuit, and whose election is made or confirmed by the Quarterly Meeting, shall be ex-officio a member of that Quarterly Meeting.

Q. XXIII. What Resolutions of the Conference are to be submitted to the Districts in Great Britain, at their Annual Synods, when Ministers and Laymen are present?

A. None.

SPECIAL COMMITTEES.

NOMINATION COMMITTEE.

1. The Conference adopts the Report (Agenda, 1923, p. 305).

2. The Conference appoints the Committee as follows: The PRESIDENT of the Conference, the SECRETARY of the Conference, together with the Revs. William Collett, John Elsworth, E. Benson Perkins, David Rycroft, J. Alfred Sharp; Messrs. J. Rayner Batty, Thomas W. Clucas, Josiah Gunton, John H. Turner, and Alfred Wassell.

3. The Rev. William Collett and Mr. J. Rayner Batty are re-appointed Secretaries.

ECUMENICAL METHODIST COMMITTEE.

1. The Conference receives the Report of the Ecumenical Methodist Committee (Eastern Section) (Agenda, 1923, pp. 307–8).

2. The Conference hears with much satisfaction that a meeting of the Committee (Eastern Section) will be held on September 19 and 20, 1923, to consider and, if possible, secure united action on certain questions of common interest to the Methodist Churches in the Eastern and Western Sections.

3. The Conference appoints the following as representatives of the Wesleyan Methodist Church upon the Committee: Rev. T. FERRIER HULME, M.A., President of the Conference; Rev. JOHN E. WAKERLEY, Ex-President; Revs. Charles W. Andrews, B.A., B.D., Frederick H. Benson, B.A., W. Bardsley Brash, B.D., B.Litt., J. Alfred Sharp, F. Luke Wiseman, B.A.; Brig.-Gen. Sir John Barnsley, V.D., Mr. Isaac Foot, M.P., Mr. George Knight, Sir William Middlebrook, Sir Robert W. Perks, Bart., Rt. Hon. Walter Runciman, Miss Lena Wallis, with the Rev. Dr. WORKMAN Convener.

In the unavoidable absence of any member of the Ecumenical Methodist Committee, the vacancy shall be filled from the list of names given under par. 4 below.

4. The Conference remits the following matters to the Committee for their consideration and action:

(a) The illicit liquor traffic between the West Indian Colonies and the United States, and to make such representations to the Government as may seem desirable.

N.B.—This matter is also referred to the Temperance Committee

(b) Methodist Churches and World Peace.—The Conference expresses unhesitatingly its conviction that war is an un-Christian method of settling disputes between nations, and pledges itself to work for conditions which will guarantee that there shall be no more war: (1) by calling upon Christian people everywhere earnestly to seek by prayer and effort the promotion of the spirit of peace; (2) by perfecting international organisation for the removal of the causes of war, the settlement of disputes, and the promotion of International Co-operation; (3) by developing an international sense of solidarity which will make war impossible.

In remitting these Resolutions the Conference requests that when the subject is under discussion the following members be added to the Committee in order to present the special resolution of the Conference and to join in such action as may be deemed advisable: Revs. Thomas Kirkup, Henry Carter, Dr. John H. Ritson, M.A., Dr. H. Maldwyn Hughes, B.A., and Arthur B. Bateman, together with Sir Ernest Lamb, C.M.G., Mr. Gerald A. France, Mr. Charles G. Ammon, M.P., and Mr. Arnold Williams.

WESLEYAN METHODIST TWENTIETH CENTURY FUND.

1. The Conference re-appoints the Committee, with authority to discharge all and any of the duties of the original Committees which may still be necessary, and to decide on the allocation of any part of the Twentieth Century Fund Education money which may at any time become available, through failure to carry out any of the schemes to which the said money is allotted.

2. The following is the Committee: Rev. T. Ferrier Hulme, M.A., President of the Conference; Rev. John Hornabrook, Dr. Herbert B. Workman, M.A., Sir William Middlebrook, Sir Robert W. Perks, Bart., Mr. George Knight.

The Rev. Marshall Hartley is the Convener.

METHODIST CONCERTED ACTION.

1. The Conference re-appoints the Committee.

2. The following names form the Wesleyan Methodist portion of the Committee: Rev. T. Ferrier Hulme, M.A., President of the Conference; Rev. John E. Wakerley, Ex-President; Rev. Thomas Kirkup, Secretary of the Conference; Revs. William T. A. Barber, M.A., D.D., W. Theophilus Davison, M.A., D.D., John H. Goodman, J. Scott Lidgett, M.A., D.D.; Mr. William J. 3. The Rt. Hon. WALTER RUNCIMAN is the Treasurer, and the Rev. J. DAVISON BROWN is the Convener.

COMPULSORY SUPERNUMERARYSHIP.

1. The Conference re-appoints the Committee to negotiate with any Ministers whose cases may be referred to it by the Pastoral Session, with a view to their retirement from the Ministry.

2. The Committee is empowered to make financial arrangements to that end.

3. The following is the Committee: Rev. T. FERRIER HULME, M.A., President of the Conference; Rev. JOHN E. WAKERLEY, Ex-President; Rev. THOMAS KIRKUP, Secretary of the Conference; and the Revs. James Critchison, Marshall Hartley, George Marris, F. Luke Wiseman, B.A.; Mr. J. Rayner Batty, Rt. Hon. Thomas R. Ferens, Messrs. Williamson Lamplough, George Shrubsall.

The Rev. JAMES CRITCHISON is the Convener.

FINANCIAL APPEALS BY STRANGERS.

Considering the many abuses to which the Connexion is continually exposed by applications from unauthenticated strangers from abroad to use our Trust Property for financial ends, the Conference appoints the following Committee to consider the credentials of all such, and to express an opinion as to the advisability or otherwise of allowing the use of our Trust Property for the contemplated appeals: The PRESIDENT, EX-PRESIDENT, and SECRETARY of the Conference; and the Revs. Walter H. Armstrong, Amos Burnet, William H. Hart, Marshall Hartley; Messrs. E. Lindsay Blee, Isaac C. Griffith, Alfred Hartley, George Knight.

The Rev. WILLIAM H. HART is the Convener.

WESTMINSTER HALL AND CIRCUIT.

1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee (Agenda, 1923, p. 242).

2. The following is the Committee for the ensuing year: The Ministers of the Circuit, viz.: Revs. Dinsdale T. Young and G. R. Holt Shafto; together with the Revs. Dr. W. T. Davison, M.A., J. Wesley Hart, William H. Hart, Marshall Hartley, John Hornabrook, Thomas Kirkup, C. Ensor Walters, F. Luke Wiseman, B.A., Dr. Herbert B. Workman, M.A.; Messrs. Alfred Barriball, B.A., E. Lindsay Blee, Robert Burton, George H. Davey, Harold W. Davey, Rt. Hon. Thomas R. Ferens, Messrs. Alfred Hartley, Harold Hartley, Ernest S. Holman, J. Stewart, Arnold Williams, John P. Williams.

The Rev. WALTER H. ARMSTRONG is the Convener.

THE CUSTODY OF CONNEXIONAL DOCUMENTS.

The Conference resolves to discontinue the Custody of Connexional Documents as a special Department of the Conference, and releases the Custodian and Registrar.

COMMON CASH.

1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee (Agenda, 1923, p. 313).

2. The Committee shall consist of the Officers of all the Funds included in the Common Cash arrangement.

3. The Executive Committee shall consist of the Treasurers of the Missionary Society; the Treasurers and Deputy Treasurer of the Home Mission Fund; the Ministerial Treasurer of the Children's Fund; the Secretary of the London Mission and Extension Fund; and the Secretary of the Connexional Funds Office (Convener).

INQUIRY CONCERNING METHODIST UNION.

The Conference, having received the report of the Committee appointed by the Wesleyan, Primitive and United Methodist Conferences dealing with the suggestions made by the Quarterly Meetings of the three Churches and by the Trustees' Meetings of the Wesleyan Methodist Church with reference to the Scheme for Union, recognises with pleasure the thoroughness and care bestowed by the local courts of the three Churches upon the consideration of the Scheme. The Conference is glad to find that the Scheme as a whole has been favourably received by a large majority. (Agenda, 1923, pp. 317–27.)

The terms of reference from the three Conferences were not identical, the Wesleyan Methodist Conference having made it possible for the local courts to pronounce upon the whole question as well as to suggest amendments to the Scheme, and for the most part this opportunity has been used. The Wesleyan Methodist Returns show that not only the Scheme, but the proposal for Union has been favourably received by a large majority, and that an even larger majority recommend the Conference to continue negotiations. There is, however, an important minority who are not prepared at present to approve the proposals. The local courts (in accordance with the invitation of the three Conferences in their respective resolutions) have submitted numerous suggestions and amendments to the Scheme, and the Conference agrees with the judgment of the United Committee that these will require more careful compilation and consideration than was possible before the meetings of the Conferences, the earliest being in June.

Further, a number of the returns from the Trustees' Meetings were not to hand when the United Committee held its last meeting prior to Conference. The Conference, therefore, in accordance with its resolution of 1913, so often repeated, renews its assurance to the other two Conferences of its continued warm desire for the closest possible unity of the whole Methodist people. The Conference re-appoints its section of the United Committee, with instructions carefully to consider during the year the proposals received from the local courts, to frame a complete Scheme of Union, and to report to the Conference of 1924 with a view to the Scheme or such modification thereof as the Conference may approve being submitted to the Connexional courts during the year.

In harmony with the suggestions received from the local courts that steps should be taken:

(a) To promote more intimate acquaintance and deeper fellowship among our members;

(b) To acquaint our people more fully with the proposals and implications of the Scheme.

The Conference directs:

(1) That interchange of pulpits, intercommunion services, and meetings for prayer and fellowship shall be arranged in all areas where more than one of the denominations is represented, and that arrangements for the carrying out of these plans shall be made at the September Quarterly Meeting.

(2) That wherever in the opinion of the September Quarterly Meeting it is held to be desirable, a meeting or meetings for information as to the proposals for Union shall be arranged, such arrangements to be made by the Quarterly Meeting which will be able to avail itself of the information provided by the Committee.

The Conference adopts these proposals, and directs that the completed Scheme be presented to the Conferences of 1924.

The following is the Committee: The Rev. T. Ferrier Hulme, M.A., President of the Conference; Rev. John E. Wakerley, Ex-President; Rev. Thomas Kirkup, Secretary of the Conference; and the Revs. Walter H. Armstrong, William T. A. Barber, M.A., D.D., W. Harold Beales, Edward A. Bennett, Henry Bett, M.A., Amos Burnet, J. Williams Butcher, Henry Carter, Samuel Chadwick, William A. Chettle, B.A., Robert Coutts, J. Edwin Dixon, John Elsworth, Josiah Flew, E. Aldom French, R. Moffat Gautrey, H. Harrison Gower, A. REPORT OF THE UNITED COMMITTEE OF THE REPRESENTATIVES OF THE WESLEYAN METHODIST, PRIMITIVE METHODIST, AND UNITED METHODIST CHURCHES.

This Committee, having received through the Denominational Committees, the reports of the Quarterly Meetings of the three Churches, and of the Trustees' Meetings of the Wesleyan Methodist Church, recognises with pleasure the thoroughness and care bestowed by these local courts upon the consideration of the proposed Scheme for Union. The Committee recognises that there is a minority who are not prepared at present to approve the proposals, but is glad to find that the Scheme as a whole has been favourably received by a large majority. While recommending the Conferences by an even larger majority to continue the negotiations, the Quarterly Meetings and Trustees' Meetings (in accordance with the invitation of the Conferences in their respective resolutions) have submitted numerous suggestions and amendments to the Scheme which will require more careful compilation and consideration than is possible before the meeting of the Conferences, the earliest being in June. Further, the returns from some of the Trustees' Meetings were not to hand by the date appointed for the meeting of the Committee.

The Committee, therefore, recommends the several Conferences to re-appoint their sections of the Committee with instructions carefully to consider during the year the proposals received from the local courts, to frame a complete Scheme of Union, and to report to the Conferences of 1924, so that the Scheme may be submitted to the Connexional Courts during the ensuing year.

In harmony with suggestions received from local courts that steps should be taken :

(a) To promote more intimate acquaintance and deeper fellowship among our members :

(b) To acquaint our people more fully with the proposals and implications of the Scheme.

The Committee recommends the Conferences to direct :

(1) That interchange of pulpits, inter-communion services, and meetings for prayer and fellowship shall be arranged in all areas where more than one of the denominations is represented, and that arrangements for the carrying out of these plans shall be made at the September Quarterly Meeting.

(2) That meetings for information as to the proposals shall be held in every Circuit, that the Committee shall communicate with all Superintendents, and shall be authorised to assist in making the arrangements.

The Committee recommends the Conferences to adopt these proposals, and to direct that the completed Scheme be presented to the Conferences of 1924.

The three secretaries were directed to prepare a statement concerning the returns from the local courts of the three Churches to be sent with the resolution to the three Conferences.

STATEMENT AS TO THE RETURNS FROM THE LOCAL COURTS OF THE THREE CHURCHES, PREPARED BY THE SECRETARIES OF THE THREE DENOMINATIONAL COMMITTEES UNDER THE DIRECTION OF THE UNITED COMMITTEE.

THE TERMS OF REFERENCE TO THE LOCAL COURTS.

The Wesleyan Methodist Conference of 1922 adopted the following resolution :

"The Conference therefore agrees with the judgment of the United Committee that it would not be wise to take a final vote on this great question until the people have had full time for consideration. The Conference, in accordance with the plan that has been recommended to the other two Conferences, submits the Scheme to the December Quarterly Meetings, and to the Trustees' Meetings, if possible in January, for their consideration, on the understanding that it shall be open to them to discuss the whole question, to pronounce on the advisability of proceeding with the present proposals, to suggest amendments and report to the next Conference. Should the reports from the local courts be of such a character as to justify the Conference of 1923 in proceeding, the question shall not be finally determined until the Quarterly Meetings and Trustees' Meetings have had the opportunity of considering the whole Scheme as formulated by the three Conferences concerned."

The Primitive Methodist Conference of 1922 adopted the following resolution:

"The Committee therefore recommends the three Conferences to submit the Scheme in the December Quarterly Meetings for their consideration, on the distinct understanding that the question as to whether or not Methodist Union is to be carried into effect shall not be submitted to the local courts until after the Conferences of 1923. In the meantime, it should be open to the Quarterly Meetings to express their mind on the whole Scheme and to suggest amendments, which shall be considered by the Denominational Committees, and through them by the United Committee, which shall report to the several Conferences."

The United Methodist Conference of 1922 adopted the following resolution:

"That the Conference submits the Scheme which has been prepared by the Union Committee to the December Quarterly Meetings of our Church, in order that they may discuss it and suggest any amendments. They are asked not to register a vote for or against Methodist Union at this stage. Any amendments they may propose, or suggestions they may make, will be carefully considered by our section of the Union Committee prior to their presentation to the whole Committee. The Scheme as amended will be presented to the Conference of 1923, but no final decision will be taken until our Circuits have had an opportunity at a later period of expressing themselves definitely on the main principle of Union."

Suggestions as to the Scheme.

A large number of suggestions have been submitted by the local courts of varying importance, covering recommendations for the deletion of particular clauses, the inclusion of points assumed to have been overlooked, the method of procedure for the realisation of Union, and purely verbal amendments.

The amendments which obtained the largest support demand: (1) The deletion of the proposals for the Administration of the Sacraments by other than Ministers—52 Circuits; and (2) The appointment of a Vice-President—40 Circuits; (3) The admission of Local Preachers to Leaders' Meeting—35 Circuits; (4) The status quo as to nomination of Candidates—24 Circuits; (5) The status quo as to nomination of Circuit Stewards—23 Circuits.

The proposals were submitted to the local courts under a clause which made possible the discussion of the whole question of Union as well as of the Scheme.

The returns under this heading analysed by the Committee appointed for the purpose and stated to the United Committee are as follows:

(The Statement is given in the Report of the Returns of the Quarterly and Trustees' Meetings, p. 71)

Trustees' Meetings.

The returns of the Trustees' Meetings of the Wesleyan Methodist Church were not complete at the time of the meeting of the Committee. The votes have been almost universally taken in the annual meetings of the Trusts. There were still 50 Circuits from which the returns had not been received. 6,841 Trusts had reported. The Committee had found it impossible in the time available to subject this large number of resolutions to the same detailed examination as the returns from the Quarterly Meetings, but, broadly speaking, they follow the course of the Quarterly Meetings, though individual Circuits and even Districts vary. In a large number of instances the Trustees expressed the view that having given their judgment in the Quarterly Meetings, a further resolution was unnecessary. It must be remembered that the Trustees have the right to vote in all Trustees' Meetings of which they are members, and there are a great number of plural votes.

A more detailed statement as to the Trustees' Meetings is being prepared, together with the above statement as to the Quarterly Meetings, for submission to the Wesleyan Methodist Committee which meets in June to prepare its report to the Conference.

PRIMITIVE METHODIST RETURNS.

The following is a summary of the Returns from the Primitive Methodist Quarterly Meetings on the Scheme for Methodist Union. It should be clearly understood that the Circuits were explicitly asked not to take a vote on the principle of Union at this point, and though some exceeded their instructions and did so, these in the main were in favour of Union, but no notice has been taken of these in the following analysis.

The total number of Quarterly Meetings is 686.

Of these, 248 voted approval of the Scheme as it stands.

86 declare that there are no obstacles to Union, which with good will cannot be removed, and urge for a continuance of negotiations, making no amendments to the Scheme. These may for all practical purposes be reckoned with the 248 in their general attitude towards Union. 37 adopt the same resolution, but suggest amendments to the Scheme. 28 Circuits express no opinion on the Scheme, some because they state their willingness to leave the matter in the hands of their representatives on the Committee, others because they considered the Scheme too complex for them in the time at their disposal, to pass a reasoned judgment upon it; and a few because they desired that the principle of Union should be determined before any Scheme should be considered.

26 Circuits rejected the Scheme. These may be roughly divided into three classes: (1) Those who declare that it is not democratic enough; (2) Those who think that no Union should take place until the opposition, especially in the Wesleyan Church, has died down, and, therefore, voted that the time is inopportune; (3) Those who are convinced that the best service can be rendered by remaining separate Churches, but working in closer alliance with each other. One Circuit carried a resolution in favour of Federation, with a view to ultimate Union.

The greatest number of amendments centre round the following:

First.—The questions of the Constitution of the Conference. 85 Circuits voted for a larger lay representation in varying proportions. 102 Circuits voted for the Presidency being open to a Minister or Layman, and 49 for the Vice-Presidency being open to both.

Second.—The Ministerial Session. 125 Circuits voted for its abolition altogether, and 71 for making it subordinate to the Representative Conference. 95 declare for its abolition at the Synods and 37 for bringing it under the jurisdiction of the Representative Session.

Third.—Chairmanship of Meetings. 60 Circuits voted for every meeting being free to elect its own Chairman.

Fourth.—Administration of Sacraments. 51 Circuits voted for the Quarterly Meeting to select and authorise the persons to administer, and 66 for any accredited local preacher.

It will be observed that not one fourth of the Circuits voted for any particular amendment. Many Circuits state very definitely that while they have exercised to the full their right to make suggestions and amendments to the Scheme, this is not to be construed into opposition to Union. Probably that represents the attitude of 80 per cent. of these Circuits.

SAMUEL HORTON.

UNITED METHODIST RETURNS.

The Scheme was, by direction of the Conference, sent down to the December Quarterly Meetings "in order that they may discuss it and suggest amendments." They were asked "not to register a vote for or against Methodist Union at this stage," and every Circuit scrupulously followed this request.

Of the 361 Circuits, 45 accepted the Scheme without any amendments. 21 suspended their judgment upon it, and 295 submitted amendments. 104 of these amendments got the vote of only one Circuit each. Only 9 of the remaining amendments received the votes of more than 36 of the Circuits. These amendments gather round two points:

(1) Conference Officers and the Chairmanship of Synods.
(2) The Ministerial Sessions.

By votes which vary from 67 to 137 Circuits, it is indicated that the Presidency, the Vice-Presidency, the Secretaryship of the Conference and the Chairmanship of the Synods should be open to Laymen as well as Ministers, and that each Synod should be allowed to elect its own Chairman. Also 58 of the Circuits suggest the deletion of the Ministerial Session of the Synods and 81 the deletion of the Ministerial Session of the Conference; 59 of the Circuits would refer the Ministerial Conference decisions to the Representative Conference, and 36 would refer the Ministerial Synod decisions to the Representative Synod.

Except in one or two instances, each amendment seeks to shape the Scheme on the lines of the United Methodist Constitution. In this way the preferences of the Quarterly Meetings are indicated. It would be going distinctly beyond the facts in the possession of the United Methodist section of the Union Committee for anyone to say that the preferences are in the nature of conditions on which Union can alone take place.

HENRY SMITH.

SUMMARY.

The changes in the Scheme recommended, other than those dealing with points that were regarded as having being omitted, are in all the Churches in the direction of bringing the proposed constitution of the United Church into closer conformity with the existing Constitution of those Churches.

General Sustentation Fund.—1. The Conference receives the report of the Committee together with the Treasurers' Financial Statement for the year 1922–3 (Agenda, 1923, pp. 335–40).

2. The Conference hears with deep satisfaction that all claims for Grants have been met, and expresses its appreciation of the loyalty and liberality which have characterised the response of our people to the appeals on behalf of the Fund during the year.

3. The Conference is gratified to learn that the majority of the Circuits have continued to provide Allowances from their own resources upon a higher scale than the Conference Minimum, and re-affirms the principle established by Methodist tradition and usage, that each Circuit is free to determine the Scale of Allowances provided, so long as no claim is made upon the Fund.

4. The Conference resolves that, in order to secure the necessary relief for the weaker Circuits, and to reduce the claims upon the Fund so as to bring the estimated expenditure within the probable available income, the following Scale of Minimum Stipends be adopted for the year 1923–4:

(i) For all married Ministers who have travelled ten years and upwards, £250 per annum, with £20 additional for Superintendents.

(ii) For married Ministers who have travelled less than ten years, £240 per annum (except as in paragraph (iii) below).

(iii) For young married Ministers temporarily in Probationers' appointments, £240, inclusive of a Home Mission Grant of £40 in lieu of house.

(iv) For Probationers, £160.

N.B.—It must be understood that the amounts recommended are in the nature of an aim, and not a guarantee.

5. The Conference recommends that, subject to the resources of the Fund being adequate for the purpose, a supplementary Grant of 4 guineas per child should be made to all Ministers who are in receipt of the Minimum Stipend only, so as to realise an allowance of 12 guineas per child in all such cases.

6. The Conference directs that Collections (two) be taken in all Places of Worship throughout the Connexion on behalf of the General Sustentation Fund on Sunday, November 4, 1923, and recommends the September Quarterly Meetings to arrange that, wherever possible, a Layman shall advocate the collection, especially in the principal chapels.

7. In view of the fact that the period during which the Fund was authorised expires at the Conference of 1924, and having regard to the essential and valuable service which it renders, and to the urgent need for its continuance, the Conference sanctions an extension of the Fund for a further period of three years (1924–7).

8. The Conference directs that the Annual Collection necessary for the maintenance of the Fund shall be made throughout the Connexion for the extended period. The Conference also authorises the Committee to make a further appeal for private subscriptions on behalf of the Fund.

9. That the following be the Officers and Committee for the ensuing year: Rev. T. Ferrier Hulme, M.A., President of the Conference; Rev. John E. Wakerley, Ex-President; Rev. Thomas Kirkup, Secretary of the Conference; Revs. Robert Bond, Edwin Finch, Ernest D. Green, M.A., J. Henry Greeves, Joseph T. Gurney, Marshall Hartley, John Hornabrook, Dennis Kemp, Thomas H. Penhale, F. Luke Wiseman, B.A.; Messrs. John P. Adcock, John H. Beckly, Sir Walter W. Berry, Messrs. William F. Bridgwater, William A. Briggs, Edwin H. Burden, William J. Davey, Rt. Hon. Thomas R. Ferens, Messrs. George P. Hargreaves, Harold Hartley, John H. Higgins, Sir R. Newbald Kay, Messrs. Isaac A. Mack, William J. Pollard, Arthur R. Price, Alfred Schofield, Charles W. Slater, Thomas D. Stewart, Wilfrid T. Walters, Alfred Wassell, together with one Layman elected by the September Synod of each District.

Mr. John Crowlesmith and Mr. Charles W. Early, Treasurers; Rev. Thomas Kirkup, Mr. Gerald A. France, and Mr. George Knight, Secretaries.

Special Finance Committee and General Assessment.—1. The Conference receives the interim Report of the Committee (Agenda, 1923, p. 329).

2. (1) Trinity Hall and Kingswood.—The Conference adopts the reports of the Committee on Trinity Hall and Kingswood Schools, and is satisfied, after careful investigation, that both Schools are being conducted as economically as is possible on present lines (Agenda, 1923, pp. 330–1).

(2) Envelope System.—The Conference approves the System and recommends that the following procedure be adopted:

(a) In any Church where it is proposed to introduce the "Envelope System" the consent of the Trustees must be secured at a Trustees' Meeting duly summoned. The Leaders' Meeting should also be consulted.

(b) A Finance Committee should be appointed for the Local Church. The Trustees, the Leaders, and the Society Meetings should elect their representatives on this Committee in equal numbers, and it should be annually re-appointed. The amounts to be allocated to the several Funds shall be determined by this Committee.

(c) An inclusive system, covering the collections of every Sunday in the year, together with the class-monies and the pew-rents, is recommended. In any case where special collections are excluded this shall be by resolution of the Finance Committee.

(d) In the case of collections on behalf of Connexional Funds appointed by Conference, for the first year a sum not less than the average of the three previous years shall be paid; and subsequently a proportionate share for each fund in the increase of the current year over the previous year.

(e) On all Sundays when collections are appointed for Connexional Funds these shall be indicated on the Circuit Plan; a statement concerning the Fund in question shall be publicly made; direct personal support shall be invited, and an opportunity given for any special contribution.

(f) The "Envelope System" treasurer shall promptly forward to the proper person the amounts for the various Connexional Funds.

(g) The Banking Account of the "Envelope System" should be in the name of the Church and not of an individual.

[The Conference authorises the distribution of copies of the above Report to Superintendents and other responsible leaders in the Circuits.]

3. The Conference resolves (1) That the amount of the General Assessment increased by the additional 50 per cent. as authorised by the last Conference for the year 1922–3, be allotted to the Departments according to the following scale, viz.:

Ministers' Children's Fund	£30,000
Worn-Out Ministers' Fund	26,500
Theological Institution Fund	1,000
Connexional Fund	250
	£57,750

(2) That the amount of the General Assessment for 1923-4 be the same as for 1922–3, unless in the interval the Committee can see some way of reducing the amounts.

4. The Conference re-appoints the Committee to investigate the whole question of Finance, specially with a view to relieving the General Assessment. The following are the terms of reference:

(a) The Committee shall have full power to make a complete investigation of all the Funds coming under the General Assessment.

(b) The powers of the Committee are confined to enquiry and consequent recommendation.

(c) The Committee is directed to take within its purview questions not only of expenditure, but of methods of raising income, especially the question as to whether or not any better method of raising the Funds for Connexional objects can be devised than that of annual collections.

5. The Conference resolves that a special resolution be inserted in the Minutes in acknowledgment of the immense service rendered to our Church by Mr. Arnold Williams (see page 86).

6. The following is the Committee: The Rev. T. Ferrier Hulme, M.A., President of the Conference; Rev. John E. Wakerley, Ex-President; Rev. Thomas Kirkup, Secretary of the Conference; the Treasurers and Secretaries of the Funds concerned in the General Assessment; Revs. J. Henry Cartwright, John W. Colwell, Grainger Hargreaves, J. Edward Harlow, William H. Hart, John Hornabrook, A. Gordon James, John W. Lightley, M.A., B.D., George Marris, Wilfrid J. Moulton, M.A., B.D., Thomas Naylor, B.A., Frank H. Pritchard, J. Herbert Rider, H. Arnaud Scott, John G. Tasker, D.D., Owen S. Watkins, C.M.G., Dr. Herbert B. Workman, M.A., Dinsdale T. Young; Sir A. Ernest Bain, K.B.E., Mr. Edward G. Barber, Mr. Frederick Beecroft, Sir Walter W. Berry, K.B.E., Messrs. Frank Chorley, John Crowlesmith, Harold Hartley, Isaac H. Holden, M.A., J. Arthur Jutsum, J. Tunnard Kitchen, George Knight, Williamson Lamplough, T. Duncan Leith, G. B. Nancarrow, James Rider, Charles W. Slater, Sir Josiah Stamp, K.B.E., Messrs. William A. Sturdy, John H. Turner, Alfred Wassell, Frederick W. Western, Sidney S. Wilks, Arnold Williams, John Wormald.

The Rev. Thomas Naylor, B.A., and Mr. Arnold Williams are the Secretaries of the Committee.

The Conference directs that the expenses of this Committee be borne by the Funds concerned in the General Assessment in proportion to the benefit they receive from the Assessment.

The Conference refers such Districts as shall seek relief to the favourable consideration of the Home Mission Fund and the Sustentation Fund Committees.

SPECIAL RESOLUTIONS.

Special Resolutions of Appointment.—1. Mr. GEORGE KNIGHT is appointed, in conjunction with the Ministers appointed during the Pastoral Session, to attend the Representative Session of the Conference in Ireland, to be held at Cork on Wednesday, June 18, 1924.

2. The Rt. Hon. WALTER RUNCIMAN is appointed, in conjunction with the Ministers appointed during the Pastoral Session, to attend the Representative Session of the Welsh Wesleyan Methodist Assembly, to be held at Aberystwyth on Wednesday, June 4, 1924.

3. The Rev. MARSHALL HARTLEY is appointed to ascertain, and to receive and forward to the respective Treasurers, the payments to be made, in accordance with our Rules, to the various Connexional Funds, in the case of married men who are received as Ministers, or of Ministers received from other Conferences or Churches. (See Standing Order No. 87.)

4. The Revs. J. EDWIN DIXON and THOMAS A. TURNEY are directed to prepare the volume of Agenda for the Conference of 1924.

N.B.—The Conference directs that the Order of Conference Procedure and Rules of Debate be printed in the volume of Agenda for 1924.

A copy of the Agenda shall be sent to each member of the Representative Session.

5. Mr. HAROLD HARTLEY is re-appointed Convener of the Scrutineers of votes for the election of Lay Representatives by the Conference.

6. The Rev. J. HENRY MADDOCK is appointed Convener of Scrutineers of all votes, other than those for the election of Lay Representatives, in the Representative Session of the next Conference; and, as such, is an ex-officio member of that Session.

7. The Rev. C. RYDER SMITH, B.A., D.D., is appointed Convener of the Committee on Memorials and Suggestions in the Representative Session of the next Conference.

Aldom French, Benjamin Gregory, William H. Heap, John Hornabrook, J. Scott Lidgett, M.A., D.D., Arthur Myers, David Pughe, J. Ernest Rattenbury, J. Herbert Rider, J. Alfred Sharp, C. Ensor Walters, F. Luke Wiseman, B.A.; Mr. John Crowlesmith, Rt. Hon. Thomas R. Ferens, Mr. Isaac Foot, M.P., Rt. Hon. Arthur Henderson, M.P., Messrs. Henry J. Holloway, George Knight, John Lawson, M.P., David Lewis, Sir Henry Lunn, Sir William Middlebrook, Sir Robert W. Perks, Bart., Mr. Frederick E. Potter, Sir John S. Randles, Mr. James Rider, Sir Thomas Rowbotham, Rt. Hon. Walter Runciman, Sir William H. Seager, D.L., Messrs. David J. Vaughan, Arnold Williams, and W. Arthur Turner.

The Rev. Walter H. Armstrong is the Convener.

OTHER SPECIAL RESOLUTIONS.

Retirement of Rev. John G. Tasker, D.D.—The Conference desires to place on record its high appreciation of Dr. Tasker's distinguished services during a ministry of forty-eight years, forty-two of which have been spent in the service of the Theological Colleges, eleven at Richmond, and thirty-one at Handsworth. By his personal influence and spiritual insight Dr. Tasker has done more than can be estimated to mould the life and character of successive generations of students, and there are hundreds in our Ministry to-day who are his debtors. With scholarly attainments of a high order, with unusual administrative capacity, with a beautiful spirit of gentleness and sympathy, he has combined those qualities which eminently fitted him for the position he has held. Outside the borders of our own Church Dr. Tasker's name is widely known and honoured. He has made valuable contributions to general theological literature, and has taken a leading part in the movements among the Churches for the promotion of international peace and goodwill. For seven years he was Chairman of the Birmingham and Shrewsbury District, and proved himself a wise and strong administrator and a friend to all the Circuits. The Conference gives thanks to God for the great service Dr. Tasker has rendered to the Church and assures him of its high regard and affection.

Retirement of the Rev. J. Williams Butcher.—Upon the retirement, at his own request, of the Rev. J. Williams Butcher from the office of Secretary of the Sunday School Department, the Conference records its high appreciation of the valuable service which, with conspicuous ability, devotion, and success he has rendered during the past sixteen years. Under Mr. Butcher's care and leadership the work of the Department on every side has steadily advanced. While the use of modern educational methods has been wisely encouraged in our Sunday Schools, the spiritual welfare of the scholars has always been his supreme concern. His expert knowledge and outstanding ability have given to him an honoured place in the larger movement on behalf of young people throughout the world, and our own Sunday Schools have derived incalculable benefit by that association. In relinquishing his important office, the Conference assures Mr. Butcher of its warm admiration, deep gratitude, and affectionate good-will.

Retirement of Mr. Thomas Cole.—The Conference deeply regrets that Mr. Thomas Cole, who has been a member of the Board of Trustees for fifteen years, finds it necessary to retire on grounds of health. The Conference places on record its high appreciation of the services which Mr. Cole has rendered as a member of the Board and expresses the hope that his health may be so far restored as to enable him still to render valuable service to the Church of which he has been a loyal and generous supporter for so many years.

Retirement of Mr. William J. Back.—The Conference expresses its deep regret that Mr. William J. Back feels compelled, on the grounds of health, to relinquish the office of Treasurer of the Local Preachers' Committee, a position which he has filled with so much success during the past six years. By his tireless enthusiasm and self-denying labours, Mr. Back has greatly contributed to the efficiency of the work of Local Preachers and has laid the whole Connexion under deep obligation. The Conference records its high appreciation of his devoted service, and assures him of its warm gratitude, sincere esteem, and prayerful sympathy.

Thanks to Mr. Arnold Williams.—The Conference desires gratefully to acknowledge the exceptional service which Mr. Arnold Williams has rendered to the Connexion in the work of the Special Finance Committee during the past two years. In the investigation of the financial position and outlook of the Funds related to the General Assessment, Mr. Williams has devoted his time and professional ability without stint. His expert knowledge and efficient help have been of the utmost value and have been greatly appreciated.

Entertainments on Trust Premises (Minutes, 1921, p. 309).—The Conference receives the Report (Agenda, p. 349), and refers it back to the Committee with the following directions:

(1) To reconsider the proposals in view of the Standing Orders.

(2) To prepare an explanatory statement for the guidance of our people.

The Conference re-appoints the Committee as follows: The Rev. T. Ferrier Hulme, M.A., President of the Conference; Rev. John E. Wakerley, Ex-President; Rev. Thomas Kirkup, Secretary of the Conference; Revs. George Allen, B.A., Thomas Allcock, J. Williams Butcher, Henry Carter, J. Wesley Hart, William H. Heap, John Hornabrook, William Kelson, John W. Lightley, M.A., B.D., J. Scholefield Morris, Walter J. Noble, A. Spring Sharp, W. Hodson Smith, C. Ryder Smith, B.A., D.D., F. Luke Wiseman, B.A., Alfred E. Whitham; Messrs. J. Simpson Alcock, Herbert Barraclough, William J. Beal, B.A., Frederick Beecroft, William S. Cussons, Arthur Fairfax, Henry Garner, Harold Hartley, Isaac H. Holden, Stanley Horrell, Ernest Knight, Sir William Middlebrook, Messrs. George Mitchell, W. Horrocks Rawson, William Robertshaw, Richard J. Soper, W. Arthur Turner, Charles Vernon, John G. Withinshaw, and J. Wesley Walker.

The Rev. William H. Heap is the Convener.

War Emergency Fund—1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report (Agenda, 1923, pp. 333–4).

2. The Conference directs that the Fund be closed.

3. The Conference directs that the balance of £148 5*s.* 4*d.* be placed in the hands of the Revs. Marshall Hartley and Joseph H. Bateson, C.B.E., and Sir William Middlebrook, as Trustees, to use in meeting any unforeseen case of ministers suffering from the effects of the war and needing further assistance.

4. The Conference directs that in the event of there being a balance in hand at the Conference of 1925, such balance be handed over to the Worn-Out Ministers' and Ministers' Widows' Auxiliary Fund.

5. The Conference thanks the Secretary and Treasurer of the Fund for their services.

Wesleyan Chaplains' Commissions after the War.—1. The Committee recommends that all Chaplains shall be placed under the pastoral care of the General Secretary of the Home Mission Department.

2. The Conference re-appoints the Committee, viz.: The PRESIDENT of the Conference, the SECRETARY of the Conference; Revs. Charles W. Andrews, B.A., B.D., William R. Budd, Richard Hall, O.B.E., William H. Hart, Marshall Hartley, John E. Wakerley, Owen S. Watkins, C.M.G., C.B.E., F. Luke Wiseman, B.A.; Rear-Admiral William J. Anstey, Brig.-Gen. Sir John Barnsley, V.D., Sir Walter W. Berry, K.B.E., Messrs. J. Robertson Coade, J. Harold Early, Williamson Lamplough, Sir William Middlebrook, Mr. Richard H. Millican, and Lt.-Col. William E. Walker. Rev. JOSEPH H. BATESON, C.B.E., is Convener.

Women and the Ministry.—Realising the importance to the Laity of our Church of the relation of women to the Ministry, the Conference, in its Representative Session, appoints the following, together with the Ministers appointed by the Pastoral Session, as members of the Committee on "Women and the Ministry" (Minutes, p. 280) to consider the whole question and to report: Sir A. Ernest Bain, K.B.E., Messrs. William J. Beal, B.A., E. Lindsay Blee, Charles W. Early, Isaac Foot, M.P., Edmund S. Lamplough, Oliver Quibell, Alfred Wassell, Miss Margaret Byrom, Miss Hellier, Miss Hunter, Sister Esther Taylor, Miss Lena Wallis, Mrs. Walter Wigfield, and Mrs. Herbert B. Workman. The Rev. W. RUSSELL MALTBY is the Convener.

Welsh Methodism.—Supply and training of Candidates for the Ministry (Minutes, 1920, pp. 98 and 99).

The Conference re-appoints the Committee, consisting of the following, nominated by (1) The Theological Institution Committee: Revs. Dr. John G. Tasker, Dr. Herbert B. Workman, M.A., Dr. H. Maldwyn Hughes, B.A.; Messrs. Michael Gutteridge, T. Charles Lewis, Edward R. Lightwood, B.A. (2) The Welsh Assembly: Revs. Evan Isaac, John Felix, Thomas Hughes (B); Messrs. David J. Davies, William Jones, Arthur R. Price. Dr. HERBERT B. WORKMAN, M.A., is the Convener.

Conference Procedure.—The Conference adopts the following modifications of the " Order and Form of Business " for the Representative Session of the Conference :

(1) The Representative Session shall meet on the Wednesday of the first week of the Conference at 4 p.m. for (a) the formal constitution of the Legal Conference ; (b) the transaction of such items of business as are reserved to the Legal Conference ; (c) the filling up of vacancies caused by the death or absence of Lay Treasurers of the General Connexional Funds, and Lay Representatives elected by the Conference. After this Session, to which the Public will not be admitted, the Conference will adjourn for about one hour.

(2) The Conference shall re-assemble at 6 p.m. for the Induction of the President and the delivery of the President's Address. Any preparatory business which, at present, is dealt with on the Wednesday evening may be transacted, if necessary, at this Session. The Conference will adjourn about 7.30 p.m.

(3) With the exception of the Conference Sacramental Service and the Conversation on the State of the Work of God, which, by Standing Order, are to be held on Friday morning, the whole of Thursday, Friday, and Saturday shall be reserved for general business in such order as the Conference may determine.

(4) An Evening Session shall be held on Thursday, the Conference to adjourn not later than 7 p.m. and the Memorials Committee to meet immediately afterwards.

(5) Deputations from other Churches to the Conference shall be received on Monday.

(6) The Open Session for the reception of Representatives from other Conferences shall be held on Monday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock.

Business in Synods.—The Conference receives and adopts the Report (Agenda, 1923, pp. 343–5).

National Campaign against the Drink Evil.—The Conference appoints the following Representatives to the National Campaign Advisory Board of the Temperance Council of Christian Churches of England and Wales, for the purposes of the National Campaign against the Drink Evil : The Rev. T. FERRIER HULME, M.A., President of the Conference ; Rev. JOHN E. WAKERLEY, Ex-President ; Revs. Amos Burnet, Samuel Chadwick, Leonard B. Dalby ; H. Maldwyn Hughes, B.A., D.D., William F. Lofthouse, M.A., D.D., Thomas Naylor, B.A., J. Alfred Sharp, F. Luke Wiseman, B.A., Dinsdale T. Young ; Rt. Hon. Thomas R. Ferens, Rt. Hon. Arthur Henderson, M.P., Sir Ernest Lamb, C.M.G., Sir William Middlebrook, Rt. Hon. Walter Runciman, Messrs. Charles G. Ammon,

M.P., John Crowlesmith, Isaac Foot, M.P., Gerald A. France, Miss Lena Wallis.

Trusts and Connexional Funds.—The Conference of 1921 resolved as follows :

(1) In every place of worship throughout our Church, both in Circuits and in Missions, the Connexional Collections shall be duly announced, and the object of them explained to our people.

(2) In the case of Missions, bearing in mind that the cost of the upkeep of the property and all ordinary expenditure depend upon the Offertory, at least one-half of the collections taken on a given Sunday shall be paid to each of the Connexional Funds.

(3) Where the Envelope System is in use, an average of collections for the past three years shall be paid to each Connexional Fund, it being understood that this shall be budgeted for in the amounts required year by year by each Church. Special gifts should be encouraged at each anniversary, and private donations solicited. Whenever there is a surplus on the year's working of the system, the Connexional Funds should benefit pro rata with the local church fund.

(4) Circuits which do not adopt the Envelope System shall be directed to conform to Conference Regulations, and devote a whole Sunday's collections to each Connexional Fund.

(5) The Conference recognises that in this matter the case of Scotland is exceptional, and recommends that the present arrangements there for helping the Connexional Funds shall be continued. There are difficulties in altering existing arrangements in Scotland, but the Conference is hopeful that in the near future the Envelope System will be generally adopted, which it believes will help to solve the difficulties.

Cardiff and Swansea and South Wales Districts.—The Conference recognises the growing importance of " the problem of transition in language " in relation to religious work in Glamorgan and Monmouthshire, and heartily approves of the proposal of an exchange of representatives between South Wales and Cardiff and Swansea Synods, on the understanding that such representatives have no vote in the Synods which they visit.

Admittance of Visitors to District Synods.—The Conference declares that it is competent for a Synod in its Representative Session to admit visitors, if the Synod so desires.

Students Designated for Foreign Work.—The Conference instructs the Committee of the Theological Institution to consider the means by which a more complete missionary preparation may be given to Students designated for Foreign work, and particularly to bear this in mind when dealing with any proposals for the re-opening of a College, or the general reorganisation of Theological Training.

Trust Premises and other Religious Societies.—The Conference resolves that our Trust premises shall not be let for any public religious meeting unless the Superintendent of the Circuit concerned be able to accept general responsibility for the teaching which shall be given.

League of Nations Union.—(1) The Conference, in view of the grave problems and perils of the present international situation, and deeply conscious of the need for a practical and effective support of the League of Nations, re-affirms its Resolution of 1922, which recorded the support of the Methodist people to this great endeavour to establish peace among the peoples, and to promote social well-being and progress.

(2) The Conference also counsels our people to accord their whole-hearted support to the work of the League of Nations Union, by enrolling themselves as individual members, and by the enrolment of individual Churches as corporate members thereof.

Nonconformist Children in Single School Areas.—The Education Committee is instructed to bring before the Board of Education the unfair position of Nonconformist children in single school areas where there is no religious teaching available other than that of one denomination.

The Committee is also instructed to impress upon the Board that in all such areas there should be absolute eligibility of appointment for all teachers, irrespective of their religious opinions.

Women's Auxiliary Meetings.—The Conference recommends that, if possible, a Women's Auxiliary Foreign Missionary Meeting shall be held annually in every Circuit in the Connexion.

General Sustentation Fund.—The Conference directs that annual collections (two) on behalf of the General Sustentation Fund be made in all places of worship throughout the Connexion on the first Sunday in November (the date this year is November 4). The Conference recommends the September Quarterly Meeting to arrange that, wherever possible, a layman shall advocate the collection, especially in the principal chapels.

Gifts to the Auxiliary Fund.—The Conference records its deep thankfulness for the following gifts to the Worn-Out Ministers' and Ministers' Widows' Auxiliary Fund: The Directors of the Wesleyan Methodist Trust Assurance Co., Ltd., £5,000 for the present year, and a special gift of £2,500; The Methodist Publishing House, £1,100; Messrs. Horace Marshall & Son, Publishers of the Methodist Times, £500; Proprietors of the Methodist Recorder, £125.

Sanitary Condition of Ministers' Houses.—The Conference directs that whenever a minister is appointed to a Circuit or Department for more than three consecutive years, there shall be a sanitary inspection of the house in which he resides, and a certificate of its satisfactory sanitary condition shall be presented, not only when the minister is first appointed, but after every three years of his residence.

No More War.—This Conference expresses unhesitatingly its conviction that war is an un-Christian method of settling disputes between nations, and pledges itself to work for conditions which will guarantee that there shall be no more war: (a) By calling upon Christian people everywhere earnestly to seek by prayer and effort the promotion of the spirit of peace; (b) by perfecting international organisation for the removal of the causes of war, the settlement of disputes, and the promotion of International Co-operation; (c) by developing an international sense of solidarity which will make war impossible.

Methodist Churches and World Peace.—The Conference, recognising the urgent need for a courageous moral leadership in international affairs on the part of the Christian Churches, and believing that the active and continuous co-operation of the British and American peoples is essential to a settlement of the present international difficulties, resolves to invite the Methodist Churches of the United States and of the United Kingdom to take the steps requisite to effective co-operation in the promotion of world peace. Further, as a means to this end, the Conference invites the Methodist Churches of the two countries to appoint representatives to a Joint Committee for the promotion of this object.

International Drug Problem.—The Conference records its satisfaction that the question of the International Drug Problem is in the capable hands of a Commission of the League of Nations, and thankfully acknowledges the services already rendered by that Commission.

At the same time the Conference recognises the need for a watchful and informed public opinion on this great evil; especially with a view to securing restriction of manufacture as well as of cultivation.

Connexional Lay Treasurers and the Conference.—In view of the desirability of the Treasurers of the Women's Auxiliary and the Wesley Guild being included in the List of Connexional Treasurers, the Conference appoints the following Committee to examine the Standing Orders on the subject and advise the Conference of next year as to the procedure to be adopted: The PRESIDENT, EX-PRESIDENT and SECRETARY of the Conference; Revs. John Hornabrook, J. Alfred Sharp, Marshall Hartley; Sir William Middlebrook, Messrs. George Knight, William J. Davey.

The SECRETARY of the Conference is the Convener.

Temperance Legislation in Northern Ireland.—The Conference congratulates the Temperance forces of the Methodist Church in Ireland on the passage, by the Northern Parliament of Ireland, of Legislation which, among other reforms, enacts Sunday closing of drinking-bars, abolishes the bona fide traveller, prohibits the sale of intoxicants for their own consumption to young persons under 18 years of age, and provides for the early abolition of all grocers' licences.

Local Option in Scotland.—(1) The Conference rejoices to learn of the union of Temperance forces throughout Scotland in preparation for the second Local Option pollings, and earnestly counsels our people in Scotland to work whole-heartedly in co-operation with the National United Campaign Committee, and the No-Licence Committees in their respective areas, and to spare no pains to secure that the full Methodist vote shall be cast in favour of " No Licence " at the Local Option polls in the coming winter.

(2) The Conference recommends that on the Sunday preceding the Local Option polls in Scotland, special attention should be called to the necessity of our people using their votes and influence on the side of No Licence.

Sunday Worship.—The Conference earnestly entreats all Methodists, by personal endeavour and example to maintain the habit of Divine Worship on the Holy Day of Rest.

Boy Scouts and Girl Guides.—The Conference instructs each Circuit Sunday School Secretary to send to the Connexional Sunday School Secretary, not later than March, a report of the working of the Boy Scouts and Wolf Cubs, the Girl Guides and Brownies, and that, should any local difficulty arise, the help of the Sunday School Department should be sought.

Q. XXIX. What Ministers have died since the last Conference?

A. 1. In Great Britain, fifty-three:

(1) THOMAS HOSKING: born at Crowan in Cornwall in 1844. Accepted as a Candidate in 1870, he was sent to Jamaica the following year. After eight years of arduous and successful service he was compelled to return to the homeland. For the next thirty-five years he fulfilled a successful ministry in our home circuits. A man of strong convictions, he was ever obedient to the dictates of an informed and sensitive conscience. No one could be more faithful in the discharge of his duty. An evangelical preacher, and a wise pastor, he cared for his people with a true shepherd-heart, and by the winsomeness of his character attracted many to the Saviour. In 1914 he retired from the active work, and settled at Carbis Bay. When the war came, though over seventy years of age, he heroically responded to the call of the President, and went to St. Agnes and Perranporth to do duty for men who had enlisted in H.M. Forces. During the last year of the war on three occasions he journeyed to the Scilly Islands to conduct Sunday services for the men of the Naval and Air Forces. On August 11, 1922, he passed into the presence of his Lord.

(2) ALFRED T. FAKELEY: born at River, near Dover, April 20, 1881. He owed much to the influence of a devoted Christian home, and early began to work and preach for Christ. He was accepted for the Ministry in 1903, and after a year at Sturminster entered Richmond, where he made the most of college years. Though of a retiring disposition, his geniality and unfailing sense of humour endeared him to many. He was pre-eminently a preacher, with marked originality, and there was no subject he liked better to talk about than the ministry of the pulpit. He was modest, almost depreciative, about his gifts; but they were real and considerable, and many can testify to the illuminating and inspiring quality of his preaching. Extreme care and method characterised all his work. He was a pastor beloved by the people for his kindliness and sympathy. Above all, he was a man of God, living in His love, and devoted to the service of His Kingdom. The blow which brought his active ministry to an end fell in the summer of 1921. Acute pain and weakness followed. It was hoped that he might be spared for some years, but he was called to the life of God's fulness on September 1, 1922, in the forty-second year of his age, and the seventeenth of his ministry.

(3) JOHN HARRIES: born at Merthyr Tydvil, December 26, 1852. He early yielded himself to Christ, and later felt the call to the Ministry. After a year's training at Didsbury he was sent into circuit work. He rendered faithful and efficient service through a long ministry, particularly at Lutterworth and Dundee, where he was sent by the Home Missionary Committee. He is remembered as a preacher for his evangelistic fervour, and his loyalty to the fundamental doctrines of the Gospel. His Handbook of Theology, The Gospel of Righteousness, and other works reveal the hold these had on his mind and heart. He faced the ordeal of his last illness with great courage and complete resignation. His Christian testimony was clear and triumphant to the end. He fell asleep in Christ on September 1, 1922.

(4) ARTHUR ROBINSON: born at West Hartlepool in 1878. His home influences were Christian, his father, Captain D. Robinson, being Port Missionary at Hull. Religious questions began seriously to occupy his attention when seventeen years of age, and in the following year he came to a definite decision and joined the Church. He turned his attention to Sunday-school work and open-air preaching. In 1897 he became a student of University College, Nottingham, and in 1899 was accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry, and appointed to the High School at Nassau. For eight years he rendered noble service on the Mission Field, where he was greatly beloved. His ministry in English circuits was marked by great industry, wisdom, and faithfulness. His sense of duty was keen. His preaching was the means of comfort and salvation to many. His life was beautiful, and consecrated to holy uses. His health began to fail whilst in the Worksop Circuit, but he hoped to recover so as to take up work at Bacup. But it was not to be. He passed away on September 1, 1922, in the forty-fifth year of his age and the twenty-first of his ministry.

(5) HAROLD J. CHAPMAN, M.A.: born at Cleethorpes, October 27, 1872, took his degree at Durham and entered our Ministry in 1896. He laboured in the work of our Church for twenty-six years and was beloved in all his circuits. His winsome personality, his open mind and heart, his scholarship, his strong manhood and love for children, made him a minister who gained and kept the confidence of his people. His preaching was original and powerful; at times humorous but always spiritual. After years of work in large centres he was stricken down at Hull. Recovering sufficiently to take another circuit, he struggled on gallantly at Luton for two years, endearing himself to everyone. On September 3, 1922, he passed to his rest, leaving behind him a reputation for transparent goodness, and an abiding influence both wide and deep.

(6) CHARLES H. EAST: born near Kettering, February 11, 1892. At fifteen years of age he gave himself wholeheartedly to God and entered eagerly upon Christian service. Of studious habits, he made earnest and careful preparation for his work, and having uncommon gifts for leadership, while yet in his teens he exercised a powerful influence upon a large band of young men. It soon became clear that God had called him to the Ministry, and after a year at Cliff College, he was accepted by Conference and entered Didsbury in 1913. In 1914, at the outbreak of the war, he enlisted, and served in the Army for six months, when he was invalided, having been slightly gassed. He recovered sufficiently to work for a while at Ripon and Stevenage under the direction of the President, but was never received into Full Connexion. After about four years of intermittent work and suffering, in which he bore his disappointment with striking Christian fortitude, he passed to his reward on September 8, 1922.

(7) RICHARD BUTTERWORTH: born at Holmfirth, November 8, 1838. Educated at Wesley College, Sheffield, he was sent direct into circuit work by the Conference of 1861, and for thirty-eight years laboured as a faithful servant of Christ. He was a great student of the Bible, and his clear and fervent exposition made his ministry instructive and inspiring. He was a recognised expert in all matters relating to Wesley and early Methodism. He loved Methodism passionately and served his Church with a rare devotion. He walked before God with a humble spirit and a reverent mind. He is remembered in his circuits for his lofty Christian character, kind and sympathetic disposition, and as a workman who needeth not to be ashamed. The whole of his Supernumeraryship was spent in the Roath Road Circuit, Cardiff. For a period of twenty-three years he ceased not to serve the Church of his choice in his retirement. He passed peacefully to his reward, humbly trusting in his Saviour, on September 13, 1922, in the sixty-first year of his ministry and the eighty-fourth of his age.

(8) FREDERICK J. CLARKE: born in Bristol, September 25, 1874. After three years at Handsworth College he began his Ministry in 1899. In all his circuits his ministry was richly blessed, especially to young people, over whom he exercised a wonderful influence. He was a preacher of marked individuality and distinctive gifts, and his genial and winsome personality gave him rare power in winning the affection of the people. In 1921 he came to Birkenhead, and after a year of fine service he was stricken down by an illness from which he never recovered. His heroic fortitude and loyalty of faith during the weary months of suffering will never be forgotten by those who were with him. He entered into rest, in the full assurance of faith, on September 15, 1922, in the forty-eighth year of his age and the twenty-third of his ministry.

(9) WILLIAM ELLIS: born at Newark in 1843. The connection of his family with Methodism dated back to the days of John Wesley. He entered our Ministry in 1870, and in all his circuits gained the affection and esteem of the members, and proved himself a Methodist of the old type. As a preacher his sermons were arresting and full of homely illustrations, well suited to the village folk amongst whom he laboured for many years. Towards the evening of his life he settled down at Grove, Wantage, where he erected a small chapel and took pastoral charge of the little cause. The remote village sanctuaries could always rely upon him for help and advice; and nothing aroused him more than the threatened extinction of one of the causes in the many hamlets surrounding his home. He still preached up to the last, and his interest in the welfare of the place where he had faithfully ministered for almost twenty years was unabated. He died on September 19, 1922, in his seventy-ninth year.

(10) GEORGE LANG: born in the North of Ireland in March 1865. Both his parents died while he was a child, and his boyhood and youth were spent in Glasgow, under the care of an uncle and aunt who were Presbyterians. He came into touch with Wesleyan Methodism through his employer. Converted at seventeen, he immediately became an ardent worker in the Sunday-school and Band of Hope. He began to preach in his nineteenth year, was accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry in 1887, and spent three years at Headingley. Becoming somewhat unsettled during his probation he resigned his position amongst us, and entered the Congregational Ministry. But his heart was still in Methodism, and he was again accepted by our Conference in 1903. He was a devoted and conscientious pastor. His preaching was thoughtful and interesting. He read wisely, and made good use of his reading. Hopefulness and helpfulness were the chief characteristics of his ministry. Never robust, he had a brave spirit which enabled him to overcome many difficulties in early life, and made him an inspirer of courage in all his circuits. Kind and generous in disposition, he made many friends, and his colleagues loved him greatly. He died on September 28, 1922, at the comparatively early age of fifty-seven.

(11) JOHN C. STUART: born at Newcastle-on-Tyne in 1840. His early religious associations were with the Blenheim Street Sunday School, to which he owed much. When, as a youth, he gave his life to the service of the Master, he began to pursue his studies with great self-sacrifice and devotion, and moved in 1861 to Edinburgh that he might attend the classes of the University. From Edinburgh he went into the active work of the Ministry. His chief work was in the great industrial centres of Lancashire and Yorkshire. Sturdy and shrewd, he was honest and fearless in facing difficulty, because he believed with all his heart in his Lord and His Gospel. His preaching was racy, practical and picturesque, strong in its appeal to the young, and such as left its mark on the memories and lives of his hearers. All through his life he devoted time and thought to Temperance Reformation. Wherever he lived and laboured he has left impressions of a manly, godly life. He went home on September 24, 1922.

(12) T. Jones Hughes: born at Dyserth, North Wales, May 6, 1890. Brought up in a godly Methodist home, he was spiritually awakened in very early life, and soon became actively engaged in religious work. He began to preach when seventeen years of age, and was accepted as a Candidate for our Ministry in 1911, and appointed to Aberaeron. In 1913 he entered Richmond College, and in the spring of 1916 was sent as supply to the Tregarth Circuit. During his third year at Dinas Mawddwy his health failed, and at the Conference of 1922 he was compelled to become a Supernumerary. He was a preacher and pastor of great promise. By his sterling Christian character, his unassuming and winsome disposition, and his conscientious devotion to his work, he won the respect and affection of the people. During the Great War he was a welcome pastor in times of trouble and anxiety. His sermons were well prepared, evangelical, and stimulating. He passed peacefully away at Dyserth on October 8, 1922, at the age of thirty-two, and in the ninth year of his ministry.

(13) Thomas Hitchon: born at Padiham, June 6, 1851. His parents were devotedly attached to our Church, and when he was fourteen years of age he was converted while partaking of the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper. On his death-bed he confessed that he had never lost the rapture of that experience. He was accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry when he was twenty-one, and spent three years at Didsbury. He rendered faithful and fruitful service in many circuits. Preaching was his delight, although he never neglected the many other duties of a Methodist preacher's life. His sermons were always carefully prepared, and showed a freshness of thought and a gift of lucid exposition that made them attractive and refreshing. In pastoral work he was diligent, methodical and sympathetic, everywhere winning the confidence and affection of his people. His administration was wise and tactful, and his qualities of heart and mind made him beloved by his colleagues and by many friends. Work was a joy to him, and all through his ministry he proved himself a loyal and conscientious servant of God and of his Church. Upon his retirement in 1914 he resided for three years at Lytham, and rendered valuable and much-appreciated service in that circuit. Later he removed to Southport, and gave himself willingly to the activities of the Mornington Road Circuit. After much suffering, bravely and patiently borne, he passed to his reward on October 9, 1922, in the seventy-second year of his age and the forty-seventh of his ministry.

(14) John Jones (G): born at Dinas Mawddwy, Merionethshire, in 1842. His parents were devoted Methodists, and trained their children in the fear of God. He gave himself to Christ during the Welsh Revival of 1859, and soon after began to preach. He was accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry by the Conference of 1867, and spent the following two years as a supply. He laboured with much diligence and acceptance. He was a faithful preacher, a good pastor, and a capable administrator. In his circuits he is remembered as a Christian gentleman of fine presence and kindness of heart. In 1906 he became a Supernumerary, and for the last sixteen years of his life served faithfully the churches of the Aberystwyth Circuit. As days passed his Christian character matured and mellowed, and he passed away peacefully on October 10, 1922, in the eightieth year of his age and the fifty-third of his ministry.

(15) EDWIN WOODWARD: born at Macclesfield, November 9, 1862. His parents were Methodists, but, being left an orphan at an early age, he was brought up in the Anglican Church, and was converted in connection with a mission conducted by the Rev. William Haslam. He became a Methodist local preacher, and the following year was accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry. After two years at Richmond he was sent in 1886 to South India, where he served for sixteen years, becoming especially skilful in the Tamil vernacular. He did much pioneer work in the villages round about Karur and Dharapuram, his insight and vision enabling him to plan work and train workers. India left its mark on his health, but he never spared himself, and at home as abroad, entered with the greatest enthusiasm into circuit work, whilst continually advocating the claims of the Mission Field. He delighted in preaching. He had the mind of a mystic, and all his sermons and prayers manifested freshness of thought, fine imaginative powers, deep spirituality, and intense earnestness. His own experience of God made him a true minister to others. Strength of will enabled him to continue his work despite physical weakness. After a short illness he passed peacefully away on October 14, 1922, in the sixtieth year of his age and the thirty-seventh of his ministry.

(16) FRANCIS W. MOON: born in the Bahamas in 1859. The son and the father of a missionary, the family has been represented on the staff of the Bahamas District almost continuously from 1854 to the present time. Educated at Kingswood School, he became a Candidate for our Ministry in 1876, and was sent for training to the Theological Institute in Kingston, Jamaica. He entered the work in his father's field of service in 1879, and there laboured for nineteen years with great acceptance and much fruit, till his transfer to the Home work in 1898. He left an abiding mark upon Bahamas Methodism. As the son of an honoured minister the people were predisposed in his favour; and this was increased by his sympathy with the people, his sound judgment in counsel, and his unostentatious but manly Christian life. At Governor's Harbour, at that time the most progressive and enterprising of Bahama settlements, he was very highly esteemed, consulted and trusted by both white and coloured people. In the Home work he exhibited those qualities of mind and heart which secured him in every circuit life-long friendships. He was thoughtful and earnest in his preaching, at home with the great truths of the Gospel and the deep things of God. Becoming a Supernumerary in 1913, he rendered acceptable service for several years in the South London Mission. Quiet and unobtrusive, he was highly esteemed by those who knew him best. The Gospel he had proclaimed with such sympathy was his own strength and consolation when days of suffering came, till on November 3, 1922, he passed away peacefully in the sixty-fourth year of his age and the forty-fourth of his ministry.

(17) ROBERT HUGHES: born October 18, 1834, at Bodffari, Flintshire. He was the son of pious parents, and at the age of eighteen he was converted under a sermon by a local preacher. Accepted as a Candidate in 1861, he was always a faithful steward of the mysteries of God in Christ. He was a man of profound faith, which grew out of his own deep experience of things divine. His calm and unselfish spirit permeated all his work as preacher, pastor, and administrator. Personal consecration made him deeply respected and loved, and exercised priceless and lasting influence on young and old. By his preaching, and especially by his personal evangelism and influence, he was the means of turning many unto righteousness. His memory will be ever fragrant to all who had the privilege of knowing him. His long and beautiful life came to an end in perfect peace on November 12, 1922, at Rhyl, where he had spent the last twenty-three years of his life.

(18) JOHN MACK: born in Belfast in 1830. He definitely gave himself to Christ when he was ten years old. Having served the Church in various spheres he later responded to the call of God to devote his life to the Christian Ministry, and in 1855 sailed as a missionary to the West Indies. After two years' service he was obliged to leave the work he had learned to love. Returning to England he continued in the active ministry for thirty-eight years. During that time it was his high privilege to see great spiritual results, especially in the six years he was set apart as a District Missionary. Preaching was his supreme passion, and his sermons were characterised by an intimate knowledge of God's Word, a clear and comprehensive grasp of our evangelical doctrines, and powerful appeals to the conscience of the people. Throughout the long period of his retirement at Southsea he occupied the pulpit from time to time; and when nearly ninety years of age, his delivery was still marked by great vigour. Almost to the last he was making sermons, although he knew he would not be able to preach them. He was of a cheerful disposition, a genial friend, a sympathetic pastor, and a wholehearted servant of the Lord Jesus Christ. After a comparatively brief illness he entered into rest on November 13, 1922, in the ninety-second year of his age and the sixty-seventh of his ministry.

(19) THOMAS LAW: born at Parkgate, Rotherham, in 1847. He was brought up in a Christian home by parents who were Baptists, but on his first visit to a Wesleyan chapel he realised the forgiveness of his sins, joined the Society, and soon began to preach. Entering the Ministry in 1871, he was immediately sent into circuit work, and for forty-four years made full proof of his ministry. He retired in 1915, but could not rest, and, desiring to help his country and his Church, accepted an invitation for a second term of service at Bromsgrove. He retired to Malvern in 1920, and continued to serve to the limit of his strength. First and foremost he was an evangelist of broad sympathies and sure judgment. He was specially successful among young people, and in every circuit won many of them for the service of Christ. He loved and lived for preaching. His sunny temperament, cheerful faith and hearty laugh were the outer signs of an inner life of peace with God and love to man. Here was indeed a Greatheart and a brother beloved. After much weariness he entered into rest November 24, 1922, in the seventy-fifth year of his age and the fifty-second of his ministry.

(20) DANIEL ALFRED DE MOUILPIED: born at Les Vaurioufs, St.

Martin's, Guernsey, November 15, 1844, the home of his family for generations. His life was unusually varied and distinguished. After some years at Elizabeth College, Guernsey, he studied theology in the University of Lausanne. He was ordained in 1865, and celebrated his twenty-first birthday on the Mission Field. Nine years in the Antigua District, and five in the Channel Islands, prepared him for his unique ministry in Paris. There his great oratorical powers, his wide knowledge of history and French literature, his intimate understanding of the psychology of the French people, were exercised to the full. His popular lectures in French, delivered in a hall on the great Boulevards, drew crowds to listen to the Methodist preacher, and in the Rue Roquepine the friendly hospitality dispensed by his wife was ever a sacrament of God to lonely English folk in Paris. The twenty-six years in English circuits which completed his active ministry made his name and presence familiar to multitudes of our people. His spiritual insight, his rich culture, his exquisite sense of the value of words, were apparent as well in his impromptu utterances as in his preaching and lectures. There was an incomparable grace and originality about all his sayings and doings. His old-world courtliness of manner was the outward index of a chivalrous and generous mind. To the mystic's awe in the presence of the mystery of God, he joined the prophet's ardent hatred of injustice and passion for freedom. He was intensely beloved, especially by his brethren in the Ministry, and among these he lavished his love prodigally upon the young men. Hand in hand with a passionate evangelistic fervour went a child-like winsomeness and gaiety. He was a careful and systematic pastor. He was a true Catholic in his tastes. To the end he was alert, vivacious, keenly interested in the simplest things of life, and following eagerly modern scientific thought. "The most fitting prayer," he said, "on the lips of a man of science is that of St. Chrysostom: 'Grant us in this world knowledge of Thy truth.'" His favourite prayer at night was the child's "Now I lay me down to sleep," and though in the last months of suffering he crossed deep waters, it was in the simplicity of faith of a little child that he passed through the last sleep into the larger life on November 24, 1922, in the seventy-ninth year of his age and the fifty-eighth of his ministry.

(21) Wesley Butters: born at Woodbridge, Suffolk, July 22, 1845, was educated at the Woodbridge Grammar School. From a child he knew the Holy Scriptures and felt the drawing of Divine Love. At the age of twelve, without any invitation, he joined the Methodist Society and the fellowship of the class-meeting became his great delight. He soon became useful in the Sunday-school and in cottage meetings. He commenced to preach when about fifteen, and was received on the Circuit Plan. Having gifts, graces and fruit, he was accepted for the Ministry at nineteen and sent to Richmond College, where he spent two years. In circuit work he was very happy, giving himself wholly to it. Preaching was his great delight. Having travelled thirty years, he suffered from heart-strain, and retired from the full work. As a Supernumerary at Malvern he preached as long as he was able, but a series of heart troubles compelled him to silence. He had, however, much joy in listening when unable to preach. He had a bright hope and a firm faith. His favourite quotation was "I know Whom I have believed." Very suddenly he entered into the presence of his Lord on December 2, 1922.

(22) THOMAS FEATHERSTONEHAUGH: born April 23, 1844, at Close Head, Denton Nether, Cumberland. Though of Anglican parentage he owed his conversion to Methodism, and thereupon joined the Methodist Church, giving himself wholeheartedly to its service. He was accepted as a Candidate in 1865, and trained at Didsbury. His sterling qualities of heart and mind soon made themselves increasingly evident in the circuits in which he travelled. There was in him a dignity of character that won universal respect, a strength that attracted confidence and trust, a loveableness that never failed to charm old and young. He was an earnest preacher of evangelical truth, an able administrator of Methodist law, a courageous advocate of aggressive Christian activity, above all a friend and comrade upon whose loyalty and affection absolute reliance could be placed. He left his mark upon every circuit in which he exercised his ministry, by his tactful dealing with men, his far-seeing wisdom, his boldness in initiating and carrying out schemes of advance. His knowledge of God was as sure as his knowledge of men was profound. After forty-four years of effective service he became in 1912 a Supernumerary and settled at Exmouth, South Devon, where he continued to preach with unfailing vigour. During the years of the war he seemed to renew his youth, giving himself unsparingly to the work. The Master's call came on December 18, 1922, in the seventy-ninth year of his age and the fifty-fifth of his ministry.

(23) WILLIAM PERKINS: born at Haverfordwest, March 21, 1843. He was a Methodist of the fourth generation. On the completion of his Grammar-school education he entered the civil department of the Corps of Royal Engineers. In 1864 he was accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry, and duly called out to supply at Woolwich. Though he always regretted that he had not had the opportunity of college training, his keen ability and diligence enabled him to become a sound scholar, whose wide reading and broad outlook were conspicuous in all his utterances. The nine years of his residence in Bristol were perhaps the most fruitful of his ministry. Appointed in 1891 the Chairman of that District, he soon made his influence felt not only in the city but in every circuit by his wise counsels and skilled leadership. He excelled not only as an administrator but as a preacher, whose utterances were always clear, impressive, and full of persuasion. He was a man whom to know was to love, and in whom the pastoral gifts of sympathy and insight were most conspicuous. His tenderness, sense of humour, and insight were combined with a wonderful youthfulness. The confidence of his brethren and their recognition of the work that he had accomplished in Bristol were shown by his election in 1898 to the Legal Hundred, and by his appointment the same year as one of the Secretaries of the Missionary Society, a post that he continued to hold until his retirement in 1914. During his term of office he visited Mission Stations in the Honduras District and many of the centres in France, Italy, Spain, and Portugal. He represented the Society at the Œcumenical Missionary Conference in New York. In 1909 he was elected President of the Conference. His counsels in the various Committees of Methodism were highly esteemed, especially in connection with the work of education, of the value of which for the Church he was firmly convinced. After his retirement he continued to preach almost to the end of life. On the morning of the day of his decease he was engaged in preparation for pulpit work. His message of hope and consolation always came from a heart overflowing with love for his Master, and he retained a singular freshness of outlook. With mental faculties unimpaired he took an active interest in all things that affected his Church. His death was sudden, but when the Master called he was found ready. On his return from a walk he passed quietly away in his chair on December 18, 1922, in the eightieth year of his age and the fifty-ninth of his ministry.

(24) WILLIAM BRADFIELD, B.A.: born at Kingsclere, December 15, 1859, in a good Methodist home. His boyhood was clouded, and his education cut short by ill-health, but he gradually grew stronger, and having given his heart to God at a sacramental service, he preached his first sermon in 1879. He was nominated as a Candidate for the Ministry in 1881, but the Conference of that year was unable to accept any candidates for the home work. After a time of waiting he spent four happy years at Headingley, in the last of which he served as sub-tutor and graduated in arts at the University of London. After successful terms in Sunderland and York he went to Leicester, and during the eight years he spent there was the soul of a great progressive movement. As Superintendent at Oxford and afterwards at Cambridge many young people came under his powerful and gracious influence. The zest with which he entered into university life, and his ability to appreciate and direct minds differently schooled and moulded from his own were very manifest, and many of his services stand out most vividly in the memory. His almost painfully intense emotion only made the logic of his argument the more penetrating. Appointed Warden of the Order of Wesley Deaconesses, his mature powers were given without stint to the service of women-workers in the Church. Here his pastoral heart found full scope; his wise sympathy never failed, and his administrative work for the Order did much to lift it into its present secure position in the regard of Methodist people. For thirteen years he combined this responsible office with the Chairmanship of the Halifax and Bradford District. When he resigned the Wardenship he became the separated Chairman of the District, and the intense interest in individual men which was a feature of his character made his work delightful to himself as well as most useful to the District. Deep down in his nature was a vein of quiet humour. In committees and in Conference his chief characteristic was a fearless and outspoken intensity. His scholarship was his own, and it was deep and broad; but the real secret of his power was his love. He had suffered much, and sometimes in his very touch there was healing. To young idealists he would defend those whom they called reactionaries with passionate loyalty to the men of his own age and standing. With equal chivalry he would defend the young in the presence of the old. In his Fernley Lecture on "Personality and Fellowship," he has opened to us the secret of his passion and power. After a time of severe pain most patiently borne, he passed into the joy of his Lord on January 4, 1923, in the sixty-fourth year of his life and the thirty-ninth of his ministry.

(25) JOSEPH CRANSWICK: born at Bridlington, May 24, 1840. He became a local preacher at nineteen years of age, and at twenty-one was received into the Ministry, being at once appointed to circuit work, in which he continued for forty-three years, until in 1904 he became a Supernumerary. He was a master of chaste and scholarly English, a preacher of rare excellence, distinction, and power. His sermons were as thoughtful as they were eloquent. His conduct of public worship was always marked by a dignified reverence which was the expression of his devout habit of mind and heart. In the homes of the people his conversation was delightful, full of wit, sound sense, genial kindness, and godly wisdom. Little children were fascinated by his winsome tenderness, and his colleagues were attached to him by an affection which ripened into reverence. His letters were letters to be read again and again, and to be kept as treasured possessions. After laying aside his work, his books became more than ever the solace of his life, and to the end he read widely and critically. In his later years he was never able to attend public worship, but to the last he held daily service in his house, using the Prayer-book and always including a hymn. He died at Paignton on January 22, 1923. Few names are associated with richer gifts and gentler graces than that of Joseph Cranswick.

(26) FRANK HALL: born at Norwich in 1858. At nineteen years of age he began to preach, and two years later was accepted as a Candidate for our Ministry. For forty-three years he was an acceptable and faithful minister of the Lord and of the Wesleyan Methodist Church. He possessed gifts above the average as a preacher, he was a diligent pastor, and above all a Christian gentleman. His cheery smile and friendly counsel, combined with a charming personality, won the hearts of all who knew him. As a colleague he was a true brother; as Superintendent he was efficient in all the details of his duty. During the last months of his life he bore with great courage a severe and painful illness, and through it all rejoiced in the grace of Christ which strengthened him. In his last public utterance he testified to God's great goodness to him through all the years of his ministry, as also to the kindness of the Methodist people, saying, "I do not think I have an enemy in the whole world—no, not one." These words reveal something of the secret and charm of his Christian character. On January 24, 1923, he passed peacefully into rest in the sixty-sixth year of his age and the forty-fourth of his ministry.

(27) CHARLES D. NEWMAN: born at Bath, July 13, 1841. Under the gracious influence of a godly mother he early gave himself to Christ, and devoted the remainder of his life to the Lord's service. After training at Richmond he began his ministry in 1863, and travelled for forty-three years. He was everywhere highly esteemed as a faithful, instructive preacher and diligent pastor. With many interests in scientific pursuits, horticulture, out-door sports and games, he was always keenly alive to the welfare of young people, while his sermons were models of choice exposition and illustration. Whilst a Supernumerary in charge of our church at Bramhope, and later, when residing in Leeds, he acted as Free Church chaplain to the General Infirmary, where for many years his cheerful and helpful ministrations were highly valued. During the last few months, with the steady progress of a painful disease, he never complained or murmured, but was cheery and courageous to the last. He passed peacefully to his rest early on February 11, 1923, in the eighty-second year of his age and the sixtieth of his ministry.

(28) HENRY BUCKLEY: born at Stockport in 1878. He had the advantage of a Methodist ancestry and a godly upbringing. As a boy he learned the Scriptures, and as a youth he proclaimed them. The Leigh

Circuit opened his way into the Ministry. During his happy and fruitful training at Didsbury he formed friendships that strengthened more and more as the years passed. In each of his earlier circuits the fruit of his work still abides. His appointment to the Superintendency of the London Mission East on the death of Peter Thompson placed a heavy burden upon so young a man; but that Mission was faithfully served, and in each succeeding circuit his ministry was greatly blessed. He was a powerful preacher and a successful soul winner. He lost no opportunity of offering the love of God in Christ to those with whom he came in contact, and many are the seals of his ministry. He espoused the cause of the poor with great courage. He believed in them, loved them, laboured for them, and in response they turned to him in their need, and trusted him with their sorrows and perplexities. His zest for work knew no bounds, while his buoyancy of spirit and radiant cheerfulness endeared him to all sorts and conditions of men. Years of strenuous fighting against poverty and need, and often against squalor and shame, drained his strength, and shortly after his appointment to the Clapham Circuit he was seized by illness and passed away on February 19, 1923.

(29) Richard Hopwood: born at Treuddyn, Flintshire, September 20, 1849, in a Methodist home. He devoted himself at an early age to the service of Christ, and entered our Ministry in 1874. He laboured in Wales for thirty-nine years, and retired from active work in 1913. As a preacher he was evangelical and earnest, a faithful pastor, and especially sympathetic with the sick and the sorrowing. He was fervent in spirit, childlike in disposition, and possessed a character above reproach. During his retirement at Wrexham he lost two bright sons in the Great War, but he bore this great sorrow with courage and resignation to the will of God. His zeal and interest in the Master's service were unflagging to the end. He passed away peacefully and suddenly on March 3, 1923, in the seventy-third year of his age.

(30) Joseph Little (b): born at Long Sutton, Lincs., December 26, 1841. His parents were loyal, active, and devoted Methodists, but for whose influence and work the little village chapel, at one time, would have been closed. In early youth he gave himself to Christ, and at once became active in the Sunday school and in temperance work. Throughout his life he was a great lover of young people, his bright, cheery disposition and affectionate nature making him a favourite with them. He was accepted for the Ministry in 1862, and for forty-six years faithfully, efficiently, and with marked success did the work of the Methodist preacher. His sermons were original and practical. His genial personality and sensitive sympathy gave him great influence with the people. His skill and thoroughness in matters of church business, and his sound judgment of men and things, made him a strong and wise administrator. He became a Supernumerary in 1908, and for upwards of fourteen years lived at Sherwood in the Nottingham (Wesley) Circuit. He continued to preach with great acceptance to within a month of his death, took a keen and active interest in all the church life at Sherwood, and spent much time in visiting the sick. After a useful and happy eventide he passed to his reward on March 12, 1923.

(31) George Walker: born in London in 1877. Called early to the service of Christ, he was trained at Richmond, and began his ministry on the Gold Coast. After two years he was compelled to return to England, with health permanently impaired. He took up work at home in wide country circuits, with such cheerfulness and courage that only those who knew him intimately were aware of the cost to himself, and the risk involved. Of a modest and retiring disposition, his personal qualities of gentleness and refinement, of mental alertness and quick sympathy, won for him deep regard. His sermons were thoughtful expositions of divine truth charged with spiritual power. To the very last day he fulfilled his course, and died, quite suddenly, on March 15, 1923, in the forty-sixth year of his age, and the twenty-first of his ministry.

(32) A. Denbigh White: born in Bradford, March 21, 1840. He came of godly Methodist parentage, and very early in life gave himself to Christ and His service. At the age of twenty he was accepted for the Ministry, and was immediately sent into a circuit. Although he missed the advantages of a college course, he disciplined himself to studious habits, and gained a good equipment for the many-sided work of our Ministry. The Greek Testament was his life-long companion, and he was a lover of good literature. He was a diligent and tender-hearted shepherd of his flock, a capable administrator, and a strenuous worker. He was an excellent preacher of the expository school, and in many circuits his ministry was very fruitful. He will be gratefully remembered by many who were brought into the Church by his influence, and who saw in his transparent character the very beauty of holiness. After forty-eight years in the active work he was disabled by an accident and became a Supernumerary, but continued to preach for many years. He died at Bournemouth on March 18, 1923, on the eve of his eighty-third birthday, and in the sixty-third year of his ministry.

(33) John Osborn: born at Rochester, May 3, 1842, where in a well-known Methodist home he was carefully nurtured. He went to Wesley College, Sheffield, at the age of thirteen. Soon after leaving school he gave his heart to God at the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper, and joined his father's Society Class. After spending some years in business he realised the call to the Christian Ministry. He was accepted and sent to Richmond in 1863. During his long period of active service, spent chiefly in wide country circuits, he won respect and affection. Courtesy, usefulness, eagerness for work and lofty ideals characterised his life. Deep interest in the best books enriched his resources. He bravely bore severe domestic bereavement, and serious physical disability occasioned by deafness. He had prepared to preach at Dawlish on March 18, where a revival for which he had been praying for two years cheered his heart. But he was not able to keep his appointment. At the ripe age of eighty years he quietly passed away, in the fifty-eighth year of his ministry, on March 19, 1923. A faithful, painstaking Methodist preacher, he leaves an example of a saintly life.

(34) Frederick Lamb: born at Banbury in 1871. His life was early consecrated to the ministry of Christ, and after three years at Richmond, where he formed life-long attachments, he was sent in 1893 to the Haidarabad District. There he laboured with perfect fidelity and rare ability for twenty-three years. Returning to the home work in 1916, he served with growing acceptance till, on March 20, 1923, at the full tide of spiritual and intellectual strength, he was suddenly called to still higher service within the veil. A man of gracious spirit and sound judgment, his ministry in the East and at home was pursued with a deepening sense of spiritual realities and with ripening wisdom. For eight years he was Chairman of his District, and in that office his abilities found full exercise. After his return to England he rendered valuable service on the Missionary Committee; there his constant interest, his penetrating insight and his perfect courtesy won glad recognition. In the midst of administrative work he found time for wide reading and careful thought. His sermons, always fresh and vital, bore evidence of this, while there was in them a practical sense and a close evangelical application which made them truly effective. He had a gift for friendship, to which his missionary colleagues in particular were deeply indebted. Divergent judgment was never allowed to interfere with generous appreciation and warm affection. The gladness of his home life gave him strength for a public ministry which will be long remembered in England as in India.

(35) T. HARDWICK MAWSON: born in 1844, at York, of which city he was a freeman. His mother died in his childhood, and he had early to face the realities of life. Whilst an apprentice he went casually to a service at Centenary Chapel. At this service he was converted and resolved to spend his life in the direct service of Christ. He was trained at Didsbury, and commenced his ministry in 1869 when twenty-five years of age. In all his circuits his ministry, both in the pulpit and in the homes of the people, was most highly appreciated. In 1904 he was appointed Governor of Headingley College, where a succession of students bear testimony to his high character and his unfailing helpfulness. He retired to the Birmingham Moseley Road Circuit in 1920, where he was sincerely loved by a number of old and new friends. He was a man of choice mind and sound judgment. He read widely and thoroughly, and as a preacher was forceful, and at the same time possessed a peculiar grace and charm of style. Even up to the last his visits to the sick were greatly appreciated, and he gave cheer and blessing to many who were troubled. He passed peacefully away on April 19, 1923, in the seventy-ninth year of his age and the fifty-fourth of his ministry.

(36) ARTHUR J. O. LYLE: born of Methodist parents at Grimscott, North Cornwall, June 20, 1847. He gave himself openly to Christ when twelve years of age, and four years later was received on full plan as a local preacher. In 1865 he was accepted as a Candidate, and after two years at Richmond was appointed to Bangalore. His facility in the acquisition of languages enabled him very early to preach in Kanarese, and for six years he laboured in the Mysore District with great devotion and with much success. To his deep disappointment he was compelled, through repeated attacks of jungle fever, to leave India in 1874. For twenty-two years he travelled in English circuits, until illness and loss of voice at Redruth necessitated his retirement in 1896. His remaining years were spent at Newton Abbot and were shadowed by painful affliction and bereavement. But the grace of God sustained him, and though unable to preach he endeavoured in quiet ways to fulfil the ministry which he had received of the Lord Jesus. His spirit was uniformly gentle, cheerful and affectionate, and he was beloved by all who knew him. He retained to the last his fervent love for Foreign Missions and especially his interest in the scenes of his early labours. After prolonged suffering, patiently borne, he passed peacefully into the presence of his Lord on March 31, 1923, in the seventy-sixth year of his age and the fifty-sixth of his ministry.

(37) JOHN HALL: born February 7, 1856. He was a native of Cheshire, and was brought up in the Church of England, but as a young man joined our Church. Having heard and obeyed the call to the Ministry, he was trained at Didsbury College, and in 1880 began his circuit work. His kindly, genial spirit ripened with the passing of the years and made him a comforter and an encourager to many. Gifted with sound common sense and the saving grace of humour, he was a judicious and capable administrator. As a pastor he was the true friend of his people, and in time of trouble and bereavement a "son of consolation." During the darkest hours of the war his cheery smile and affectionate sympathy did much to cheer sorrow-stricken homes. Young people gave him their unstinted confidence and affection. His pulpit ministry was of the highest order. His sermons were truly evangelical and were marked by freshness of thought and chasteness of expression. Added to the attractiveness of his personality these qualities gave to his preaching a peculiar winsomeness. For forty years he served his Church without stint. In 1921 he retired to Burton-on-Trent, where he continued to preach frequently with great acceptance. His end came suddenly on April 24, 1923. Brotherly, unaffected, unassuming, he was beloved both by his brethren and the people, and in all his circuits left behind him cherished memories and permanent influences for good.

(38) ALLAN SPENCER: born at Stretford, near Manchester, on July 1, 1862. His parents were Congregationalists. At the age of seventeen he went to South Africa and spent eight years in business in Cape Town. Here he was converted, joined the Methodist Church, and became a local preacher. Becoming conscious of the call to the Ministry, he returned to England, and, after some months given to Christian work in the Bayswater Circuit, he became an accepted Candidate and spent three years at Richmond. In the years that followed, whether as District Missionary, or working the wide country circuits of Norfolk, Yorkshire, and Lincolnshire, or in the city and suburban areas of Manchester and Cardiff, or in the Sheffield Central Mission, he was a faithful soldier of Jesus Christ. Everywhere he won the love and esteem of our people. He was an earnest evangelical preacher, a faithful pastor, and a careful administrator. He possessed a buoyant disposition, was always cheerful, always hopeful. He never spared himself, and was untiring in his efforts to promote the spiritual interests of those committed to his charge. No one could know him without being impressed by his singleness of aim, his absolute sincerity, his unquestioned devotion. He lived for his work. His health —usually so good—began to fail in the Alford Circuit. For a period of four or five months he slowly grew worse. He passed to the higher service from a nursing home in Bournemouth on April 28, 1923, in the sixty-first year of his age and the thirty-second of his ministry.

(39) HARRY A. HINDLE: born at Rawtenstall, May 4, 1886. He was brought up in a Christian home, and had fine gifts both of body and mind, a strong personality radiant with the joy of the Lord. Accepted as a Candidate in 1908, he was sent for one year to Pontypridd and then entered Richmond College. After three years in circuit work he became an Army Chaplain in 1915. His term of service extended over six years, the greater part of which was spent in Mesopotamia. After demobilisation he was appointed to take charge of the Claremont Street Church, Glasgow, which had become a "down town" cause. The position was very critical, but from the first it was evident that the right man had been found to undertake this most difficult piece of work. In a few weeks improvement was manifested. He was an earnest, forceful preacher, an untiring pastor, full of sympathy, courage, and tact. His manly spirit, bright and buoyant disposition, unfailing faith and superb leadership, combined with a rare modesty, captured all hearts. He lived in the presence of his Lord—and "they took knowledge of him that he had been with Jesus." Just when he was carrying through a scheme for the extension of the church premises, necessitated by the growing success of his work, his life came to a sudden close. Proceeding to England on his motor-cycle, he met with an accident in which he was so terribly injured that he died in a few minutes. He led many to Christ, and strengthened the faith of those who were fighting the good fight. He died on May 16, 1923, in the thirty-seventh year of his age and the twelfth of his ministry.

(40) ALFRED H. HOPPER: born at Beverley in 1855. He was brought up in a godly home and was accepted as a Candidate in 1876. After three years at Didsbury he was engaged in the active work of the Ministry for forty years, and retired to Dudley as a Supernumerary in 1918. He continued to render useful service until a few months before his death He was greatly beloved in all his circuits, a wise counsellor, and a faithful preacher and pastor. By temperament he was the kindest of men, tender-hearted and of a gentle spirit. The influence of Christ touched every part of his life, and he was happiest when he was able to serve and help others. He was not strong physically, and his work was often done with much difficulty; but his ministry was sustained by patience and perseverance. He was of a quiet, retiring nature and disliked anything that savoured of display or ostentation. He passed peacefully away at his home in Dudley on May 16, 1923, in the sixty-eighth year of his life.

(41) J. SEWELL HAWORTH: born in Manchester, October 28, 1848. His father was well known in the commercial and political life of the city, and distinguished in Methodism by his devotion and generosity. He was a personal friend of Dr. W. B. Pope, under whose influence his son was brought early in life. He began to preach when in a school in Wrexham, was accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry in 1870, and after training at Headingley, was appointed to the Brixton Hill Circuit. Twenty-one years later he became a Supernumerary and settled at Llangollen. He still preached in the Wrexham and other circuits, where his labours were greatly appreciated. He was jealous for the old teaching and traditions of Methodism, took the deepest interest in all the details of church life, and many a struggling village society was helped by his gifts. He was a generous supporter of every good work. After twenty-two years in Llangollen, he removed to Bideford, where he endeared himself to the Methodists by his earnest and evangelical preaching and by the personal friendships which he formed with the ministers and people. This large-hearted and useful Minister of Christ died at Bideford on May 21, 1923.

(42) James W. Eacott: born in the Bahamas, January 25, 1839. The son of a missionary, at the age of nine he came to England and spent five years at Kingswood. Accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry in 1860, he spent two years at Didsbury College. For forty-four years he laboured diligently, and with great acceptance in the active Ministry, becoming a Supernumerary in 1906. A good preacher and a devoted pastor, he was greatly loved in all his circuits, and especially in Barnard Castle, where the last fourteen years of his life were spent. He was always a special friend of the children. Kind and sympathetic in disposition, he mellowed and ripened into a beautiful old age, and in the closing years of his life exercised a most gracious influence on all who came into touch with him. He loved his work, books, nature, and, above all, like his Master, he loved men. He was a true saint, brave, cheerful, patient, Christlike. In him strength and gentleness were blended in an unusual degree. Towards the end he welcomed the thought of rest, but waited patiently the call to higher service, which came somewhat suddenly on May 23, 1923, in his eighty-fifth year and the sixty-first of his ministry.

(43) George E. Sheers, B.A.: son of the Rev. Thomas Sheers, born at Abergavenny, August 30, 1846. Accepted as a Candidate in 1865, he entered Richmond College, where for one year he was sub-tutor. He was a scholar and a saint whose unblemished life was one of beautiful and ceaseless service. His supreme passion was to unveil the love of God in Jesus Christ, and his preaching was marked by freshness and deep insight. He had the joy of seeing many converted to God. His assiduous care, his tender discernment, and his rich practical sympathies made him beloved everywhere. He excelled as a pastor. Little children looked up to him with a smile; to the aged he was staff and stay. He was a wise Superintendent, a generous and courteous colleague. To the end he retained his influence over young people, some of whom, by his means, rose to spheres of highest usefulness. After forty-eight years in the full work, he retired to the Chertsey and Walton Circuit, where for six years he had charge of the Weybridge Church. In 1921 he settled in Thirsk, where he was suddenly called home on May 26, 1923, in the seventy-seventh year of his age and the fifty-sixth of his ministry.

(44) Alexander Mayes: born at Ballinderry, Co. Antrim, February 17, 1851. He was brought up in a godly home, and even in his teens loved to preach. He entered the Ministry in 1876, and was invited back at once to the Edinburgh Circuit, which had sent him out. He always acknowledged his great indebtedness to the Rev. Joseph Bush for the formative influences of those early days and for the instruction he received in Methodist law and discipline. He was an able preacher. His sermons evinced his good taste in reading, and were marked by a fervour of conviction which always impressed his hearers. He had the qualities of his nation, a tinge of melancholy blended with more than a touch of humour, and the second often helped to correct the first. He had a high sense of pastoral duty, manifesting unfailing sympathy with the poor, the sick, and the dying. He spent five years in retirement at Portishead, where he won the sincere regard of many friends. The call came suddenly on May 30, in the seventy-third year of his age and the forty-seventh of his ministry.

(45) ROBERT W. HOPEWELL: born at Granby in Nottinghamshire, where he was converted at the age of thirteen. He began to preach at Derby when only sixteen, and became a Candidate for the Ministry in 1877. The same year he was appointed to the Marlborough Circuit. His devotion and zeal were evident from the first. In 1879 he was appointed as District Missionary in the Bedford and Northampton District, and during his two years of service a great number were led to Christ. He excelled in all the work of a Methodist preacher. His labours were sustained by earnest study and much consecration. He was a devoted pastor and a capable administrator, with a thorough mastery of our principles and polity. A thoughtful and vigorous preacher, his sermons were welcomed in every circuit. His colleagueship was a charm and inspiration to those who served with him. His happy, genial disposition gained for him hosts of friends. In all things he commended himself as a minister of God. In 1921 he retired from the more active work, but continued to render most valuable service at Woolwich, where after six months of patient suffering he passed to his rest on June 13, 1923. "God is good, God is good," were amongst his last words.

(46) WILLIAM REYNOLDS: born at Trowbridge, May 31, 1848. His father died when he was about five years of age, but the widowed mother brought up her children wisely and well. He was educated at the local Grammar school, and then placed with a solicitor of the town, acquiring a knowledge of law, and methods of exactitude in business affairs which showed their results afterwards in his careful and methodical management of circuit business. As the time approached for committing himself to a law career, he was overmastered by the call to the ministry. He was trained at the Bristol Baptist College, after which he had charge of a church at Paulton, in Somerset. In 1872 he was accepted for the Wesleyan ministry, and appointed to Windsor. He was emphatically a good man, unflinchingly faithful, wise in his handling of the problems of circuit administration, and always true to the highest claims. He retired from the active work in 1911, and finally settled at Bournemouth in 1913, where he became quietly influential among the people with whom he worshipped, and endeared himself to those who had the privilege of closer fellowship. His health failed in 1921, and after protracted affliction the welcome release came on June 23, 1923, in the seventy-sixth year of his age and the fifty-first of his ministry.

(47) JOSEPH TODHUNTER: born at Brigham, Cumberland, on August 23, 1838. From early days he was characterised by a devout spirit, and as a youth manifested a strong desire to preach the Gospel. In 1864 he went as a minister to Newfoundland, where he endured many hardships and suffered greatly. On one occasion, when returning from an appointment across the frozen sea, he was attacked by ruffians, who beat him with rods and pelted him with blubber and salted squids. His health was unequal to the strain imposed upon it, and he was compelled to return to England at the end of his third year. After a few years' rest, he was appointed to Ulverston in 1877, but in his next circuit his health gave way. For thirteen years he was tutor in the Joyful News Home at Rochdale. The last twenty-one years of his life were spent in complete retirement in his native village, where to the end he exercised a gracious personal influence. He was a man of sunny disposition, and quiet demeanour. He was deeply interested in young men, and helped many in the formative period in life. His preaching was strongly evangelistic, and he had great power in prayer. He was a wide and diligent reader, and retained in age a fresh and progressive mind. After months of increasing weakness, he passed away on June 24, 1923, in his eighty-fifth year. In death, as in life, he magnified the grace of God.

(48) HENRY ADAMS: born at Romford in 1847. His earliest religious impressions were formed under the care of his mother, who was a Baptist. In his youth he was brought into contact with Methodism. After three years at college he was sent to the Bahamas. There and in Demerara and Trinidad he rendered splendid service to Methodism and the Kingdom of God in times of great difficulty and personal bereavement. After fifteen years he returned to England, where, in various circuits, he showed the same ability and devotion. He was greatly loved by all who knew him. His ministry was characterised by tender fidelity, great courage, and hopefulness. He was an able preacher, a wise administrator, and sympathetic pastor—a true friend. His last days were spent at Bournemouth, where he engaged in every good work according to his ability. The end came suddenly on June 30, 1923. He died as he had lived, with true Christian courage.

(49) HENRY OYSTON: born at Newport, Isle of Wight, November 13, 1846. He came of a long and honourable Methodist ancestry, and his father, the Rev. George Oyston, was a Wesleyan Methodist minister. He was educated at Woodhouse Grove and Taunton, and spent several years as a schoolmaster. Under the ministry of a local preacher, he made the final surrender of himself to Jesus Christ, and in 1873 was accepted for the Ministry and appointed at once to circuit work. His exceptional gifts, his winsome humility and his affectionate nature endeared him to all. He was a man of liberal culture, who found life rich and good, taking the great heritage of past and present with an eager joy that infected others. He was widely read, and poured out the treasures of his reading, thought and experience, touched with a light, whimsical humour that captivated his hearers. His sermons were living, spacious things, a very part of himself, born of his own thought and prayer, his own experiences and fellowship with his Lord. Thousands to-day thank God for his public minstry. Nor was he less effective in private and personal ministry. His intensely affectionate and sympathetic nature, combined with his wisdom and experience, made him more than an ordinary friend in the home of sorrow. Children loved him, for he and they had much in common. To the end he retained the charm of youth, and was old in nothing but body. He gave his three sons to our Ministry, and the greatest sorrow of his life came in the early death of his eldest son, Henry Gifford Oyston. At the Conference of 1919 he settled in the Bradford (Great Horton) Circuit, where he had spent two terms—seven years in all. His last sermon made a great impression, and when near the end he said, "I am glad I made that sermon; it makes a beautiful finish." During his last illness he bore intense pain with patience and fortitude, and on July 5, 1923, he entered peacefully into the joy of his Lord, in the seventy-seventh year of his age and the fiftieth of his ministry.

(50) THOMAS W. THOMAS: born in the Porthleven Circuit in 1865. He was received as a candidate in 1886, and after the usual term of training at Handsworth, went to Burma, where he laboured for sixteen years and assisted in the translation of the Gospels into the native tongue. He returned to England in 1905, and for eighteen years travelled in home circuits. His passion for the extension of Christ's Kingdom in other lands never left him, and he remained throughout his ministry a fervent missionary advocate. Malarial fever, which compelled him to leave Burma, pursued him to the end of his days. His patience and courage under physical weakness were an example to many, and his gracious, kindly spirit won the affection of his people. He was anticipating a second term of service in the Northwich Circuit when the end came at Kirby Moorside on July 8, 1923. He will be gratefully remembered abroad and at home as a faithful minister of Jesus Christ.

(51) GEORGE R. GRAHAM: born in London in 1840. After a year at the Institution he began his ministry in the Kingston and Cobham Circuit. Thirty-two of his fifty years of active ministry were spent in superintendency, twelve in the Chair of four Districts. He was a preacher, a pastor, an administrator, a man of all-round gifts which he used lovingly and untiringly through the years, touching nothing that he did not help. Everywhere he went his life and work made their lasting impression. Faithful in the ordinary tasks of the ministry, he could do outstanding things when he saw the need. But what he was in himself was greater than anything he did. He was a man of great charm, one in whose gracious ways others felt the grace of God. He loved books much, but loved men more. He was a brother, a friend, a father in God. His years of retirement were spent in Leamington, where people loved him, because they saw in him how beautiful the Christian life can be. He died after a brief illness on July 16, 1923, in the eighty-fourth year of his age and the fifty-eighth of his ministry.

(52) WILLIAM GREENWOOD: born at Todmorden in 1843. He was converted very early, and began to preach while still a youth. In 1866 he was accepted as a candidate, and entered Didsbury College in 1867. After forty-one years' Circuit Ministry he retired to Caterham in 1911, where he rendered excellent service by his faithful pastoral oversight of the soldiers. In 1917 he settled at Marton-in-Cleveland, and when increasing feebleness prevented further active service, he found his chief happiness as a devout worshipper at the village chapel, and in showing his appreciation of the service of others. He was gentle and unobtrusive, with a tendency to undervalue his own gifts. He served God and the Methodist Church with constant fidelity. Methodical in his habits, diligent in his administration, unswervingly faithful to duty, his one ambition was to do the work of a Methodist minister in the Circuits in which he believed the Providence of God had placed him. After a few days' illness he passed peacefully away on July 16, 1923, in the eightieth year of his age and the fifty-fourth of his ministry.

(53) J. CULLIS COLWELL: born in 1863. Two years later his father, Rev. John Colwell, entered our Ministry. He received definite religious impressions at Kingswood School. His call to the Ministry came largely through his success as an evangelist. With the elder of two other brothers still in the Ministry, he was a candidate in 1886 from the Great Homer Street Circuit, Liverpool, while his father was its Superintendent. He went to Richmond, but was called out to supply upon the death of his father, and though he returned to college, was soon again sent into a circuit. Few men more completely fulfilled the ideal of a "Methodist Preacher." He was absorbingly interested in his work; there was no rival to it in his affection. He was a tireless toiler, draining his powers of spirit, mind, and body in the service of his Lord and the Church. As an administrator, both in his circuits and as Secretary of the Nottingham and Derby Synod for seven years, few could equal him. He believed in Methodism, and was quick to see openings for her special work. As a preacher he was fervently evangelical, and was instrumental in leading many to Christ. It was said that he knew by name every scholar in a large Sunday-school, and he sought young men for his Lord as a merchantman seeks goodly pearls. In labours more abundant he counted not his life dear to him, that he might extend the Kingdom of God and see the Church he loved in prosperity. His Lord called him to rest on July 26, 1923.

2. In Ireland, two:

(1) ALEXANDER FULLERTON: born at Markethill, Co. Armagh, October 25, 1839. He was blessed with godly parentage, and was very proud of the fact that his maternal grandmother had been baptised by John Wesley at the close of a service held in her father's house. Afterwards the family removed to Belfast, and here he surrendered himself to Jesus Christ, and began to witness and work for Him, throwing himself into the '59 Revival with great enthusiasm, and receiving that baptism of evangelical fervour which characterised his subsequent life and work. He entered the Ministry in 1860, and for forty-five years laboured with great devotion, frequently sharing in gracious revivals of the work of God. His wise judgment, sterling integrity, sincere piety and genuine brotherliness evoked the love and trust of all who knew him. As a preacher he was intensely evangelical, seeking decisions for Jesus Christ in every service. His sermons, which were carefully prepared and enforced with telling illustrations, were delivered with rare power and unction. As a pastor he rapidly acquired an individual knowledge of all his people, especially the young, in whom he was keenly interested. In homes of sickness and trouble his presence was a benediction. As District Chairman and in other positions he commended himself by his wisdom as an administrator and by his accuracy and fidelity in the discharge of the duties entrusted to him. At the Conference of 1905 he became a Supernumerary and took up the work at Lucan. In 1909 he settled at Dalkey, where he was greatly beloved, taking a deep interest in the work of the circuit and giving such assistance as his strength permitted. After a brief illness, he quietly fell asleep in Jesus on September 19, 1922, in the eighty-third year of his age and the sixty-third of his ministry.

(2) THOMAS J. MCCORD: born at Belfast, April 5, 1877. The son of godly parents, he received his early training in an atmosphere of piety, love, and gladness. He gave himself wholeheartedly to God in 1894, and at once began to work amongst the young people. He was accepted in 1902 as a Candidate, and in 1903 entered college, where he was a diligent student. He laboured both in town and country circuits, where he was highly esteemed in love. Tactful, lovable, transparently sincere, full of holy energy, and with considerable preaching ability, he showed much wisdom in his quest for souls. He possessed a rich vein of humour which neither hurt anyone nor interfered with his sacred purpose. Children and young people loved him, were free and happy in his presence, and predisposed by their affection for him to love the Saviour whom he presented to them as the Children's Friend. Throughout his long illness he lived as he had preached. Not only patient and appreciative, but fully responsive to the Divine will, he continued to be the same cheery optimist to the end. He passed in his prime to the ministry of the upper sanctuary on March 20, 1923, in the forty-fifth year of his age and the seventeenth of his ministry.

3. In Our Foreign Missions, ten

(1) CALEB REYNOLDS: born in the town of St. Ann's Bay, Jamaica, on February 24, 1853. He was the youngest son of Christian parents, and grandson of Mrs. Jefferson, one of the historic pillars of Methodism in Jamaica. In early life he gave his heart to God, and soon after became a local preacher. Accepted as a Candidate for our Ministry in 1876, he was the first student to enter the newly opened Theological Institution at York Castle; and after a term of training, under Dr. Andrew Kessen, was sent into circuit work, and served successfully in various circuits. His charming personality won him many friends, and his bright and cheery disposition made him the life of the social circle wherever he went. In his home his conduct was exemplary, and in his ministerial life and work he won the love of his brethren and the attachment of the people of his charge. As a preacher he was eloquent and faithful, and in his pastoral work sympathetic and diligent, while in administration he was painstaking and loyal. The end came suddenly. Three days after the close of the Synod of 1922 fatal illness seized him, and on February 16, 1922, in the sixty-ninth year of his age and the forty-sixth of his ministry, he passed within the veil.

(2) ERNEST F. GEDYE, M.A.: born at Bristol, January 29, 1869. The child of God-fearing parents, he early showed signs of his devotion to God. At the age of seven he dedicated himself to God and the Mission Field. He was educated at the Leys School under the inspiring influence of Dr. W. F. Moulton, and in 1888 he won a Foundation Scholarship to St. John's College, Cambridge. He graduated in 1891 and went to Richmond College for one year. Whilst there he was designated to succeed Dr. Barber in the Wuchang District. He arrived in China towards the end of 1893 and began to study the Chinese language, of which he gained an exceptionally fine knowledge, also taking up the work of carrying on and developing Wesley College. For over twenty years he gave his best to that institution and had the joy of seeing it grow from the small school in native premises in the heart of Wuchang to the fine college that stands outside the city to-day. Scores of Chinese young men in business and official positions and in church and Y.M.C.A. work have been moulded and influenced by their beloved Head Master. His sympathies were Catholic in the best sense, and he had friends in all the Churches. Union work, especially in education, found a staunch advocate in him, and the Central China Educational Association, as well as the Union Normal School, are the outcome of his work in this direction. During the war he spent a few years in English circuit life and in Y.M.C.A. work with the Chinese labour battalions in France, returning to Wuchang at the end of the war. Early in 1921 his health caused anxiety to his friends, but a residence of some months at Kuling seemed to have greatly benefited him, and he returned to take up evangelistic work in the Hanyang and Hanch'uan Circuits. Here he again gave proof of his skill and devotion, and in preaching or organising churches, building a new Women's Normal School, and travelling over his wide circuit, he never spared himself. The end came with startling suddenness. He returned from a country journey very ill, and in less than a week passed into the presence of the Saviour he loved so well and served so faithfully, on June 20, 1922. He was laid to rest in the Chinese Christian cemetery at the foot of the Wuchang Pagoda Hill, within sight of Wesley College, the monument of his life's work.

(3) William Cliff: who, while still a youth, was brought to a knowledge of his "acceptance in the Beloved." Conscious of a call to preach the gospel, he entered the Ministry in 1874, and after training at Richmond College, was appointed to O'okiep in Namaqualand. During a long and faithful ministry, he served with increasing influence in many of the wider circuits in South Africa, eventually retiring to Pietermaritzburg in 1911. He was gentle, affectionate, intensely sympathetic, and exemplified in an eminent degree the grace of humility. His preaching was expository and practical, marked by clearness of statement and a close application of evangelical doctrine. The abundant and felicitous use of Holy Scripture was a marked feature of his preaching and public prayers. As a pastor he was untiring in his devotion. He passed peacefully and triumphantly into the larger life on June 21, 1922, in the seventy-fifth year of his age and the forty-sixth of his ministry.

(4) Daniel V. Thamotheram: born at Alvay, Point Pedro, in 1856. His parents were Hindus and his early life was spent under their influence, and throughout their long life the family bond remained. He received his whole education in mission schools and was very early drawn towards Christianity, but it was not until 1878 that he confessed Christ in baptism in spite of strong opposition. At this time he was conspicuously successful as a teacher in the Vernacular Schools at Point Pedro. Many of his scholars became useful Christian workers as a result of his influence. He was received on trial in 1886, and began his ministry amongst his own people, where he remained for one year before being transferred to the Eastern Province. He travelled in almost every important circuit in the District, and altogether served for seventeen years on the Point Pedro station, where, surrounded by his loved ones, he passed to his reward on July 12, 1922, at the age of sixty-six. He was regarded in all his circuits as a father, counsellor, and friend. He had great gifts as an organiser and was a very acceptable preacher, but it was as the father of a family that he is best remembered. That family consisted not only of wife and sons and daughters, to whom he was devoted, but of the children in central and village schools and of scores of teachers who needed his help.

As a colleague he was loyal and lovable, and as the years passed his hold on spiritual things tightened. As he became aware that disease was getting hold of him a note appears in his diary, "This reminds me of my death: I am ready." Thus he passed to the fuller life.

(5) LI CHI PING: the oldest minister of our Church in the South China District, who was born near Canton, and grew up to manhood in Fatshan. He marrried young, and was a steady and industrious worker in the paper-making trade. When thirty-five years of age he heard the Gospel at Wing Hing Kai, received it with joy as a rare and precious thing, was born of the Spirit, and baptised as a Christian. He soon recognised that the Gospel was the only way of salvation. So he gave up his trade and began to preach. He suffered not only general attacks and opprobrium of that time, but the bitter hostility of his own family. Yet with uncommon resolution, courage, and patience, he went straight on to preach and did not fear anything. A few years later his wife and his father were won to Christ, the whole family was converted, and together trod the heavenly way. Many through him became converts. For forty-six years he was a whole-hearted worker for Christ, suffering many hindrances, but winning many converts. His constant cry, as the weakness of old age came upon him, was that he had so few years left to work for the Master. He died at Fatshan on August 30, 1922, in his eighty-first year.

(6) DANIEL MAHLARE: born into a Christian home and early entered into experience of saving grace. School days ended, he became a local preacher, and in due course entered Kilnerton Institution as an evangelist student. His first appointment demanded considerable sacrifice. At the diamond mines, if one wished to render spiritual service, it was necessary to submit to the restrictions applied to every labourer in the mines. Thus for six months of the year, Daniel surrendered the freedom of the outer world and for Christ's sake dwelt within the narrow limits of a dreary compound. Yet here his spirit and work won rare commendation from the Europeans in control. He found his way into the African Ministry in 1920, and laboured for two years and a half with much acceptance and success. His vitality had been lowered by malaria, and the end came with startling suddenness. On September 1, 1922, he was busy about his work and in the evening preached in the Location Church. Retiring to rest at the close of the service, he passed away during the night. A quiet, faithful, modest character, he daily manifested the power of Christ to redeem, until on the threshold of the third year of his ministry he received the welcome of Him he so truly loved and faithfully served.

(7) ABRAHAM E. BREW: one of the last links with early Methodism in the Gold Coast District. In his unregenerate youth he came under the influence of Thomas Birch Freeman, and his offer of himself as a circuit agent was the beginning of a long, active, and effective career. Agent, schoolmaster, and interpreter in turn, he entered the Ministry in 1893, and remained in active service almost until the day of his death. Kindly, tactful, and energetic, he was much loved in all the circuits in which he worked. Combining a gift for preaching with great humility of mind and simplicity of faith, he persisted in the work which he loved, in spite of much suffering and many bereavements. After accident and illness he renewed his labours, and was preparing a fresh campaign when he was struck down with the brief illness from which he died on October 12, 1922.

(8) Samuel B. Cawood: a son of one of the 1820 settlers. He was born at Cradock in 1849, and subsequently went to England to complete his studies. In 1871 he was admitted into our Ministry, and for upwards of fifty years laboured with unsparing zeal and vigour. At Potchefstroom, in the war of 1881, and again in 1899 and 1900 during the siege of Ladysmith, where he was then stationed, his untiring labours on behalf of the sick and suffering, and his cheerfulness and daring, in spite of threats and dangers, were an inspiration to all with whom he came into contact. His presentation of Gospel truth was often unique and exceedingly forceful. His kind, genial, manly bearing and his unblemished Christian character won him admiration and esteem in the circuits in which he travelled. He became a Supernumerary in 1922 and undertook charge of the congregation at George, but within a few days he was stricken down, and after some months he quietly passed to his rest on February 23, 1923, in the seventy-fourth year of his age and the fifty-second of his ministry.

(9) David Fonseka: born in 1838 at Kurana, in Ceylon, of devoted Methodist parents. He was greatly influenced by the Revival of 1865 and 1866 and felt called to the Ministry. After studying in our Theological School at Richmond Hill, Galle, he entered upon his work in 1870. In all his circuits he won respect and love as a quiet and devoted pastor, an earnest and acceptable preacher, and a man with a high conception of duty. The fervency of his public prayers was a marked feature of his ministry. He became a Supernumerary in 1916, and fell asleep in his native place on March 11, 1923, in the eighty-fifth year of his age and the fifty-third of his ministry.

(10) W. Thompson Kilbride: born in a Methodist home at Nafferton, in Yorkshire, January 14, 1881. He was early converted to God and soon after began to preach. He was accepted as a Candidate and spent two happy and profitable years at Handsworth College. He was then appointed to Nassau in the Bahamas District, where he immediately won the hearts of the people. There was a real deepening of the spiritual life of the Church, and large numbers gave their hearts to God. The faithful and fruitful ministry of those days is still remembered with gratitude. His next appointment was to Key West, where he laboured strenuously for about four years and passed through very trying experiences. Sweeping hurricanes shattered his home and destroyed most of his belongings. At the same time the church was swept away, and when it had been rebuilt by the devoted efforts of the people, it was again destroyed. Under this severe strain his health broke down, and eventually he was compelled to return to England, where he laboured for the next seven years. Full of eager desire for the welfare of the work in the Bahamas, in 1919 he went forth once more to his old district, and again his labours were greatly owned of God. He was appointed to the Acting Chairmanship in 1922, but his health again gave way. He reached England on June 3, 1923, and two days later he rested from his labours in the forty-third year of his age and the nineteenth of his ministry.

Q. XXX. Is there any objection to any of our Ministers or Preachers on Trial?

A. They were examined, one by one.

Q. XXXI. Who have ceased to be recognised as Ministers amongst us?

A. 1. In Great Britain,

Their names are recorded in the Journal.

2. In our Foreign Missions,

Their names are recorded in the Journal.

Q. XXXII. How are our Ministers and Preachers on Trial stationed for the ensuing year?

A. As follows:

[N.B.—1. Each of the places mentioned in these Stations, and numbered consecutively from 1 to 756, is the head of the Circuit; and the Minister first named is the Superintendent. In the event of his death, resignation, or incapacity, the Minister next named, provided such Minister be in Full Connexion with the Conference, and in full work, is the Superintendent. In case there is no Minister in Full Connexion with the Conference, and in full work, appointed to or remaining in the Circuit, the Chairman of the District is the Superintendent.

2. The Superintendent and other Minister or Ministers stationed in or appointed to the several Circuits undermentioned is and are appointed by the Conference to preach and to perform all acts of religious worship and Methodist discipline in each and every one of the Wesleyan Methodist chapels already erected, or to be erected, in each Circuit respectively, within the space of twelve calendar months, at such time or times, and in such manner, as to them shall seem proper; subject, nevertheless, to the Superintendent Minister and to the existing laws and regulations of the Conference.

OFFICIAL APPOINTMENTS.

Q. XXXIV. Whom do we appoint to be our Delegate in Ireland?

A. Our PRESIDENT, the Rev. T. FERRIER HULME, M.A., or, in his unavoidable absence, one of the following Ministers: the Rev. JOHN E. WAKERLEY, Ex-President; the Rev. JAMES W. PARKHILL, the Rev. JAMES M. ALLEY, nominated by the Irish Conference; the Rev. J. ALFRED SHARP, or the Rev. JOHN G. TASKER, D.D.

N.B.—1. The PRESIDENT, or other Minister acting as Delegate under the authority of the preceding appointment, who shall preside at the next Conference in Ireland, shall exercise the powers confided to him under and by virtue of the thirteenth clause of Mr. Wesley's Deed Poll, dated February 28, 1784.

2. The Rev. JOHN E. WAKERLEY (the Ex-President), the Rev. W. RUSSELL MALTBY, and the Rev. W. HAROLD BEALES are appointed to accompany the PRESIDENT to the Conference in Ireland, which will assemble in Cork on Tuesday, June 17, 1924.

Q. XXXV. What other Official Appointments are made?

A. (A) 1. The Rev. JOHN MITCHELL WATKINSON is appointed PRESIDENT of the next South African Conference, to be held in the month of April 1924.

(B) 1. The PRESIDENT of the Conference will preside at the Annual Meeting of the Welsh Wesleyan Methodist Assembly to be held at Aberystwyth, on Wednesday, June 4, 1924. The Rev. H. MALDWYN HUGHES, B.A., D.D., is appointed to accompany the PRESIDENT. The Rev. JOHN HORNABROOK and the Rev. F. LUKE WISEMAN, B.A., are ex-officio members of the Assembly. The Rev. D. GWYNFRYN JONES is appointed PRESIDENT of the Assembly for 1924.

2. The Rev. JOHN G. TASKER, D.D. (or in his unavoidable absence, Rev. JOSEPH T. GURNEY), is appointed to attend the Annual Meeting of the Isle of Man Synod in May 1924.

EXAMINATIONS OF CANDIDATES FOR ORDINATION.

Q. XXXVI. What are the Directions of the Conference respecting the Examinations of Candidates for Ordination?

In the Synod.

A. (A) 1. Before any Preacher, having travelled four years, is recommended by his District Synod for admission into Full Connexion, he shall undergo a careful oral examination, by the Chairman of that Synod, respecting his acquaintance with Wesley's Works in general, and especially with his Sermons and his Notes on the New Testament. This oral Examination may be omitted when the report on the Probationer's paper on Wesley's Works is satisfactory.

2. Every such Preacher shall also be examined as to his knowledge of the Constitution of Methodism and the Administration of Circuits; and as to whether, after four years' experience of its working, he still approves of our Discipline.

In the Conference.

(B) 1. Arrangements shall be made for conducting the Examination, in the Conference, of Candidates for Ordination at a time when the President of the Conference can attend, and when a large proportion of the Conference, including its official members, may be expected to be present.

2. An explicit declaration of his belief in the Doctrines of Methodism shall be required of each Candidate.

OVERSIGHT AND EXAMINATION OF PROBATIONERS.

Q. XXXVII. What is the Report upon the Oversight and Examination of Preachers on Trial for the past year? And what are the directions of the Conference respecting the Examination of Preachers on Trial for the ensuing year?

A. 1. The following is a summary of the Report:

This year 95 Probationers were placed in Study Groups; and special courses, in one or more subjects, were arranged for 13 Probationers; of the former, 9 obtained First Class Honours and 48 Second Class Honours. Four Probationers failed to send in their study papers satisfactorily, and three were prevented from doing so by illness.

Thornton Smith, Thomas Stephenson, B.A., D.D., John G. Tasker, D.D., F. Luke Wiseman, B.A., and Herbert B. Workman, M.A., D.D.

The Revs. James Critchison, William F. Lofthouse, M.A., D.D., and J. Grange Radford, B.D., are appointed General Examination Secretaries and Secretaries of the Committee.

(2) Under the scheme for the Re-organisation of Probationers' Studies adopted by the Conference of 1921, the functions of the Connexional Board of Examiners previously appointed are fulfilled by the Panel of Directors of Studies and the Board of Correspondence-Tutors.

The scheme in detail is re-printed below.

3. Revised General Regulations:

(1) The subjects for study in each of the first three years of Probation shall be four in number, viz.:—(A) New Testament, (B) Old Testament, (C) Theology, in the third year especially Methodist Doctrine and Polity, and (D) Church History, or Philosophy, or the Study of Social Problems. In the fourth year the subjects shall be three in number, viz.:—(A), (B), and (C), omitting (D).

N.B.—The subject under (D) shall be chosen by the General Secretaries, in consultation with the College Tutors, and shall be consecutive during the years of Probation. All Probationers shall be required to include in their studies the prescribed subjects in the Old and New Testament. All Probationers who have passed through the Institution shall take these subjects in Hebrew and Greek respectively unless they are exempted on the authority of the College Staff. Application for such exemption must be made at the beginning of the Connexional Year.

(2) In these subjects, in place of the system of independent study with a final examination, each Probationer shall study under the guidance of a Tutor in each subject, who shall direct his work and test it at suitable intervals.

(3) The report of the Connexional Committee to the May Synods shall be based on the reports of the Tutors in the various subjects, care being taken to secure an adequate estimate both of the amount and quality of the work.

(4) The scheme shall be worked out as follows:

I.—A small panel of Directors of Studies shall be appointed, to consist of four groups, with three members for each (one for each of the four subjects of study). The heads of groups dealing with subjects (A) (B), and (C), shall be Tutors at the Theological Institution, and the Tutors shall be expected to take this duty in rotation. For each of the subjects under (D) a Tutor at the Institution shall be asked to serve continuously from year to year, with two Assessors.

Their duty shall be to prepare a series of four study-papers before September in subjects (A) to (C), and of three study-papers before Easter in subjects under (D), and to forward to the General Secretaries.

II.—A large Panel of Correspondence-Tutors shall be appointed, whose work will be:

(a) To receive the study-papers from the General Secretaries and to despatch a study-paper to each Probationer in subjects (A) to (C) at intervals of about six weeks, commencing in September. In the case of subjects under (D), the three study-papers shall be distributed between Easter and Conference, during the first three years of Probation only.

(b) To receive the work of each Probationer at the end of each period of six weeks, examine and mark it, register the mark, and return to the Probationer with suitable guidance.

(c) To return their reports to the General Secretaries as soon as possible after March 31, or, in the case of subjects under (D), after June 30.

III.—In this connection the work of the General Secretaries will be:

(a) To receive the study-papers from the directors of Studies and despatch them to the Correspondence-Tutors.

(b) To receive the reports from the Correspondence-Tutors in April (or for subjects under (D) in June), and to present them to the General Committee, which will report to the Synods as at present.

(c) To receive the recommendations of the Synods and present them to the General Committee.

IV.—The system here outlined shall apply to all Probationers except in cases where, in the judgment of the Secretaries (in consultation with the College tutors), the older method of an annual examination without tutorial guidance may appear preferable in one or more subjects.

The arrangements for the selection of examiners for Probationers who take advantage of section IV shall be in the discretion of the General Secretaries. The date for the Examination under this Section is March 28, 1924.

(5) The marks of all study courses shall be returned in percentages and not in grades. The result for each Probationer shall be determined according to his average percentage in the whole study course in each subject. An average of 80 per cent. or over shall entitle to First Class Honours, one of 65 per cent. or over to Second Class Honours, while an average of under 35 per cent. shall involve failure in the whole course.

An Honours List shall be prepared each year, showing the names of Probationers who have attained honours in the ordinary study courses, and also of those who have taken special subjects and have obtained a pass or an honours mark in the examination.

(6) The September Synod of each District shall appoint a District Secretary, and an examination shall be held under his supervision for Probationers taking advantage of paragraph IV above, care being taken in selecting a place of examination to reduce as far as possible the travelling expenses involved.

Every Probationer may claim third-class railway fare to and from the place of Examination. These and other expenses of the Examination, with the exception of local expenses, shall be defrayed from the Connexional Fund and the Theological Institution Fund.

(7) Probationers who are called out of College into the Home work during the connexional year shall not take the Probationers' Examination, but shall be examined in subjects fixed by their College staff, and the results shall be reported to the Discipline Committee.

(8) Probationers who have not been to the Institution shall be assigned to Study Groups according to their attainments at the discretion of the General Secretaries. Those who have not previously studied Greek shall be expected to begin the study of New Testament Greek grammar, with a few verses of translation. The Secretaries shall have power to exempt from this for sufficient cause, substituting two English Biblical subjects. The marks obtained shall be reported to the Institution Allocation Committee. From these Probationers a fourth (D) subject will not be required.

(9) The General Secretaries shall send to the May Synod a detailed report of each Probationer's work for the year. This shall show the subjects taken, the marks obtained in each, the average percentage in the whole examination, and the place in Honours, if any, together with any observations made by the Examiners or by the General Secretaries. The District Secretary shall receive these reports and present them to the Synod, and subsequently transmit to the General Secretaries the Synod's resolutions upon them.

(10) The General Secretaries shall prepare a report to the Conference. This shall contain a brief account of the year's work, with reports on cases of failure and absence from Examination.

(11) A Probationer who is prevented by illness or other imperative cause from sending in his answer-paper to his tutor or tutors at the appointed time shall send, at the time, a medical statement instead. The tutors will report on these cases to the General Secretaries, and the General Secretaries will report to the Synod their judgment thereon. Should a Probationer, taking advantage of paragraph IV. above, be compelled to be absent from his examination, he shall communicate with his Chairman, and send to the General Secretaries a detailed statement of the work done in preparation for it, together with a full medical statement; and the General Secretaries shall report their judgment to the Synod.

(12) Should any Probationer have been prevented from completing the year's work more than once during his probation, on account of health, the General Secretaries shall send to the Designation Committee, after the May Synod, a full report of the case, with a medical statement, and the Designation Committee shall report to the Conference on the question of his ordination.

(13) In the case of every Candidate for Ordination, a record of the whole of the examination work during probation shall be prepared by the General Secretaries, and sent to the Synod, showing the average percentage each year, and place, if any, in Honours, together with general comments on the record as a whole. Should this record be deemed by the Secretaries unsatisfactory, they may recommend to the Synod that the candidate's ordination should either be deferred or made conditional upon his passing certain examinations before Conference. The number and character of such examinations shall be determined by the Synod upon the Secretaries' recommendation.

(14) When part of any candidate's probation has been spent upon the Foreign field, the report to the Synod shall include a report supplied by the Missionary Secretaries as to his work while abroad.

(15) Book List.—The Probationers' Oversight and Examination Committee is instructed to prepare, and, at the beginning of the Connexional Year, to send to each Probationer, a list of books specially recommended for the reading of Probationers on Trial, some of which shall have particular reference to the Scriptural Doctrine of the Church. The General Secretaries shall send to each Probationer, early in April, a classified form on which the Probationer shall describe his reading, theological and general, for the year.

EXAMINATION OF CANDIDATES FOR THE MINISTRY.

Q. XXXVIII. What are the directions of the Conference respecting the Examination of Candidates for the Ministry?

A. 1. For the GENERAL REGULATIONS see Minutes, 1917, pp. 344–45, 352–54.

Preliminary Examination.

2. The two papers of the Preliminary Examination shall be set and marked by Examiners nominated yearly by the Sub-Committee of Studies of the Theological Institution. The Examiners for this year are the Revs. Wilbert F. Howard, M.A., B.D., George B. Robson, W. Lamplough Doughty, B.A., B.D., Arthur N. Rose, M.A. Two Examiners shall be appointed for paper (a), and two for paper (b). The questions shall be submitted in proof to three Ministers appointed year by year by the Conference. The following are appointed for this year: Revs. Robert Bond, John J. Leedal, and James R. Irving.

The answers shall be written in the presence of the Superintendents of the Circuits by which the Candidates are recommended, or of one or more other Ministers. This Examination shall be held on Thursday and Friday, April 3 and 4, 1924.

Sermons.

3. Arrangements shall be made by the May District Synod for the hearing of each Candidate by three Ministers of the District, in addition to those who have heard him before his recommendation by the Synod; such Ministers shall suggest a mark and immediately forward their Report to the Rev. W. Percy Hutton, B.A., 6, Redbourne Avenue, Church End, Finchley, N.3.

July Committee.

4. (i) The Special Examination of Candidates for the Ministry who have passed the District Synods shall be conducted by a Committee in two Sections, having charge of Examinations to be held simultaneously at Richmond and Didsbury, respectively. This Examination shall be held in the week following Sunday, July 6, 1924.

(ii) The Minister appointed by the Welsh Assembly shall be a Member of the Southern Section.

(iii) The Revs. Arthur E. Sharpley, B.A., B.D., and W. Percy Hutton, B.A., General Secretary of the Theological Institution, are appointed General Secretaries of the Examination Committee.

(iv) All communications relating to Candidates must be addressed to the Rev. Arthur E. Sharpley, B.A., B.D., Glenwood, Ringstead Road, Sutton, Surrey.

(v) The Local Secretary of the Richmond Branch of the Theological Institution and the Rev. George Marris are appointed to act as Examination Secretaries for the Southern Section; and the Local Secretary for the Didsbury Branch and the Rev. Thomas A. Turney to act as Examination Secretaries for the Northern Section.

Educational Standard for Candidates.

The attention of Superintendents and prospective Candidates for the Ministry is called to the fact that ordinarily the Conference does not accept Candidates who do not reach a definite educational standard. The examination to test the Candidates' ability to reach this standard shall be the Literary Paper set at the July Committee. A " pass " representing 50 per cent. of the total marks possible will ordinarily be required.

The Conference is strongly of opinion that the prescribed standard is a modest and reasonable requirement from men who offer themselves for the Christian Ministry, and considers it inadvisable to lower the standard. Recognising, however, that cases arise of Candidates whose failure to meet the required educational standard is more than counter-balanced by remarkable gifts in other directions, the Conference resolves that the above regulation shall not be so applied as to prevent either the acceptance of such Candidates or their being sent to the Theological Institution.

Syllabus for Standard Required.

(1) English Language, Literature, and History.

a. English Grammar and Analysis (Nesfield's Outline of English Grammar).

A short English Essay.

b. General Outline of English Literature (Stopford Brooke's Primer, 1s.)

Shakespeare's Macbeth and Lamb's Essays of Elia (1st Series)

c. English History.

J. R. Green: A Short History of the English People, chap. 10, and Epilogue in Enlarged Edition.

(2) Elementary Mathematics.

Algebra (Elementary).

The subjects of Euclid, Book I.

(3) Elementary Logic (Welton's Groundwork of Logic, chaps. 1–12,

(4) A Science Subject (Elementary).

(5) Latin.

Macmillan's Shorter Latin Course, by Cook, pts. I and II.

Cæsar: de Bello Gallico, bk. II.

(6) Greek.

Clapperton's First Steps in New Testament Greek.

St. Mark, chap. viii.

(1) is compulsory for all Candidates taking this examination. From (2), (3), (4), (5), and (6), a Candidate shall select two subjects for examination.

[For 1925 the subjects will be as above with the following changes:

English Literature: Shakespeare's Hamlet and Bunyan's Pilgrim's Progress.

English History: Green, chaps. 8–9: "Puritan England and the Revolution."

Greek: St. Mark, chap. iii. instead of chap. viii.]

N.B.—(1) Candidates are strongly recommended to select (6) as one of their subjects, because of its importance in relation to the curriculum of the Theological Colleges, and to the whole work of the Ministry.

(2) Candidates who have passed an intermediate examination for a degree at a British University, or who, within a period of five years before their candidature, have matriculated, or passed an examination recognised as exempting from matriculation at any British University, shall be exempted from the July Literary Examination (Minutes, 1921, p. 258).

(3) The attention of all Candidates is called to the largely increased facilities for matriculating or passing some equivalent examination, and they are strongly urged to avail themselves of these opportunities before making their offer.

DISCIPLINE COMMITTEES.

THEOLOGICAL INSTITUTION.

Q. XXXIX. What are the Resolutions of the Conference with regard to the Discipline Committees for the Theological Institution?

A. 1. For GENERAL REGULATIONS see Minutes, 1917, pp. 354–6.

Q. XLIII. What Resolutions of the Conference are to be submitted to the Districts in Great Britain when Ministers only are present?

A. None.

SPECIAL RESOLUTIONS.

Death of the Rev. William Bradfield, B.A.—The Conference records with profound sorrow the death of the Rev. William Bradfield, B.A., one of the greatest and most devoted sons of Methodism. He was a man of rare endowments and great force of character. In a remarkable way he combined wide and accurate scholarship, prophetic insight, the power of lucid exposition, and great administrative ability. His mind was open and hospitable to new ideas and his heart overflowed in sympathy with the perplexities of seekers after truth. In Leicester he took a noble part in a campaign of adventurous Evangelism, and in Oxford he rendered unique service to the student life of the University. As Warden of the Wesley Deaconess Institute he lifted the whole position of the Order to a higher plane, and as Chairman of the Halifax and Bradford District he guided the affairs of our Church with unfailing tact, sympathy, and ability. He was a brother beloved, a saint admired, and a father in God, trusted and venerated, particularly by the younger ministers who came under his influence.

The Conference gives thanks for the life and ministry of Mr. Bradfield and for the memory of a man of God whose influence for good will abide for ever.

Death of the Rev. William Perkins.—The Conference hears with deep regret of the death of the Rev. William Perkins, and places on record its high appreciation of his long and distinguished ministry. It recalls with gratitude the sterling integrity and winsomeness of his character, the freshness and spiritual power of his preaching, his sympathy and insight as a pastor, and the wisdom and strength of his Circuit and District administration. He was the Chairman of the Bristol and Bath District, where his name is still fragrant, and for sixteen years he was one of the General Secretaries of the Missionary Society, a position which he filled with great devotion and ability. In 1909 he was elected President of the Conference. In a remarkable degree he won the esteem and affection of the Ministers and Laymen of Methodism, and has left behind him the memory of a noble life devoted throughout to the service of Christ and His Church.

Retirement of the Rev. John Elsworth.—In granting permission to the Rev. John Elsworth to become a Supernumerary, the Conference records its high appreciation of the varied and devoted services which he has rendered to Methodism during his active ministry. A faithful preacher of the Word and a diligent pastor, he has proved himself also a wise administrator in all his Circuits. In District and Connexional affairs, more particularly as Financial Secretary of Synods and Assistant Secretary of the Conference, he has rendered service of quite exceptional value for many years. All his work has been characterised by unremitting diligence, great thoroughness, and sacrificial devotion. He is an eager student of the Polity of Methodism, and his publications upon the subject have laid the whole Church under a deep obligation. The Conference assures Mr. Elsworth of its esteem and affection, and prays that his years of retirement may continue to be rich in experience and fruitful in service.

Retirement of the Rev. Grainger Hargreaves.—In consenting to the request of the Rev. Grainger Hargreaves to become a Supernumerary the Conference places on record its high appreciation of his long and faithful ministry, both at home and abroad. It recalls with gratitude his zealous and fruitful toil as a missionary in China, and the position he won as preacher, pastor, and administrator in important home Circuits. More particularly, the Conference desires to acknowledge his able and devoted services in the Oxford District during the past eighteen years. Under his wise, courageous, and public-spirited leadership, perplexing and difficult problems have been faced, schemes for the relief and extension of Methodism in needy areas have been enterprised, and the influence of our Church, specially in the city of Oxford, has been enhanced. By his sympathy, urbanity, and ceaseless industry, weak and struggling Churches have been strengthened, and his name and work will long be gratefully remembered. The Conference congratulates Mr. Hargreaves upon the completion of a ministry so rich and beneficent, and assures him of the affectionate regard and fervent goodwill of his brethren.

Retirement of the Rev. John G. Warrington.—The Conference in granting permission to the Rev. John G. Warrington to become a Supernumerary expresses its unqualified admiration of the beautiful spirit which has animated him throughout the forty-two years over which his ministry has extended. On the foreign field and in the homeland, Mr. Warrington has proved himself to be "a workman that needeth not to be ashamed." A product of the warm Methodism of Nottinghamshire, he has spent twenty-one years in the Circuits of that large and important District. As its Secretary and for the last four years Chairman, he has been peculiarly identified with its ever-increasing activities. By his evangelical preaching, sane judgment, administrative ability, and pastoral fidelity, Mr. Warrington has won for himself an enduring place in the affections of the people. The Conference trusts that many years of fruitful service may still be granted to their brother so beloved.

Rev. J. T. Wardle Stafford, D.D., D.C.L.—In granting permission to the Rev. J. T. Wardle Stafford, D.D., D.C.L., to reside in Canada in order to fulfil an important engagement at the Metropolitan Church, Toronto, for two years, the Conference desires to record its high appreciation of the distinguished services which he has rendered to Methodism. By his brilliant pulpit gifts and his able and sagacious leadership, Dr. Stafford has won widespread admiration, while his urbanity, loyalty, and graciousness have given him a unique place in the hearts of his brethren. The Conference wishes him an affectionate "God speed."

Retirement of Rev. Alfred W. Hooker, M.B., B.S., M.R.C.S., L.R.C.P.—In consenting to the voluntary retirement of the Rev. Dr. Alfred W. Hooker from the Ministry, the Conference records its warm appreciation of the great service which he has rendered in South China during the last fifteen years. It is gratified to learn of Dr. Hooker's agreement with our doctrine and discipline and that he will continue in connection with the Wesleyan Methodist Church as a Lay Medical Missionary with the full concurrence of the Missionary Committee.

Thanks to the Rev. J. Alfred Sharp.—The Conference desires to record its special thanks to the Book Steward, the Rev. J. Alfred Sharp, for the conspicuous ability with which he has discharged the duties of his Office, and its gratification that under his skilful direction the affairs of the Book-Room have been brought to their present highly satisfactory condition.

The Gambling Evil.—The Conference in its Representative Session re-affirmed its Resolution of 1921 and 1922 and directed that they should be reprinted in this year's Minutes (see page 61). The Conference in its Pastoral Session concurs and adopts the following additional resolution :

> In view of the alarming increase of gambling, betting, and sweepstakes, and of the serious evils resulting from them, the Conference urges all sections of our Church to discourage everything likely to foster this gambling craze, and especially prohibits all raffles, games of chance, and guessing competitions on our premises.

Convener of Memorials Committee.—1. The Rev. C. Ryder Smith, B.A., D.D., is appointed Convener of the Committee on Memorials and Suggestions for the Conference of 1924.

2. The Convener is instructed to divide the District Suggestions into two lists, according to their Subjects : (1) For the Representative Session, and (2) for the Pastoral Session, of the Conference ; and to submit the lists to the President before they are entered in the Agenda ; (3) The Memorials from Circuits shall be printed and circulated throughout the Conference.

3. The Secretary of the Conference shall furnish the Convener with a List of all matters referred for consideration to the several Departmental Committees ; and the Convener shall obtain the several decisions of the said Committees thereupon, and present them to the following Conference.

Convener of Scrutineers.—The Rev. J. Henry Maddock is appointed to take charge of the voting for the Legal Conference, and for all offices, at the Conference of 1924 ; and as such is an ex-officio member of the Pastoral Session of that Conference.

Conference Precentor.—The Rev. Howard Watkin-Jones, M.A., B.D., is appointed to act as Precentor at the Conference of 1924, and as such is an ex-officio member of the Pastoral Session of that Conference.

Assistant Secretaries.—The Conference re-appoints the Revs. J. Edwin Dixon (Assistant Secretary), Thomas A. Turney (Record Secretary), David Rycroft (Journal Secretary) ; and John Telford, B.A., and Wilfrid J. Moulton, M.A., B.D. (Letter-writers).

Assistant "Journal" Secretary.—The Rev. Walter J. Morgan is appointed Assistant Journal Secretary ; and as such is an ex-officio member of the Conference of 1924.

Ministers under Discipline, and other Cases.—1. The Conference receives the Report of the Committee.

2. In view of the great services rendered by this Fund in helping to secure the withdrawal of unsuitable men from our Ministry, the Conference commends the Fund to the support of all the Ministers.

3. The Conference re-appoints the Committee, to administer the Fund, and to deal with the cases as they arise. (See Minutes, 1893, p. 226.)

4. The following is the Committee: Revs. T. FERRIER HULME, M.A., President of the Conference; JOHN E. WAKERLEY, Ex-President; THOMAS KIRKUP, Secretary of the Conference; Revs. James Critchison, Joseph Dixon, Marshall Hartley, Dr. J. Scott Lidgett, M.A., Walter Sackett, Dr. William T. A. Barber, M.A., F. Luke Wiseman, B.A. The Rev. JAMES CRITCHISON is the Convener.

Designation Committee.—1. The Conference appoints a Committee, consisting of the PRESIDENT and SECRETARY of the Conference; the Secretary of the Oversight and Examination of Probationers Committee; five Ministers chosen by the Home Mission, the Foreign Missionary, and the Theological Institution Committees, respectively; one Minister by the staff of each College from among themselves; one by the Welsh Wesleyan Methodist Assembly; together with the Revs. J. Milton Brown, Josiah Banham, Edwin Finch, William J. Maund, William H. Hart, and C. Ryder Smith, B.A., D.D. The SECRETARY of the Conference is the Convener of the Committee.

2. This Committee shall sit prior to the Sessions of the Conference, to consider and report upon:

(1) The designation of Students for Home or Foreign Work.

(2) All cases in which the Conference has determined that special reports upon Probationers shall be presented to the ensuing Conference.

(3) All cases in which Probationers have been absent more than once during their probation from the Annual Examination, and upon the question of the Candidate's Ordination.

(4) All cases in which, owing to pressure of special work, Probationers have failed in their Examination for two successive years.

(5) The health and general fitness for our work of the men on the President's List of Reserve, and the results of the Examination of accepted Candidates on the List of Reserve who have received appointments.

(6) The Reports of Superintendents concerning accepted Candidates resident in their Circuit who have not received an appointment.

(7) The number of Candidates required for the Ministry.

(8) Transfers, including applications from other Churches.

The Pastoral Address.—The following Committee is appointed to prepare the Pastoral Address for the Conference of 1924: Revs. Charles W. Andrews, B.A., B.D., Francis B. James, Howard Watkin-Jones, M.A., B.D.

Nominations for Election into the Legal Conference to fill vacancies caused by death. (See Minutes, 1923, p. 293.) The following Ministers are nominated: Revs. Frederick H. Benson, B.A., C. Ensor Walters, Harry Bisseker, David Rycroft, Edgar W. Thompson, M.A., Albert H. Walker, B.A., Robert Bond, Alfred J. Costain, M.A.

Obituaries of Deceased Ministers.—The following are appointed the Committee for the ensuing year (see Standing Order 24, Min., p. 295): Rev. T. Ferrier Hulme, M.A., President of the Conference; Rev. John E. Wakerley, Ex-President; Rev. Thomas Kirkup, Secretary of the Conference; the Book Steward; Revs. John Telford, B.A., Editor; Dr. W. Theophilus Davison, M.A., Joseph Dixon, Marshall Hartley, Dinsdale T. Young.

The Rev. John Telford, B.A., is the Convener, to whom Obituaries should be sent immediately after approval by the Synod.

Methodist Law, and other Matters: Way of devising a more satisfactory method of Election into the Legal Conference. (Minutes, 1922, pp. 263–269.)

(1) The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee.

(2) In adopting last year's Report (Minutes, 1923, Appendix II) the Conference referred back to the Committee the method of nomination under the "Second Question" for further consideration and report. (Minutes, 1922, pp. 265, 268.)

(3) The Conference resolves that:

(a) In the Pastoral Session "open nominations" for all vacancies in the "Legal Hundred" shall take place as at present.

(b) From the list of names proposed to the Conference on that occasion for admission to "the Hundred," the number of ministers required to fill immediate vacancies shall be chosen, one by one, by ballot, as at present, and the Legal Conference shall be requested in such cases to elect the person so nominated a member of "the Hundred."

(c) From the remaining names on the List of those who have been proposed, and any additional nominations it shall still be open to the Conference to make, a further vote by ballot shall be taken. Each voter shall have eight votes, one vote for each person he desires to be placed on the panel of eight names. The first eight names chosen in this further ballot shall be sent forward, as the nominated list, from which, at the first meeting of the Representative Session of the following year, the Legal Conference shall be requested to fill up the vacancies which shall then be declared.

2. The Conference instructs the Committee to consider the question of the best method of procedure in respect to the extended term of ministerial appointments, and to report to the Conference of 1924.

3. The Conference refers to the Committee for consideration during the year a communication from the New South Wales Conference respecting ministerial exchanges for a limited period.

4. The Conference re-appoints the Committee as follows: The Revs. T. Ferrier Hulme, M.A., President of the Conference; John E. Wakerley, Ex-President; Thomas Kirkup, Secretary of the Conference; Revs. Charles W. Andrews, B.A., B.D., Dr. William T. A. Barber, M.A., Henry Bett, M.A., William Collett, Dr. W. Theophilus Davison, M.A., J. Edwin Dixon, Joseph Dixon, John Elsworth, Joseph T. Gurney, Archibald W. Harrison, B.Sc., B.D., M.C., William H. Hart, Marshall Hartley, John Hornabrook, J. Oliver Hornabrook, O.B.E., Wilbert F. Howard, M.A., B.D., William Humphrey, Dr. J. Scott Lidgett, M.A., George Marris, Thomas Naylor, B.A., J. Herbert Rider, H. Arnaud Scott, J. Alfred Sharp, Dr. John S. Simon, Dr. C. Ryder Smith, B.A., Dr. John G. Tasker, F. Luke Wiseman, B.A.

The Rev. John S. Simon, D.D., is the Convener.

Extended Ministerial Appointments.—The Conference adopts the following statement in respect to extended ministerial appointments, and resolves to bring it under the notice of Ministers and Circuits throughout the Connexion:

Attention is called to the fact that the suspension of the eleventh clause of John Wesley's Deed Poll by Act of Parliament for the period of the War, has now lapsed, and that all appointments made by this Conference are made in accordance with that clause.

When the Conference decided some years ago under legal advice to allow certain ministers to remain in their Circuits without definite appointments for a longer period than three years, this provision was intended to apply only in exceptional cases. The practice of inviting ministers for a longer period than that prescribed in the Deed Poll has grown considerably, as might be expected during the War. It seems now to be taken for granted that Circuits are at liberty to invite ministers for extended appointments, whether the circumstances are exceptional or not. The result is that several Chairmen of Districts will be legally the Superintendents of six or eight Circuits, and the Stationing Committee is limited in its choice of men for important appointments.

The Conference deems it desirable to inform our people that it will be necessary in future to scrutinise these proposals much more carefully, and that only in exceptional cases can extended appointments be considered.

The attention of Ministers and Circuit Stewards is also called to the Standing Orders in relation to extended appointments. (Minutes, 1923, p. 307, S.O. 65.)

Revision of "Pastoral Synod Agenda" and "Liverpool Minutes."—1. The Conference appoints a Special Committee to revise the Agenda of the Pastoral Session of Synods, and, in particular, to advise the Conference on the whole subject raised by the Suggestion from the Cornwall Synod, and to report to the next Conference.

2. SUGGESTION FROM THE CORNWALL SYNOD, re Liverpool Minutes.—"This Synod, while conscious of the great value the Liverpool Minutes have been in past years, and while acknowledging that they deal with many matters of most urgent importance to-day, is of opinion that they do not adequately meet the present needs. The Synod believes that a statement could be prepared in the light of present-day conditions which would be searching, instructive, and inspiring, and which would be a fitting introduction to the Conversation on the Work of God. The Synod therefore suggests to the Conference that such a statement be prepared to take the place of the Liverpool Minutes, as at present in use."

3. The following is the Committee: The PRESIDENT and the SECRETARY of the Conference, Revs. Marshall Hartley, Dinsdale T. Young, John G. Tasker, D.D., Edgar C. Barton, R. A. Mitcheson Brown, John W. Colwell, James Critchison, J. Edwin Dixon, John Elsworth, Edwin Finch, J. Henry Martin, Frank Noble, J. Herbert Rider, John P. Veall, R. Douglas Moore, R. Newton Flew, M.A., J. Arundel Chapman, M.A., Alfred J. G. Seaton, B.D., K. Harley Boyns.

The Rev. JOHN ELSWORTH is the Convener.

"The Renewal of the Covenant."—The Conference appoints the following Committee to prepare a new Form of Service for "the Renewal of the Covenant," to be submitted to the next Conference: The PRESIDENT of the Conference, the EX-PRESIDENT, the SECRETARY, the Revs. W. Theophilus Davison, M.A., D.D., F. Luke Wiseman, B.A., William T. A. Barber, M.A., D.D., Thomas H. Barratt, B.A., W. Bardsley Brash, B.D., B.Litt., J. Arundel Chapman, M.A., J. Edward Harlow, James R. Irving, William S. Kelynack, M.A., John W. Lightley, M.A., B.D., J. Ernest Rattenbury, George B. Robson, Arthur Rudman, Frederic Platt, M.A., D.D., Albert E. Salmon, C. Ryder Smith, B.A., D.D., John Telford, B.A., William J. Tunbridge.

The Rev. JOHN TELFORD, B.A., is the Convener.

Inquiry Concerning Methodist Union.—The Conference receives the Report of the Committee, and whilst making no pronouncement at this stage of the inquiry, either on the main question or on the proposals now submitted, heartily approves the action of the Representative Session in remitting the Scheme to the United Committee in order that the amendments suggested by the three Churches concerned may be considered with a view to the submission of the Scheme to the Local Courts in 1924, should the Conference so determine.

The Conference re-appoints the Committee, that it may continue to watch the future development of the question, and report to the next Conference.

The following is the Committee: The Ministerial Members of the Representative Committee, together with the Revs. G. Armstrong Bennetts, B.A., Wesley T. Bosward, J. Arundel Chapman, M.A., Thomas Heppell, Walter Hawkins, A. Gordon James, H. Watkin-Jones, M.A., B.D., Alfred J. G. Seaton, B.D., Herbert B. Workman, D.Lit., D.D., and E. Aldom French, Convener.

Ministers and Parliament.—The Conference appoints the following Committee to consider the whole question of the relation of Ministers to Parliamentary Candidature and to report to the Conference of 1924: The PRESIDENT of the Conference, the EX-PRESIDENT, the SECRETARY, the Revs. J. Scott Lidgett, M.A., D.D., John Hornbrook, Walter H. Armstrong, J. Williams Butcher, William H. Hart, Grainger Hargreaves, William H. Heap, Robert Bond, Henry Carter, Charles Lee-Dunham, J. Henry Cartwright, Arthur Myers, H. Arnaud Scott, Wesley Woolmer, Marcus E. R. Brockman, and Walter J. Noble. The Rev. WALTER H. ARMSTRONG is the Convener.

American Prohibition Law.—The Conference adopts the following Resolution:

> The attention of the Conference having been called to a circular issued from London inviting persons to invest money on a guarantee of 20 per cent. profit for the shipment of whisky to a point twenty miles from the coast of America, the Conference records its indignant protest against this attempt to evade and frustrate the laws of the United States, and further instructs the Temperance and Social Welfare Committee to take immediate action to bring the facts to the knowledge of the responsible British and American authorities.

English-speaking and Welsh-speaking Churches in the Cardiff and Swansea and South Wales Districts.—The Conference heartily approves of the suggestion that the Pastoral Sessions of the Cardiff and Swansea District Synod and the South Wales District Synod should send Representatives the one to the other, on the understanding that such Representatives have no vote in the Synod which they visit.

Doctrinal Committee of Appeal.—1. The Conference receives the Report of the Committee, and adopts the following amended Resolution in respect of procedure (Minutes, 1922, p. 271) :

(1) The usual method of referring a charge to a Committee of Appeal sitting during the Pastoral Session of the Conference not affording sufficient opportunity for consideration in the case of a charge respecting doctrine, the Conference shall annually appoint a Doctrinal Committee of Appeal consisting of the President, Ex-President, and Secretary of the Conference, together with twelve Ministers, four of whom shall retire annually in rotation, and shall not be eligible for immediate re-election. The function of this Committee shall be to consider all charges concerning doctrine arising during the year ; its power and procedure shall conform to that of the ordinary Conference Committee of Appeal.

(2) If and when there is a case to be investigated, the Doctrinal Committee of Appeal shall meet on a date earlier than the Conference, to be fixed by the President.

(3) All charges in respect of doctrine should be preferred as heretofore, either before or at the May Synod. A copy of any such charge, together with the findings of the Synod thereupon, shall be sent to the Convener of the Doctrinal Committee of Appeal, who shall forward particulars of the charge to the members of the Committee as early as possible.

(4) Should the occasion for a new charge arise subsequently to the May Synod, the appellant shall send a written statement of the charge to the President of the Conference as well as to the brother charged, and to the Chairman of the District in which he is stationed. The President shall send a copy of the charge to the Convener of the Doctrinal Committee of Appeal, who shall then act as stated in paragraph 3.

Nothing in these Regulations shall interfere with the right of the accused to demand a Minor Synod, or with the discretion of the Chairman in respect thereto.

(5) In the event of any matter arising at Conference which could not have been dealt with under the foregoing provisions, it shall be remitted to the Doctrinal Committee of Appeal, which shall sit either during the Conference and report forthwith ; or (in exceptional circumstances), if the Conference so determines, during the ensuing year. In cases in which the Committee shall judge immediate disciplinary action should be taken, the Committee shall report the fact to the Chairman of the District.

(6) In any case involving doctrinal beliefs or statements, the Minister concerned shall himself be heard by the Committee, and the findings of the Committee shall be immediately communicated to him. (Daily Record, 1923, pp. 55, 65.)

2. In harmony with the above Resolution, the Conference appoints the following Doctrinal Committee of Appeal for the ensuing year :

Rev. T. FERRIER HULME, M.A., President of the Conference; Rev. JOHN E. WAKERLEY, Ex-President; Rev. THOMAS KIRKUP, Secretary of the Conference; Revs. William T. A. Barber, M.A., D.D., J. Arundel Chapman, M.A., W. Theophilus Davison, M.A., D.D., R. Winboult Harding, B.D., Wilbert F. Howard, M.A., B.D., J. Scott Lidgett, M.A., D.D., John W. Lightley, M.A., B.D., C. Ryder Smith, B.A., D.D., Sherwin Smith, M.A., B.D., Eric S. Waterhouse, M.A., D.D., F. Luke Wiseman, B.A., and Dinsdale T. Young.

The Rev. C. RYDER SMITH, B.A., D.D., is the Convener.

Women and the Ministry.—The Conference receives the report of the Committee (Agenda, 1923, p. 79), and re-appoints the Committee, with power, if it think well, to meet along with the corresponding Committee appointed by the Representative Session.

The following is the Committee: The Rev. T. FERRIER HULME, M.A., President of the Conference; Rev. JOHN E. WAKERLEY, Ex-President; Rev. THOMAS KIRKUP, Secretary of the Conference; Revs. Walter H. Armstrong, Henry Bett, M.A., Robert Bond, Amos Burnet, John Elsworth, R. Moffat Gautrey, J. Edward Harlow, William H. Heap, G. E. Hickman Johnson, W. Russell Maltby, J. Alfred Sharp, C. Ryder Smith, B.A., D.D., W. Hodson Smith, F. Luke Wiseman, B.A., and Dr. Herbert B. Workman, M.A.

The Rev. W. RUSSELL MALTBY is the Convener.

Supernumeraries and Business.—The Conference re-affirms that the Regulation respecting Supernumeraries entering into business be suspended for the time being.

Ministerial Contributions to the Worn-Out Ministers' and Ministers' Widows' Auxiliary Fund.—(1) The Conference adopts the following scale of Contributions based on the stipends of Ministers.

Stipends of over	£400	to contribute	£4 4*s*.
,,	of £360 to £400	to contribute	£3 3*s*.
,,	,, £320 to £359	to contribute	£2 2*s*.
,,	,, £280 to £319	,, ,,	£1 15*s*.
,,	,, £240 to £279	,, ,,	£1 10*s*.
,,	,, £200 to £239	,, ,,	£1 5*s*.
,,	less than £200	to contribute	15*s*.

(2) The Conference directs that Superintendents of Circuits collect the Contributions of their Colleagues and forward them to the Secretary of the Fund, Rev. MARSHALL HARTLEY, 1 *Central Buildings, Westminster, S.W.*1, not later than December 1 in each year.

Revision of Catechism.—1. The Conference receives the Report of the Committee.

2. The Conference provisionally approves the Draft of the Catechism, as presented. In view of the great importance of the subject and the desirability of giving further consideration to the question, the Conference appoints an enlarged Committee to sit during the year.

3. The Conference directs that the Draft Catechism shall be available for all Ministers in Full Work. Suggestions may be sent to the Convener not later than December 31, 1923.

4. The Conference directs the Committee in the next revision to print the Ten Commandments in the full and in the abbreviated forms.

5. The Conference agrees that an edition of the Catechism shall be available for use during the year in Sunday Schools and other young people's gatherings. It is clearly understood that this edition is not issued with the authority of the Conference.

6. The following is the enlarged Committee: The Tutors in Theology, together with the Revs. Frederick H. Benson, B.A., Thomas H. Barratt, B.A., Arthur B. Bateman, Frank Ballard, M.A., D.D., J. Williams Butcher, W. Theophilus Davison, M.A., D.D., J. Scott Lidgett, M.A., D.D., W. Russell Maltby, H. Arnaud Scott, Alfred J. G. Seaton, B.D., Sherwin Smith, M.A., B.D., John Telford, B.A., Edgar W. Thompson, M.A.

Rev. J. WILLIAMS BUTCHER is the Convener.

Conference Procedure.—The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Special Committee as amended by the Representative Session. (Minutes, 1923, p. 88.)

Candidates for the Ministry (July Literary Examination).—The Conference appoints the following Committee to consider the form and conditions of the July Literary Examination for Candidates for the Ministry and to report to the next Conference: Revs. William T. A. Barber, M.A., D.D., William F. Lofthouse, M.A., D.D., Wilfrid J. Moulton, M.A., B.D., William H. Heap, Robert Bond, W. Bardsley Brash, B.D., B.Litt.

Rev. WILLIAM T. A. BARBER, M.A., D.D., is the Convener.

SECTION V.

STANDING ORDERS.

I. THE CONNEXION.

1. Title of the Connexion.—(1) Having regard to the terms used in our Trust Deeds and other Legal Documents, it is not possible for the Conference to alter the title of the Connexion as it appears on the front page of the Minutes of Conference. The Conference declares, however, that the title hitherto used is not, and never has been, inconsistent with the assertion for "the People called Methodists" of a true and proper position as a Church, with all the authorities, privileges, and responsibilities belonging to the New Testament Church; and in this view of our principles and of the facts of the case, the Conference, so far from discouraging, distinctly approves of the general and popular use of the term, "The Wesleyan Methodist Church." (Summary,* p. 2.)

(2) The Conference directs, particularly in all official documents, that our full and correct title of Wesleyan Methodist shall be used. (Summary, p. 2.)

2. Nomination Committee.—(1) The Nomination Committee shall consist of five ministers and five Laymen, in addition to the President and Secretary of the Conference, with two Secretaries (Ministerial and Lay); and shall meet twice in the year—in May, and immediately before the Conference. Some Representative of each Department shall be present at both these meetings, by arrangement in the Committee of such Department.

(2) The Nominations for the ensuing Conference shall be made by the several Connexional Committees not later than April (with the exception of the Local Preachers', Class Leaders', Auxiliary Fund, Connexional Fund, and the Wesley Deaconess Institute Committees, together with the Wesley Guild Central Council, which shall report not later than July 2); and the Secretaries shall send to the Secretaries of the Nomination Committee, a full fortnight before its first meeting, at least twenty-five printed lists of members so nominated, on which there shall be a record of the attendances of the members during the past year. The names of new members shall be printed in italics, and those of members nominated for re-appointment shall be distinguished by an asterisk.

(3) One-fifth of the Ministers and of the Laymen on each Connexional Committee shall retire annually, and shall not be eligible for re-election, except by a two-thirds majority of those present. The vote shall be taken by ballot after all nominations have been placed before the Committee, first on those who have been proposed for re-nomination, and afterwards on those newly nominated.

(4) The Secretaries of the Nomination Committee shall compile a register of the names of such persons nominated or re-nominated, with a list of all the Connexional Committees on which it is proposed they should serve, and send a copy to each member of the Nomination Committee seven days before its first meeting.

(5) These names shall be considered by the Nomination Committee, which shall have power to make any suggestions they think fit in regard to them. While it is inadvisable to lay down any hard-and-fast limit, it is, as a general rule, undesirable that any person should be nominated for appointment on another Connexional Committee who is already a member of four such Committees.

(6) The suggestions of the Nomination Committee shall be sent to the Secretaries of the Departments concerned, for consideration by their several Committees, and the decision of these Committees in each case shall be reported to the second Meeting of the Nomination Committee, which shall make such changes as appear desirable and report to the Conference.

(7) Members of Connexional Committees elected by the Synods, other than Chairmen of Districts, shall not be elected for more than three years in succession, except by a two-thirds majority of those present, the vote to be taken by ballot. These elections shall take place at the May Synod, and the names shall be forwarded at once to the Secretaries of the Nomination Committee.

(8) The following are the committees within the scope of the Nomination Committee, Sub-Committees and Committees purely local being excluded :—

Ordinary Committee of Privileges.
Foreign Missions.
Ministers' Children.
Chapel Affairs.
Home Mission.
Connexional Fund.
Auxiliary Fund.
Theological Institution.
Education.
Sunday School Department.
Wesley Guild.
National Children's Home and Orphanage.
Necessitous Local Preachers.
Local Preachers.
Class Leaders.
Wesley Deaconess Institute.
Temperance and Social Welfare Department.

(Summary, pp. 567–9.)

3. Lists of Committees to Appear in the Conference Agenda.—All Lists of Committees which are to be considered by the Nomination Committee shall, as far as possible, be printed in the Agenda for the Conference; the names of new members being printed in italics, and those of members nominated for re-appointment by a two-thirds majority by ballot being distinguished by an asterisk; care being taken to give the Christian name and address of each Layman. (Summary, p. 570.)

4. New Members of Connexional Committees.—The Secretaries of Departments shall inform all new members, Ministerial and Lay, of their appointment upon Connexional Committees. (Summary, p. 570.)

5. Postal Addresses of Lay Members of Connexional Committees.—A complete list of the Lay members of each Connexional Committee, with their postal addresses, shall be handed to the Secretary of the Conference for insertion in the Minutes. (Summary, p. 570.)

6. Custody of Connexional Documents.—In addition to the Journals and Daily Records of the Conference, the Reports of Committees meeting during the Conference, and the Resolutions of Conference thereon, and the Minutes of the several District Synods, which are kept at the Conference Office, the following Documents shall also be preserved: (1) The printed Agenda of the Conference; (2) The Minutes of the Committee on Memorials and Suggestions for the current and preceding year, with the Documents laid before that Committee, and the Resolutions of the Conference thereon; (3) Any legal opinion obtained by the direction of the Conference; (4) A Record of all Legacies left to Connexional Funds; with any other Documents which the Conference may hereafter direct to be preserved. (Summary, pp. 583–4.)

1. THE CONFERENCE.

7. Conference Towns.—Subject to local convenience, the rotation of Conferences shall be as follows: London, Burslem, Newcastle-on-Tyne, Manchester, Camborne, Sheffield, Bristol, Nottingham, London, York, Lincoln, Bradford, Cardiff, Liverpool, Plymouth, Leeds, Birmingham, Hull, Middlesbrough. (Summary, pp. 564–5.)

8.—Conference Tribune and Platform.—The Conference directs that a small rostrum or tribune shall be placed, when necessary, in front of the platform, from which those who desire to address the Conference may speak. The Conference also directs that the platform be brought within as small a compass as possible. (Summary, p. 541.)

9. Questions in Representative Session.—The Conference having approved of a system of Questions and Answers similar to that adopted in the House of Commons, by which Members of the Representative Session may submit Questions to be answered in Conference without debate (Minutes, 1918, p. 84), the Conference adopts the following as its method of procedure :

1. Any Member of the Conference has the right to address a question to any Treasurer or Secretary of a Department or Connexional Committee, being also a Member of the Conference, about the affairs with which he is officially connected or upon any matter of administration for which his Committee shall be responsible. The proper object of such a question is to obtain information on a matter of fact within the special cognisance of that Representative of Department or Committee. The rules and practice of the Conference shall limit the right to ask questions so as to confine them to this object.

2. Notice of such question must be given in writing to the Secretary of the Conference before the 16th day of June. The Secretary of the Conference shall be the judge of the propriety or admissibility of a question, and disallow any question when, in his opinion, it is an abuse of the right of questioning. For instance, a question may be disallowed on the ground of unreasonable length, impropriety of expression, or the like.

3. The Secretary of the Conference shall at once transmit the question to the person concerned, so that he may have time to prepare his answer and return it not later than the 30th day of June to the Secretary of the Conference.

4. These questions and answers shall be printed under the direction of the Assistant Secretary of the Conference, who is responsible for the publication of the Agenda, and the questionnaire shall be forwarded with the Agenda to each member of the Conference.

5. The Secretary of the Conference shall present the questionnaire as the first order of the day after the President's Induction on the first morning of the Conference. He shall call the numbers of the question in turn as printed. A period of three-quarters of an hour shall be set apart for this business.

6. During that period supplementary questions for elucidation may be asked within limits to be determined by the President, but no debate shall be allowed to arise therefrom.

7. The right to ask questions shall be governed by the following Rules :

(1) A question must not publish any name or statement not strictly necessary to make the question intelligible.

(2) If a question contains a statement the member asking it shall make himself responsible for the accuracy of the statement.

(3) A question must not contain any argument, inference, imputation, epithet, or ironical expression.

(4) A question must not be asked about proceedings in a Committee which have not been placed before the Conference by a report from the Committee.

(5) A question must not ask for an expression of opinion or for the solution of an abstract legal question, or of a hypothetical proposition.

(6) A question fully answered must not be asked again. (Minutes, 1919, p. 86.)

10. Conference Plan.—The Superintendents of those Circuits in which the Conference may, from year to year, assemble, shall, with the previous approbation of the President, complete and print, not later than June 24 in each year, a Plan of the order of preaching in the principal Chapels during the Session of the Conference; and shall also, on or before the above date, send to every person whom they have appointed to preach in those Chapels a copy of the Conference Plan.

Every Minister so appointed is responsible to the Conference for the fulfilment of his appointment. (Summary, pp. 540–41.)

11. Vacancies among Lay Members Elected by the Conference.—(1) If any Treasurer of a Connexional Fund be unable to attend the Conference, the Committee of the Fund in question shall, at its last meeting previous to the Conference, elect one of its Lay Members to represent the Fund at that Conference, in the place of the Treasurer.

(2) In the event of one or more of the Forty-eight Laymen elected by previous Conferences being unable to attend the Conference, he or they shall inform the President at least one week before the date fixed for the commencement of the Representative Session. The President shall furnish the information to the Secretaries of the Nomination Committee, and the Committee shall nominate a person or persons to fill the vacancies thus created; such nominations being submitted to the Conference at the commencement of the Representative Session, which shall be requested to elect the person or persons so nominated.

(3) In the event of the death or unavoidable absence of a Connexional Treasurer for whom no substitute has been appointed by the Committee in question, nominations shall be made in the same way.

(4) In the event of a vacancy arising by appointment to a Connexional Treasurership, or by death, nominations shall be made in the same way; and the person elected shall, as regards retirement and re-election, be subject to the rules applying to the person whose place he takes. (Summary, pp. 556–7.)

(5) The Conference directs that in future the Lists of Districts from which no Representatives have been elected by the Conference for the preceding three years shall be printed upon the Conference Voting Paper as well as read from the platform. (Summary, ADDITIONAL LEGISLATION, 1915, p. 8; Journal, 1919.)

12. Representation of Women's Auxiliary in Conference.—Inasmuch as the Committee of the Women's Auxiliary of the Wesleyan Methodist Missionary Society is hereafter to be appointed by the Conference, provision shall be made for the presentation of their Annual Report to the Conference by a member of the Auxiliary, elected for this purpose by the Committee of the Auxiliary, who shall be included in the number of those allocated to the Representative Session. (Minutes, 1916, p. 117.)

The Conference resolves that it be an instruction to the Allocation Committee that the reduction of one in the number of Representatives, as arranged for in the above Resolution, should be made in turn from the larger Districts only. (Daily Record, 1916, p. 50; Summary, ADDITIONAL LEGISLATION, 1916, p. 5.)

13. Daily Sessions of the Conference.—With a view to facilitating the despatch of business, there shall be two Sessions daily, and if necessary an Evening Session on each day of the Representative week. (Summary, p. 564.)

14. Open Session of Conference.—(1) An Open Session for the reception of Representatives from other Conferences shall be held on the Monday afternoon of the Representative Session.

(2) Arrangements shall be made to secure that Representatives from the General Conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church, the Methodist Episcopal Church South, the Methodist Church in Canada, and the Australasian Methodist Church, which Conferences meet once in four years, shall, if possible, be so appointed that every year one Representative from one of the above-mentioned Conferences shall be present and be heard.

(3) A Representative from the French Conference, and one from the South African Conference, shall be heard on alternate years; a Representative from the Irish Conference every year, and one from the General Conference of New Zealand when appointed.

(4) Representatives appointed by this Conference to other Conferences shall be heard at the Conference following their return home.

(5) Other accredited visitors, including those from the Annual Conferences of America and Australasia, shall be introduced to the Conference, but no provision can be made for them to address it.

(6) The Conference appoints a Correspondent whose duty it shall be, under the direction of the Secretary of the Conference, to see that the various Conferences are advised as to the years when Representatives are looked for, that the names of those appointed are duly known, that our own Conference Arrangements Committees are advised as to the hospitality and appointments on the Conference Plan, and that Representatives are clearly informed as to the date of the Open Session and of any pulpit appointment, and are personally welcomed on their arrival. (Summary, pp. 597–8.)

15. Deputations to Conference from Other Churches.—These

Deputations shall be received on the Monday morning of the Representative Session. (Minutes, 1923, p. 88.)

16. Conference Sacramental Service.—The Conference Sacramental Service shall be held on the second morning of the Representative Session, in a Chapel other than the Conference Chapel, in lieu of the ordinary devotional exercises, and shall be followed by a Conversation on the State of the Work of God. (Summary, p. 594.)

17. Scrutineers of Votes.—(1) At each Conference, in the Pastoral Session, a Convener of Scrutineers shall be appointed to take charge of the voting for the Legal Conference, and for the offices of President and Secretary, at the succeeding Conference; and such Convener shall be an ex-officio member of the Pastoral and Representative Sessions of the Conference for which he is elected.

(2) The Committee of Scrutineers, annually appointed, shall consist of not less than twenty, and shall make all arrangements for the collecting and counting of votes. (Summary, pp. 652–3.)

18. Elections to the Legal Conference.—(1) All vacancies in the Legal Conference caused by death, or by absence for two consecutive years without a dispensation, shall be declared at the first meeting of the Conference in its REPRESENTATIVE SESSION, and such vacancies shall be filled by election by the Legal Conference only, from a list of eight names of Ministers nominated by the Pastoral Session of the previous Conference.

(2) The declaration of vacancies caused by Superannuation shall be deferred until the first meeting of the Conference in its PASTORAL SESSION, and such vacancies shall then be filled by Election by the Legal Conference after separate nomination by the Conference for each vacancy.

(3) In regard to these vacancies it shall be an honourable understanding that any Minister elected into the Legal "Hundred" from the time at which these regulations come into force shall, on becoming a Supernumerary, resign his position in the "Hundred," and the Legal Conference shall formally declare by a separate vote that

(a) certain Ministers, having been Supernumeraries for two years, and not having been Presidents of the Conference,

(b) and certain other Ministers having resigned their position in the "Hundred" on becoming Supernumeraries, now cease to be members of the Legal Conference, and that their places have to be filled.

(4) All ministers in Full Connexion permitted to attend the Conference, and being present in its Pastoral Session, shall have the right of nominating, by ballot, any Preacher whose name has been proposed to the Conference on that occasion for admission into the number of the Legal "Hundred"; and the Legal "Hundred" shall be requested in such cases to elect the person so nominated as a member of the Legal Conference. No person shall be so elected who has not travelled at least one year in Full Connexion.

(5) Immediately the vacancies have been filled a further vote shall take place by ballot, from the remaining names of those openly proposed, to form the List of eight names to be sent forward to the next Conference. The names of those thus openly proposed, but not chosen to fill immediate vacancies, shall be read to the Conference. It shall still be open to the Conference to propose additional names. Each Minister in Full Connexion present at the Conference shall be entitled to vote for eight of these proposed persons and no more. One vote only shall be given to one name. The eight names receiving the highest number of votes shall be those sent forward, in the order of the number of votes received. (Minutes, 1922, pp. 263–8; 1923, p. 275.)

(6) Should the Conference, during its sittings, expel any Member of the Legal "Hundred," another Minister to supply his place shall be immediately elected, after nomination in the usual form. (Minutes, 1916, p. 657, section 5.)

19. Nomination of the President and Secretary of the Conference.—The Conference resolves that in the nomination of the President of the Conference the Minister nominated shall have a clear majority of the total number of votes cast; and when such majority is not obtained on the first ballot, a second, and, if necessary, a third ballot shall be taken on the names on the list which have the largest number of votes.

This shall also apply to the nomination of the Secretary of the Conference. (Minutes, 1917, p. 376.)

20. Election of Chairmen of Districts.—In the appointment of Chairmen, the Minister elected shall have a clear majority of the total number of votes cast, and according to the Standing Order relating to elections to Departmental Offices. (See Standing Order 38.)

N.B.—In the case of the Welsh-speaking Districts, the Pastoral Session of the Welsh Assembly is authorised to nominate to the Conference such brethren as it considers should be appointed to the Chair of these Districts. (Summary, ADDITIONAL LEGISLATION, 1916, p. 4.)

21. Election of Secretaries of the District Synods.—The title "Financial Secretary" is discontinued, and the "Secretary of the District Synod" shall be elected year by year by the Conference on the nomination of the Chairman of the District; and he shall be ex-officio the Secretary of both the September and the May Synods. (Summary, ADDITIONAL LEGISLATION, 1916, p. 7.)

22. The Pastoral Session and Press Reporting.—The Conference instructs the Conference Arrangements Committee to appoint some competent Minister to report the proceedings of the Pastoral Session and furnish a daily report to the Press, such Minister to be personally responsible for the information given, as is the case with the other ministerial newspaper reporters in the Conference. The Conference Arrangements Committee is to be entirely responsible for the remuneration and the conditions of the appointment.

It is understood that these arrangements shall not prevent the publication in the Press of such additional descriptive articles by Ministers as may be arranged between newspapers and members of the Pastoral Session. (Minutes, 1922, p. 272.)

23. Chairman of Memorials Committee.—The Ex-President, year by year, shall be the ex-officio Chairman of the Committee on Memorials and Suggestions. (Summary, p. 566.)

24. Obituaries of Deceased Ministers.—(1) Secretaries of District Synods are directed to forward copies of the Obituaries of Deceased Ministers to the Convener of the Committee on Obituaries, immediately after the Annual Meeting of the Synod. (Summary, pp. 457–8.)

(2) The Obituaries of deceased Ministers received by the District Synods shall be revised by a Special Committee, to be appointed at the preceding Conference.

(3) The Obituaries thus revised shall be printed for the use of the Conference, under the direction of the Special Committee.

(4) The Obituaries of Ministers who have died since the May District Synods shall be revised by the Special Committee, and, if possible, be printed and presented to the Conference at the same time as those which have been submitted to the District Synods. (Summary, p. 648.)

25. Memorial Service for Deceased Ministers.—(1) The official reading of Obituaries in the Conference shall be discontinued; and the list of the names of deceased Ministers shall be read by the Secretary of the Conference.

(2) The consideration of Obituaries shall be regarded and observed as a strictly religious service; and, whilst this solemn business is being transacted, no Committees of the Conference shall meet.

(3) The Conference shall, as a rule, hold the Memorial Service on the Tuesday Evening of the third week of its Sessions. (Summary, p. 648.)

26. Signing of Journal of Irish Conference.—To avoid the difficulty that might arise in the signing of the Journal of the Irish Conference, in the event of the death of the Vice-President of the Irish Conference and the absence of all the Delegates from the British Conference, the name of the surviving Ex-Vice-President shall be added to the other names in the delegation. (Summary, p. 651.)

27. New Legislation in Relation to the Foreign Stations.—Foreign Districts shall be informed of all new legislation adopted by Conference, but such legislation shall only become operative in those

Districts where the Synods themselves desire, unless in any instance Conference shall itself otherwise determine. (Summary, ADDITIONAL LEGISLATION, 1916, p. 1.)

2. THE STATIONING COMMITTEE.

28. Election of Representative to Stationing Committee in District Synod.—The Minister who shall be the Representative of any District to the Stationing Committee shall be chosen at the September Synod by the united votes of the Ministers in Full Connexion and Laymen who are members of the District Synod. (Summary, pp. 513, 541–2.)

29. Preparations for the Stationing Committee.—(1) The Secretary of the Conference shall, early in October of each year, supply every Representative of a District with a Schedule on which he shall be required to enter the names of all Ministers in the District removing at the ensuing Conference, and for whom no provisional arrangement has been made; also the Circuits in which there is any vacancy not provisionally supplied. The Secretary of the Conference shall then forward to every Representative a complete list compiled from the information received. (Summary, ADDITIONAL LEGISLATION, 1915, pp. 7–8.)

N.B.—This List shall be supplied also to any Minister or Circuit Steward concerned who may apply for same; and, if necessary, an additional List shall be supplied in February.

(2) Not later than the first week in May, each Representative shall be furnished by the Secretary of the Conference with a list of all Ministers for whom arrangements have not been made, and of all Circuits in like case; the information necessary to compile this list being sent by the Representative to the Secretary of the Conference not later than April 20; such lists to contain complete information, and to be regarded as private and confidential.

(3) The Representative of each District shall send to the Secretary of the Conference, not later than June 1 in each year, upon a prepared Schedule, complete lists of:—

(a) The invitations accepted by Ministers in his District;

(b) The arrangements provisionally made for the appointment of Ministers to Circuits in his District; and (c) All Ministers in his District for whom no arrangement has been made.

(d) All Ministers for whom an extended appointment is requested.

(4) A list of all Ministers to be transferred from the Foreign to the Home Stations shall, at the same time, be furnished by the Missionary Secretaries to the Secretary of the Conference.

(5) From these lists the Secretary of the Conference shall compile, and cause to be printed in a convenient form for use in the Stationing Committee, a Preliminary Draft of Stations embodying all arrangements thus provisionally made; and also a separate list of all Ministers for whom provisional arrangements have not been made; and a copy of these shall be furnished to each member of the Stationing Committee, in London, on the Monday before the meeting of that Committee. (Summary, pp. 543–4.)

30. Regulations Concerning the Stationing Committee.

(1) The Stationing Committee shall, from year to year, hold its first Session in London.

(2) The appointments made shall not be printed day by day.

(3) The Stations shall be printed in the Conference Town.

(4) The First Draft of Stations shall be an absolutely confidential document until the Representatives' Copies are ready for the post.

(5) Should any Minister be officially reported as under discipline and suspended until the Conference, his name shall not appear on the First Draft of Stations.

(6) Probationers on the List of Reserve, and Students leaving the Institution, who are eligible for appointment, shall be entitled to a copy of the First and of the Final Draft of Stations.

(7) Each Representative shall send to the Secretary of the "Conference Arrangements Committee" two sets of addressed wrappers for the First Draft and the Final Draft respectively, for the Ministers and Circuit Stewards in his District, and for six other Laymen—members of the District Synod; the cost of which shall be refunded by the "Conference Arrangements Committee." (Summary, pp. 545–6.)

31. The President and Secretary and the Stationing Committee.—(1) As the President and Secretary for the time being are ex officio members of the Stationing Committee, they shall in future attend it only in their public and official character as persons especially charged with the general interests of the whole Connexion; and neither of them shall be considered eligible to be sent by any particular District as its local Representative.

(2) The President and Secretary of the preceding Conference, having attended the meetings of the Stationing Committee at their commencement, shall continue to be official Members of it during the whole of its sittings for that year; even when it may be necessary for the completion of its business, that it should occasionally assemble after the election of the new President or Secretary shall have taken place. (Summary, p. 542.)

32. Names of Ministers Appointed to Districts on First Draft of Stations.—The Conference resolves that the names of Ministers who are appointed to Districts and not to Circuits shall appear on the First Draft of Stations thus: "A.B., whose name is submitted to the Conference for re-appointment as Chairman of the District." (Minutes, 1922, p. 273.)

33. Ministers for whom no Circuit can be found by the Stationing Committee.—The name of any Minister for whom no Circuit can be found by the Stationing Committee shall be omitted from the First Draft of Stations, a report being presented by the Stationing Committee to the Conference, as to the reasons for such action. The Conference shall in all such cases, on the first day of the Pastoral Session, appoint a Special Committee to consider and report to the Conference. Notification of the action of the Stationing Committee shall be given to the Minister for whom no Circuit can be found, and the regulation of the Conference relating to the right of appeal in such cases shall be observed. (Summary, pp. 545–6.)

34. Extra Sitting of the Stationing Committee.—After the first reading of the Stations, the Committee shall, when it is deemed expedient, retire for the further consideration of the Stations. (Summary, p. 545.)

35. Reading of Stations in the Conference.—(1) The Stations shall be presented twice in the Conference, for a First and a Final Reading.

(2) In the First Reading of the Stations, the names of the Ministers shall not be read out one by one, but the Secretary shall call the names of the Circuits, and any member of the Conference shall be at liberty to question, or raise a discussion upon, any proposed appointment. In the Final Reading, the usage shall be observed of making changes only when all parties are agreed. (Summary, p. 549.)

3. DEPARTMENTS.

36. Nomination of Ministers for Designation or Appointment to Departmental Offices.—(1) Twelve months before the end of any term of Departmental Office, the Committee in charge of the Department shall submit to the Representative Session of the Conference the name or names of one or more Ministers, not exceeding three, in nomination for that office ; of whom the Officer for the time being may, or may not, be one. (Summary, pp. 392–3.)

(2) On any vacancy or vacancies arising in any Departmental Offices by death, retirement, expiration of term, or otherwise, the General Committee of the Department shall prepare a report concerning such vacancy or vacancies. This report shall contain a reasoned statement as to the particular features of the appointment which has to be made.

(3) The Committee may also submit the name of one or more Ministers, not exceeding three, whom it deems suitable for the vacancy.

(4) The Committee of any Department in which a vacancy occurs shall, prior to making any report or suggestion, appoint a Sub-Committee, which shall carefully consider the whole matter and advise the General Committee respecting it. In the case of the Theological Institution, the Local Committee may report and recommend names to the General Institution Committee as they do at present. (Summary, pp. 393–4.)

(5) On the presentation of the names by the Committee of the Department for designation or appointment, the Conference, in its Representative Session, shall retain the right to add other names, and shall in that case take at least one ballot, and then if an absolute majority has been secured, and the Conference thinks fit, it may by open vote pass on the result of the first ballot to the Pastoral Session, it being necessary that three names should be sent forward to that Session. (Summary, p. 394.)

(6) The above was modified by the Conference of 1913:

(a) After the first vote has been taken it shall be open to any member of the Representative Session to move that the Standing Order which requires three names to be submitted to the Pastoral Session for designation or appointment to Departmental Offices be suspended in a particular case.

(b) Should the motion for suspension of the Standing Order be carried in full Conference by a two-thirds majority, the Representative Session may submit either one name or two as may be deemed expedient. In all such cases the Pastoral Session shall have the right to nominate an additional name, or if need be, two additional names to bring the number up to three, before proceeding to the ballot.

(c) The Nominee or Nominees of the Representative Session must always be included in the three on which the final ballot is taken, should the Pastoral Session decide in any given case to increase the number of Nominees. (Summary, pp. 394–5.)

(7) This was further modified by the Conference of 1915:

When only one name is nominated in the Representative Session, it shall be unnecessary to vote by ballot, but the nomination may by open vote be passed on to the Pastoral Session. (Summary, ADDITIONAL LEGISLATION, 1915, p. 4.)

37. Appointments to New Departments.—In future no Minister shall be set apart for the work of a new Department without the question of such an appointment having been referred to the Synods for their judgment. (Summary, p. 392.)

38. New Appointments to Departmental Offices.—In any new appointment to a Departmental Office, the Minister elected shall have a clear majority of the total number of votes cast; and when such majority is not obtained on the first ballot, a second ballot shall be taken on the first two—or, if necessary, the first three names on the list which have the largest number of votes. (Summary, pp. 605–6.)

39. Re-appointments to Departments.—(1) Appointments to Departmental Offices shall be in the first instance, as now, for a period not exceeding six years, but all re-appointments in the future shall be for three years only, and when any re-appointment is made, the number of votes cast in each case shall be reported. (Summary, p. 395.)

(2) In all cases in which a Minister has served a term in a Connexional Office, if he be proposed for re-election, special reasons shall be assigned to the Conference as in the case of a Minister whom it is desired to retain in a Circuit beyond a period of three years. (Summary, p. 392.)

(3) The Conference resolves that every Minister elected to service in our Departmental Offices and our Colleges shall return to circuit work at the end of six years, unless the Conference sees fit, under special circumstances, to re-elect to such office by a two-thirds majority of the votes cast.

Further, in order to bring the procedure of both Sessions of the Conference into harmony, the Pastoral Session respectfully asks the Representative Session of the next Conference favourably to consider the same rules when making nominations for re-election. (Minutes, 1919, p. 273.)

(4) Subject to the foregoing Regulations, the Conference is at liberty to renew the re-appointment to departmental offices as often as it shall deem necessary. (Summary, p. 395.)

40. Postponement of Nomination to Departments.—If any question seriously affecting ministerial character or fidelity should be raised upon a proposed name in the Representative Session of the Conference, the nominations for designation for appointment to the office in question shall be postponed without discussion to the Representative Session of the following Conference, when the nominations shall be made under the regulations affecting nominations in cases of emergency for immediate appointment. By this arrangement the objection would be considered and decided by the Pastoral Session of the Conference in the Representative Session of which it has been raised. (Summary, p. 393.)

41. Emergency Appointments to Departments.—(1) In any case of emergency which arises during the Representative Session involving immediate appointment, the Conference shall determine its own method of procedure, but in each case three names shall be sent forward to the Pastoral Session.

(2) In any case of emergency which arises after the close of the Representative Session, the Pastoral Session shall have the right to appoint without a previous nomination. (Summary, pp. 604–5.)

42. Ministers appointed to Act under the Direction of a Departmental Committee.—Ministers appointed to act under the direction of a Departmental Committee shall, if re-appointment be desired by the Committee, be annually invited by that Committee and dealt with by the Conference as in the case of Ministers in Circuits and Missions. (Summary, p. 396.)

43. Schedules from Departments.—As it is obviously desirable that the Committees appointed by the Conference to manage the several Departments of the business of the Connexion, in the intervals of its Sessions, should be furnished with all necessary statistical information on the matters of business severally confided to their care, the Conference authorises them, through their appointed Officers, to send, when they deem it expedient, suitable Circulars and Schedules to the Superintendents, or to the Chairmen of Districts, as the case may require; and directs the Superintendents and Chairmen duly to return such Schedules properly filled up. (Summary, pp. 137–8.)

44. Army and Navy Reports and Returns to District Synods.—(1) All Ministers working for the benefit of Soldiers and Sailors in Stations where Methodist Homes already exist, or shall be established, shall include in their quarterly Reports an account of the work done in the Homes; and at the May Synods the financial condition of such Homes shall be reported, as in the case of other Trust properties.

(2) The following information shall be presented from each of our Military and Naval Stations to the May Synods; together with a Report of the work done for the benefit of our Soldiers and Sailors.

(i) The number of declared Methodists in the Army and Royal Navy, including the Coastguard, taken for December 31 of each year.

(ii) The number of Members of Society in the Army and Royal Navy, including the wives and children of Soldiers and Seamen.

(iii) The average attendance at divine service during the year.

(iv) The amount of capitation and other official payments for the year.

In the case of Home Stations, these Reports and Returns shall be submitted to the District Home Mission and Chapel Committee, which shall present them, with needful remarks thereupon, to the Synod. (Summary, p. 390.)

45. Army and Navy Ministers in relation to Circuit Work.—Ministers who are appointed to Army and Navy Work are not to be considered as Ministers of the Circuit in which they may be stationed, so as to be claimed for Circuit work, unless special arrangements be made with the Army and Navy Board. After their proper work has been efficiently done, they may give such help to the Circuit as they can, but only by arrangement in writing between the Superintendent of the Circuit and the Army and Navy Board. Their personal conduct is to be under the cognisance of the Superintendent of the Circuit and the District Synod, subject to the beforementioned conditions. (Summary, p. 391.)

46. Army and Navy Capitation Payments and Pastoral Duties.—Wherever capitation payments are received on behalf of our Methodist Soldiers and Seamen, the pastoral duties which are entailed thereby shall be strictly fulfilled, and every facility and encouragement given to the men, their wives and families to become attached to the services of the chapels in which, by these payments, they are now seatholders. (Summary, p. 391.)

47. Army and Navy Garrison and Naval Ports in Foreign Districts.—The Chairmen and Superintendents of our Foreign Mission Districts and Stations where there are Garrison and Naval Ports are instructed to make arrangements with the Naval and Military Authorities as may be necessary for the benefit of Methodist Soldiers and Seamen, in concert with the Army and Navy Board. (Summary, pp. 389–90.)

48. Army and Navy Board and Soldiers' and Sailors' Homes.—In addition to the Connexional sanction already required by our rules before any property can be acquired for Methodist purposes, Ministers or other persons connected with our Societies contemplating the erection or acquisition of a Soldiers' or Sailors' Home shall communicate with the Army and Navy Board; and no binding arrangements shall be entered into until the written consent of the Home Mission Committee and of the Foreign Missionary Committee respectively shall have been received. (Summary, pp. 390–1.)

4. MINISTERS, STUDENTS, AND CANDIDATES.

49. Conditions regarding Ministers becoming Supernumeraries.—(1) The Conference records its judgment that, since the accuracy of the forecast made by the Committee of the Auxiliary Fund depends on the assumption that the average duration of Active Service and of Supernumeraryship remain as at present (thirty-eight years in the one case and eleven years in the other), no claim for grant should ordinarily arise until thirty-four years after ordination unless the claimant is medically certified as unable to continue to discharge his work efficiently, or unless the Conference shall in any particular case otherwise direct. The number of years each Minister has travelled when he applies to become a Supernumerary shall be presented in the Conference Agenda. (Summary, pp. 371–2.)

(2) When any Minister who has not rendered forty years' service applies to become a Supernumerary, he shall present a medical certificate of unfitness for the Full Work of the Ministry. (Summary, Additional Legislation, 1916, p. 6.)

50. Temporary Supernumeraryship in Relation to the Legal Conference.—In the case of a member of the Legal Conference who has been permitted to retire for one or for two years, he shall not thereby cease to be a member of the Legal Conference provided he then (that is to say, at the end of the first or second year) returns to the full work; and he shall remain a member of the Legal Conference for two years after becoming a Supernumerary permanently. (Summary, p. 626.)

51. Junior Ministers becoming Supernumeraries for One Year.—(1) Ministers who have travelled not more than twenty-one years and have lost their health, may be allowed to retire for one year, and may, if in necessitous circumstances, receive in addition to the Allowances payable from the Annuitant Society and the Connexional Funds, a sum not exceeding £80; of which one-half shall be provided by the Connexional Fund, the other half being paid by the Auxiliary Fund.

(2) Each case shall be considered by a Mixed Committee of seven members, who shall be appointed by the Conference; namely, the Ex-President, three Ministers, and three Laymen.

(3) Should the Conference deem it indispensable, a second year's Grant may be allowed. (Summary, p. 373.)

52. Compulsory Supernumeraryship: Financial Arrangements.—(1) When the Conference has decided that a Minister shall not be appointed to a Circuit for any other reason than physical incompetence, his case shall be considered by a Special Committee, to be appointed by the Conference in its Representative Session. This Committee shall determine whether any, and if any what, annual allowances shall be paid to him; or whether any, and if any what, sums shall be offered to him on condition of his retirement from the Ministry. The Committee shall further advise the Conference as to the sources whence such payments shall be made in each case.

(2) Representatives of the following Funds shall be among the persons appointed on the Committee: The Auxiliary Fund, Connexional Fund, and Children's Fund.

(3) The Members of the Annuitant Society shall be asked to treat Ministers who may retire from the Ministry under these arrangements, in the matter of compensation, as though they had resigned. (Summary, p. 374.)

53. Compulsory Supernumeraryship in Relation to the District Synod.—In the case of any Minister who has been made a Supernumerary on the ground of either (a) discipline or (b) difficulty in finding him a Circuit, no District Synod shall recommend his reappointment unless some Circuit in that District is willing to receive him, or he shall have received an invitation to a Circuit in another District; and no such Minister shall be re-appointed to a Circuit unless recommended by the District Synod to which he belongs. (Summary, p. 375.)

54. Supernumeraries or other Ministers Resident Abroad.—(1) No Minister is allowed to be absent from the country during a great part of the year without the consent of the Yearly Conference, or, in the case of emergency, of the President, who shall report the case to the ensuing Conference.

(2) Any Minister having permission to reside abroad shall have such permission annually renewed.

(3) If any Minister remain abroad for more than one year, he shall be required either to make arrangements with the officers of our Connexional Funds, with a view to retiring from the English Work, or to furnish the Conference annually with a satisfactory Report from some other Methodist Conference in recognised relation with this Conference.

(4) If, during his residence abroad, any Minister shall enter into business, or shall accept office or emolument of any kind, he is required, without delay, to notify the fact to the Chairman of the District where his name appears on the Stations.

(5) In all such cases, the existing Rule which requires the presence of a Minister at the Annual District Synod shall be held to be binding unless his absence has been expressly sanctioned in accordance with the foregoing Resolutions; and even in that case he is required to furnish a statement in due time containing an answer to the question in the Order and Form of Business in District Synods as to his continued belief of our doctrines.

(6) Supernumerary Ministers connected with the British Conference, residing in Ireland, shall report to the Irish Synod to which the Circuit in which they reside belongs; and Supernumerary Ministers connected with the Irish Conference, residing in England, shall report to the English Synod to which the Circuit in which they reside belongs. (Summary, p. 381.)

(7) Any Minister having permission to reside abroad shall furnish a Report as to his ministerial conduct from the proper authority, as defined in the above, or in the letter from the President giving the required permission.

(8) A list of all such Ministers shall be annually printed in the Minutes of Conference at the end of the Stations. (Summary, pp. 380–1.)

55. Supernumeraries returning to the Full Work.—The Conference resolves that in all cases where it is recommended that Supernumerary Ministers shall return to the full work, inquiry and report shall be made by the Committee appointed at Conference to examine the cases of those Ministers who have had Supplies during the year. (Summary, p. 381.) See Standing Order 69 (3).

56. Supernumeraries and Business.—The Conference re-affirms that the Regulation respecting Supernumeraries entering into business be suspended for the time being. (Minutes, 1921, p. 256.)

57. Ministers without Pastoral Charge.—(1) Any Minister wishing to maintain his ministerial status whilst holding no definite appointment to a Circuit or a Department, and without becoming a Supernumerary, shall apply for permission through the District Synod to the Conference, which shall decide the cases after full consideration by a Special Committee.

(2) Such Minister shall continue to be in every way subject to our discipline, including the usual inquiries as to character and doctrine.

(3) No such Minister shall receive any payment from any of our Connexional Funds during, or on account of, the years in which he shall occupy the position herein described. (Summary, Additional Legislation, 1915, p. 4.)

(4) The name of every such Minister shall stand upon the Minutes in connection with some Circuit, and following his name shall be these words: "resides in this Circuit without Pastoral Charge."

Nevertheless, he shall not, as a Minister, be a member of the Quarterly Meeting or of any Leaders' Meeting in the Circuit.

(5) In the case of a member of the Legal Conference having been entered on the Minutes as without Pastoral Charge in conformity with the Resolutions of the Conference of 1888, the Conference resolves that, at the expiration of two years from the commencement of such an arrangement, he shall cease to be a member of the Legal Conference. (Minutes, 1922, p. 268.)

(6) The following question shall be inserted in the Order and Form of Business of the Pastoral Session of the Annual District Synod:

> Is there any Minister without Pastoral Charge residing in this District, and, if so, does the Synod recommend that the present arrangement be continued? (Summary, pp. 382–3.)

58. Inquiry into the Character of Ministers and Preachers on Trial.—In response to the inquiry in the Conference, "Is there any objection to any of our Ministers or Preachers on Trial?" the names of the Districts only shall be called, the Chairman of each District then giving the required information. The right to challenge any name, or bring a charge against any Minister, shall not be affected by this Regulation. (Summary, p. 633.)

In the event of any Brother determining to withdraw from the Ministry, he shall be expected in the first instance to intimate his resignation to the President. (Summary, p. 634.)

The Conference re-affirms its decision that subjects discussed in Conference in answer to the question, "Is there any objection to any of our Ministers or Preachers on Trial?" are to be regarded as strictly private and confidential. (Summary, pp. 633–4.)

59. Ministers who have ceased to be Recognised by the Conference.—No Preacher excluded for immorality, or who resigns his connexion with the Conference while under charges which affect his moral character, shall at any subsequent period be allowed to be a Local Preacher, Class-leader, or even a private Member of Society, without the consent of the Conference, previously obtained. (Summary, pp. 634–5.)

60. Committee on Appeals regarding Character and Other Cases.—At the commencement of the Pastoral Session of each Conference a Committee of twenty-one members shall be appointed, to whom shall be referred without discussion:

(1) All cases needing further inquiry, touching the character of Ministers or Probationers, immediately after the reading of the Minutes of District Synods thereupon;

(2) Any Notice of Charge or Appeal relating thereto; or

(3) Any other matter which the Conference may so refer.

Any complainant or appellant, or any person under inquiry, may object to one in three of the members of the said Committee sitting on his case; and some other member of the Conference shall then be appointed to act instead of the member so objected to.

Special cases may, if the Conference so decide, be referred to the whole Committee; but it shall, for ordinary purposes, be divided into three sections, for each of which a Convener shall be appointed, who shall be responsible for preparing the business of the Committee.

No Appeal shall be received after the completion of the year following the Conference immediately succeeding the act of discipline, except by special decision of the Conference. (Summary, p. 630.)

61. Missionaries and Disciplinary Inquiries.—(1) Ministers or Preachers on Trial appointed to any Missionary Station where there is no Annual Synod shall be answerable as to Doctrine and Discipline to the Synod of the First London District.

In cases of Discipline, the Chairman of the Synod shall hold the necessary inquiry by means of the Pastoral Committee of the Missionary Society instead of the usual Minor District Synod. (Summary, ADDITIONAL LEGISLATION, 1915, p. 7; Minutes, 1917, pp. 370 and 384; 1918, p. 250.)

(2) If in the case of a Minister stationed under a Foreign Synod, disciplinary inquiry is called for in regard to conduct alleged to have occurred in Great Britain or Ireland, the Pastoral Committee of the Missionary Society shall be empowered to institute such inquiry and report to the Conference. (Summary, p. 433.)

62. Doctrinal Committee of Appeal.—(1) The usual method of referring a charge to a Committee of Appeal sitting during the Pastoral Session of the Conference not affording sufficient opportunity for consideration in the case of a charge respecting doctrine, the Conference shall annually appoint a Doctrinal Committee of Appeal consisting of the President, Ex-President, and Secretary of the Conference, together with twelve Ministers, four of whom shall retire annually in rotation, and shall not be eligible for immediate re-election. The function of this Committee shall be to consider all charges concerning doctrine arising during the year; its power and procedure shall conform to that of the ordinary Conference Committee of Appeal.

(2) If, and when there is a case to be investigated, the Doctrinal Committee of Appeal shall meet on a date earlier than the Conference, to be fixed by the President.

(3) All charges in respect of doctrine should be preferred as heretofore, either before or at the May Synod. A copy of any such charge, together with the findings of the Synod thereupon, shall be sent to the Convener of the Doctrinal Committee of Appeal, who shall forward particulars of the charge to the members of the Committee as early as possible.

(4) Should the occasion for a new charge arise subsequently to the May Synod, the appellant shall send a written statement of the charge to the President of the Conference as well as to the brother charged, and to the Chairman of the District in which he is stationed. The President shall send a copy of the charge to the Convener of the Doctrinal Committee of Appeal, who shall then act as stated in paragraph 3.

Nothing in these Regulations shall interfere with the right of the accused to demand a Minor Synod, or with the discretion of the Chairman in respect thereto.

(5) In the event of any matter arising at Conference which could not have been dealt with under the foregoing provisions, it shall be remitted to the Doctrinal Committee of Appeal, which shall sit either during the Conference and report forthwith; or in exceptional circumstances, if the Conference so determines, during the ensuing year. In cases in which the Committee shall judge immediate disciplinary action shall be taken, the Committee shall report the fact to the Chairman of the District. (Minutes, 1922, pp. 271–2.)

(6) In any case involving doctrinal beliefs or statements, the Minister concerned shall himself be heard by the Committee, and the findings of the Committee shall be immediately communicated to him. (Daily Record, 1923, pp. 55, 65.)

63. Re-appointment of Ministers to Former Circuits.—The term during which a Minister must be absent from a Circuit in England or Wales, before he can be re-appointed, shall be three years. He may then return, provided that the invitation of the Circuit Quarterly Meeting is substantially unanimous.

N.B—In relation to Scotland, a similar resolution was adopted in 1866. (Summary, p. 168.)

64. Changes of Ministerial Appointments during the Intervals of Conference.—The Conference directs that whenever any change of Preachers which it may be necessary to make in the interval of Conference takes place, such Preacher or Preachers shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the Synod into which he or they may be thus removed. (Summary, p. 450.)

65. Extended Appointments.—(1) The Conference attaches to any extension of the term beyond three years the following safeguards:

(i) That the invitation be given, as our polity requires, from year to year.

(ii) That in no case shall such an extension be made where there is not practical unanimity in regard to it in the Quarterly Meeting or in the Committee to which the power of invitation belongs.

(iii) Each invitation, with a record of the reasons for it, and the vote of the Quarterly Meeting or any Committee acting under the authority of the Conference, shall be reported to the Stationing Committee, which shall meet, if necessary, specially for the purpose; and by the Stationing Committee be reported to the Conference, with a recommendation upon it. (Summary, p. 167.)

(2) Ministers appointed to act under the direction of a Departmental Committee shall, if re-appointment be desired by the Committee, be annually invited by that Committee, and dealt with by the Conference as in the case of Ministers in Circuits and Missions. (Summary, p. 396.)

66. University Degrees.—(1) For the future, no Minister shall be entitled to have his Degree printed in the Minutes until the approval of the Probationers' Oversight and Examination Committee has been obtained.

(2) In the case of every Degree printed in the Minutes, the source of the Degree shall be stated, except in the case of that of Doctor in Divinity received before the Conference of 1895.

(3) Degrees obtained from a Foreign University, by means of Examinations conducted in this country, shall not be printed in the Minutes.

(4) In addition to the statement of the sources of Degrees, the prefix (Hon.) shall be put before all British or Foreign Degrees in Arts, Law, and Science, if they be Honorary.

(5) In future Honorary Degrees shall only be recognised if they proceed from Corporations which have a full University Status.

(6) In view of the extension of University facilities for ad eundem degrees, such degrees shall not in future be printed in the Minutes. (Summary, pp. 548–9.)

67. Ministers under Affiliated Conferences.—(1) British Ministers who have elected to remain in Full Connexion with the Yearly Conference whilst continuing to be employed under an Affiliated Conference must be held to be absolutely subject to the Affiliated Conference in all matters connected with the work and within the limits of that Conference; but the question of their continued connection with the Yearly Conference can be determined only by the vote of the Yearly Conference.

(2) Any British Minister who has elected to enter into Full Connexion with an Affiliated Conference, or who may hereafter so enter, must be regarded as having thereby resigned his connection with the Yearly Conference; and the fact of such resignation shall be entered on the Journal of the Yearly Conference.

(3) Ministers who were not sent out from England, but were taken into the Ministry in the countries now belonging to Affiliated Conferences, and also Native Ministers, are absolutely subject to the jurisdiction of their respective Affiliated Conferences, and have ceased to be in connection with the Yearly Conference.

(4) On the death of any Minister of an Affiliated Conference who had a right of return to this country, an Obituary shall be inserted in the Minutes of the Yearly Conference. (Summary, pp. 641–2.)

68. Native Ministers and Ministers admitted for Service in the Countries Specified.

Courts of Superior Jurisdiction in Foreign Mission Field. —(1) Courts of Superior Jurisdiction shall be constituted in such manner and for such Districts or Groups of Districts as the Conference may from time to time direct.

(2) These Courts shall hear all Appeals from the decisions of the District Synods concerning Discipline.

(3) These Courts shall investigate and decide all questions of fact, and the certified Records of the Courts shall be taken as conclusive evidence of what the facts are: subject always to the right of the Conference, if new and material evidence is produced, to direct a new trial.

(4) The decisions of these Courts as to penalty shall be final, except that:

(i) On questions of judicial procedure, of the interpretation of law, or the definition of Doctrine, an appeal shall lie to the Conference.

(ii) In the case of an ordained Minister a sentence of expulsion, or loss of one or more years in ministerial standing, shall be liable to revision by the Conference.

(iii) Any similar sentence in the case of a Preacher on Trial sent out from England shall be liable to revision by the Conference, but only as affecting his relation to the Home Work.

(5) Provided always:

(i) That no appeal shall be allowed to the Conference, unless the case has first been presented to the Superior Court.

(ii) That in every case in which there is an appeal to the Conference from the decision of the Superior Court or any request for revision by the Conference, it shall be sent to the Secretary of the Conference; but notice thereof shall be given to the Chairman of the Superior Court, and a copy of the appeal or request placed in his hands within six weeks after the decision of the Court. The said copy shall be forthwith forwarded by the Chairman to the General Secretaries of the Missionary Society for the consideration of the Missionary Discipline Committee, and that Committee shall report thereon to the next Conference.

(6) Provided further that every Minister or Preacher on Trial shall be subject to the Provincial and District Synods within the area of whose jurisdiction he is for the time being appointed to labour. (Summary, pp. 522–4.)

COURTS OF SUPERIOR JURISDICTION FOR THE CEYLON, SOUTH INDIA, AND NORTH INDIA PROVINCIAL AREAS shall be constituted as follows:

(1) Each Court shall consist of twenty members, of whom ten shall be Missionaries from England, including Chairmen of Districts ex officio, and ten Ministers accepted for service in Ceylon or India respectively. The members (exclusive of Chairmen of Districts) shall be elected by the several District Synods; and the numbers to be elected by each Synod shall be determined from time to time by the Missionary Committee of Discipline.

(2) All elections shall be by the united votes of the European and other Ministers.

(3) Probationers shall not be eligible as Representatives.

(4) Each Court of Superior Jurisdiction shall elect its own Chairman and Secretary. (Summary, p. 524.)

PROVINCIAL SYNODS.—That, on account of the distances which divide the North India Districts from one another, the wide diversities of the work in the different Districts, and the expense involved in holding the Provincial Synod as at present constituted, the Conference approves of the following alterations in the representation of the Districts:

(a) The Provincial Synod shall consist of the four Chairmen, with four Ministers from England and four accepted for service in India.

(b) When sitting as a Court of Superior Jurisdiction (Discipline) the said Synod shall consist of the four Chairmen, four elected Ministers, and two Ministers—one European and one Indian—to be nominated by the Chairman of the Provincial Synod. (Minutes, 1917, p. 374.)

69. Status of Ministers in the West Indies and other Specified Countries in Relation to the British Conference.—(1) Ministers wishing to be transferred to the work at home shall submit their application to the Committee appointed by the Conference to consider applications from Ministers of other Churches, and shall submit themselves to such examination as that Committee may determine.

(2) The Conference, while not prepared to recognise the claim for Full Status of men who have been received for work in specified countries, nor on the other hand seeking to exclude their applications, deems it undesirable to lay down any general principles in regard to such applications, but recommends that the existing usage of the Conference should be continued and each case considered on its merits.

(3) The following shall be the financial arrangements:

(i) MINISTERS RECEIVED FOR WORK IN INDIA.—Inasmuch as each of these brethren has paid the £160 for the privilege of entering upon a house on returning to this country, it is resolved:

That in the event of such Minister not claiming a house in the Home Work (through death, not returning to this country, or from any other cause), the £160 be returned to him or to his heirs and administrators; and that meanwhile interest at the rate of 2½ per cent. be paid to him annually so long as the £160 is in the hands of the Missionary Society, less any amount which the Society will be charged by any of the Home Funds in excess of what has been received from the Minister in question for that Fund. (Summary, ADDITIONAL LEGISLATION, 1915, p. 5.)

(ii) MINISTERS RECEIVED FOR WORK IN WEST INDIES

To the Home Mission Fund .. £160.
To the Fund for the Maintenance and Education of Ministers' Children, for each child under 18 years of age .. .. £40 for each child.

(The above payments shall be made when the Minister actually returns to a Home Circuit. Whenever his return has been approved by the Committee appointed for this purpose, the money shall be placed in the hands of the Foreign Missionary Society before the case is dealt with by the Pastoral Session of the Conference.)

To the Worn-out Ministers' and Ministers' Widows' Fund, £9 for each year counted upon admission by the Conference.

(This payment to be made by the Foreign Missionary Committee on behalf of the Minister concerned.) (Summary, ADDITIONAL LEGISLATION, 1915, p. 6.)

(4) The Conference further resolves that whenever it is recommended that an Applicant shall receive Full Status the Conference shall adhere to its rule that the Financial Payments shall be paid through the Missionary Committee when the Full Status is granted, and not delayed until the Minister makes application to return to the Home Work.

(5) APPLICATIONS FROM NATIVE MINISTERS who are in Foreign Stations shall under no circumstances be considered.

N.B.—The Conference further resolves that so far as the payments to the Children's Fund are concerned, the Ministers in India and the West Indies shall be placed, if possible, on an equal footing, and that this question shall be referred to the Pastoral Committee already in existence. (Summary, pp. 413–15; Summary, ADDITIONAL LEGISLATION, 1915, p. 6.)

70. Transfers of Ministers from Welsh to English Work.—(1) No transfer of a Minister from the Welsh to the English Districts shall be made until the Home Mission Committee has had the opportunity of considering the case in its financial bearings and has approved the same.

(2) In special cases of application for such transfer the Conference requires: (i) The opinion of the Welsh District Synod concerned and of the Welsh Assembly as to the advisability of the transfer, both upon the ground of personal fitness and also in view of the needs of Welsh Methodism. (ii) The recommendation of the Designation Committee after a personal interview with the applicant for transfer, and also after examination and test of preaching in English. (Summary, p. 646.)

71. Supplies for Ministers.—(1) Any Minister needing a Supply is directed to communicate with the Chairman of the District before applying to the President; and the Chairman is also directed to satisfy himself, by personal inquiry, that an efficient local Supply cannot be obtained.

(2) Any Minister on whose behalf a Supply has been appointed shall retain the Supply for one month after he has given notice to the President that his services will no longer be required—unless the President has employment for him sooner. And such Minister when he gives notice to the President that, after a given date, the services of the Supply will be no longer required, shall, at the same time, notify the fact to the Chairman of the District.

(3) The Ex-President shall furnish to the Conference, at the commencement of the Pastoral Session, a list of all Ministers who have had Supplies during any part of the preceding year, with the dates in each case on which the Supply was sent and withdrawn. And on receiving this list, the Conference shall appoint a Committee to inquire whether these Ministers are physically competent to take Circuits. (Summary, pp. 157, 371.)

72. Payment of Supplies for Ministers.—(1) Every Probationer sent by the President as a Supply shall be paid at the rate of Thirty Guineas a year for the time he is in the Circuit; this allowance being in addition to Board and Lodging. (Summary, pp. 157–8.)

(2) In regard to Travelling Expenses, a Probationer sent to a Circuit as a Supply is dealt with on the same principle as one who is appointed by the Conference to his first Circuit. Once arrived in a Circuit as a Supply, he receives his travelling expenses from that Circuit to another when removed by the President during the year, or by the Conference at the end of the year. (Summary, p. 158.)

(3) In respect of payment, the year of a trained man on the President's List of Reserve, appointed in connection with, or immediately after, the Conference, shall reckon from the first day of September to the last day of August. (Summary, p. 158.)

73. A "Supply" in relation to a Third Year Appointment.—A probationer sent by the President as a Supply is not thereby disqualified for appointment for a third year to the Circuit where he served as a Supply. (Summary, p. 167.)

74. List of Reserve.—(1) The retiring President shall furnish to the Designation Committee a Report as to the health and fitness for our work of those Probationers who have been, during the year, on the List of Reserve; the Committee to report to the Conference. (Summary, pp. 580, 645.)

(2) All applications for the services of Probationers on the List of Reserve shall be forwarded to the President of the Conference not later than July 1 in each year; and a Committee to classify the cases shall meet, when necessary, during the Sessions of each Conference. (Summary, p. 302.)

(3) One of the Missionary Secretaries is authorised to attend the meeting of each Local Discipline Committee of the Theological Institution at which the designation of the students is considered.

(4) Except in special cases, the President's List of Reserve shall consist of men who have been trained in the Theological Institution. (Summary, p. 301.)

75. Students and Probationers.—(1) (a) The interval between the acceptance of the Candidate and his reception into Full Connexion shall normally be Seven Years. This period shall be spent by him partly as a Student at some branch of the Theological Institution (usually for three or four years) and the remainder of the period as a Probationer in Circuit or other Connexional work. (Minutes, 1921, pp. 266–7.)

(b) Where practicable, all Preachers shall have had experience of Circuit work before being received into Full Connexion with the Conference. The Conference recognises that there are special cases in which exception must be made. (Summary, p. 313.)

(c) The Probation is not to be considered as completed until the Probationer is received into Full Connexion with the Conference, and no Preacher on Trial is to marry during his Probation. (Summary, pp. 303–4.)

(d) The Probationary period of a Candidate accepted for Home or Foreign "Immediate" shall be four years.

(e) Candidates for the Ministry who at the beginning of the Connexional year following their acceptance have obtained a Degree at a University in Great Britain or Ireland, or have passed an equivalent examination, shall have the interval of Seven Years reduced to five, provided that the Committee for the Oversight and Examination of Probationers judges that their previous course of study justifies the reduction. (Minutes, 1921, p. 267.)

(f) All the above Regulations are subject to satisfactory yearly Reports both in College (Summary, p. 287) and in the Probationary years in Circuit or other Connexional work. (Summary, p. 312.)

(2) The Representative of each branch of the Institution to the Stationing Committee shall advise as to the appointment to Circuits of Students who have completed their term in the College he represents, and especially as to the appointment of any Student of the first or second year, should it be found necessary to make such an appointment. (Summary, pp. 542–3.)

(3) (a) Before calling out any Student to supply, the President shall consult with the Staff of the College in which the Student resides. (Summary, p. 300.)

(b) Students who have completed their term at the Institution, and were not called out during their third year by the President, and have not received appointments at the Conference, shall be placed on the President's List of Reserve.

(c) Students who have completed their term at the Institution, but were called out during the previous year by the President, yet have not received appointments at the Conference, are under the care and at the cost of the Home Mission Committee.

(d) Students who have completed their term at the Institution, and have been sent by the President as supplies, shall, when their services are no longer required, be placed by the President under the direction of the Home Mission Committee, which shall be responsible for their maintenance; the Committee shall, however, be entitled to a week's notice from the President before such Student receives another appointment. (Summary, pp. 300–1.)

(4) The work and fitness of every Student shall be fully reported upon year by year by a Special Committee of each Branch of the Institution, consisting of the Tutors of that Branch, four other Ministers, and eight Laymen, who shall be chosen by the Local Executive Committee, but shall report to the General Discipline Committee. (Summary, pp. 290–1.)

76. Probationers and Reports concerning General Fitness.—The District Synods shall be required to declare their judgment, year by year, as to the general fitness for our work in all its details of the Preachers on Trial resident in the several Districts. This judgment shall be furnished to the Committee for the Oversight and Examination of Probationers. (Summary, p. 459.)

77. Probationers to be Received into Full Connexion.—(1) Before a Probationer is recommended to be received into Full Connexion, the several reports on his case from his acceptance as a Candidate, or a summary of them, shall be presented to the Synod, together with the judgment upon them of the Committee for the Oversight and Examination of Probationers. This Committee shall have power to recommend to the Synod, either that a Probationer's reception into Full Connexion be deferred, or made conditional upon his satisfying further tests. (Summary, pp. 459–60.)

(2) Before any Preacher, having travelled four years, is recommended by his District Synod for admission into Full Connexion, he shall undergo a careful oral examination, by the Chairman of that Synod, respecting his acquaintance with Wesley's Works in general, and especially with his Sermons and his Notes on the New Testament. This Oral Examination may be omitted when the report on the Probationer's paper on Wesley's Works is satisfactory. (Summary, p. 311.)

(3) Every such Preacher shall also be examined as to his knowledge of the Constitution of Methodism and the Administration of Circuits; and as to whether, after four years' experience of its working, he still approves our Discipline. (Summary, p. 311.)

(4) Candidates for Ordination shall, at or before the May District Synod, preach before three Ministers of the District, who shall report, in writing, to the Synod. (Summary, p. 311.)

(5) The Welsh Assembly has power to arrest the Ordination of any Candidate for Ordination in the Welsh Districts, but not to proceed to Ordination in cases where the Welsh Synods decline to recommend. (Summary, p. 528.)

78. Probationers' Reading.—The Probationers' Oversight and Examination Committee is instructed to prepare, and, at the beginning of the Connexional Year, to send to each Probationer a list of books specially recommended for the reading of Preachers on Trial, some of which shall have particular reference to the Scriptural Doctrine of the Church. The General Secretaries shall send to each Probationer, early in April, a classified form on which the Probationer shall describe his reading, theological and general, for the year. This form is to be sent in to the Chairman of the District at least a week before the meeting of the May Synod. When the Book Lists of Preachers on Trial are under consideration in the Synods, the Chairmen shall note how far their reading has been guided by the recommended list. (Summary, p. 310.)

N.B.—The Synod may appoint a Committee to examine the Book Lists in detail and to report to the Synod. (Summary, ADDITIONAL LEGISLATION, 1916, p. 3.)

79. Probationers and Wesley's Works.—Those Preachers on Trial who do not already possess Wesley's Works are required to procure them during the period of their Probation, and shall be allowed to pay for them to our Book Steward by such instalments as may best suit their convenience. (Summary, p. 311.)

80. Probationers and Preaching during the Synods.—Whenever practicable Preachers on Trial shall preach during the District Synods. (Summary, p. 311.)

81. Probationers returning from the Mission Field.—If a Preacher on Trial enter upon the Home Work after spending part of his probation on the Foreign Field, the Missionary Secretaries shall furnish the Chairman of the District to which he is appointed with a report upon each year of the probation which has been spent abroad. This report shall be laid by the Chairman before the District Synod in May. (Summary, p. 310.)

82. Probationers and their First Circuit.—(1) The Conference recommends the Chairmen of District Synods, whenever a Probationer receives his first appointment within their respective Districts, to arrange, as early as possible in the Connexional Year, and at a suitable place, a Dedicatory Service, in which the Chairman shall affectionately welcome the Probationer to his sphere of work, commend him to the prayers of the assembled Church and congregation, and speak to him such words of counsel and encouragement as he shall deem fitting, and the service shall be followed by the administration of the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper. (Minutes, 1922, p. 274.)

(2) A copy of the "Resolutions on Pastoral Work" shall be presented by the Book Steward, under the direction of the Chairman of each District, to every Probationer on his first appointment to a Circuit. (Summary, p. 304.)

83. Administration of the Sacraments by Probationers.—The Conference directs the Stationing Committee, year by year, to prepare a list of appointments in which permission should be granted to Probationers to administer the Sacraments. In cases of special emergency, application for a dispensation shall be made to the President of the Conference through the Chairman of the District. (Summary, pp. 47–8.)

84. Ministers and Probationers and the Annuitant Society.—The Conference directs that, in future, each Minister and Probationer shall be required to become a Member of the Annuitant Society, and that every Candidate for the Ministry, if accepted, shall state his willingness to conform to this rule. (Minutes, 1916, p. 54.)

85. Candidates for the Ministry.—(1) Whenever a Superintendent recommends his son as a Candidate for the Ministry, the character of the Candidate shall be signed also by his colleague or colleagues. In cases in which the Superintendent is appointed to a solitary Station, the character of the Candidate shall be countersigned by the Chairman of the District. (Summary, p. 267.)

. It is required that in the written character of Candidates for the Ministry the Superintendent shall give information as to whether the Candidate has had "fruit" to his preaching. (Summary, p. 267.)

No candidate shall be nominated until he has been heard by the Superintendent and by his Colleagues. Full opportunity should also be given to the members of the Quarterly Meeting to hear the Candidate before the nomination is made. (Summary, p. 169.)

In any case in which a Candidate has not resided for two years continuously in the Circuit from which he is recommended, the Superintendent of that Circuit shall obtain a written report concerning him from his former Superintendent or Superintendents, so as to cover the previous two years, and present the same to the March Quarterly Meeting and to the District Synod. (Summary, p. 170.)

Where Candidates are in temporary residence in any Circuit for the purpose of special theological training, they shall be recommended as Candidates by the Quarterly Meeting of the Circuit in which they have resided and worked as Local Preachers, and not by the Quarterly Meeting of the Circuit in which they are temporarily residing. (Summary, Additional Legislation, 1915, p. 3.)

(2) Whilst, as a general rule, Candidates should be fully accredited Local Preachers, yet the door should be left open for exceptional cases. (Summary, p. 170.)

(3) Every Candidate shall, at or before the time of the May District Synod, preach in the presence of at least three of the Ministers of the Synod, to be selected by the Chairman, exclusive of the Superintendent by whom he Candidate is proposed; and a special Report of the Sermon shall be made in the District Synod and immediately forwarded, in writing, to the Secretaries of the Committee for the Examination of Candidates. (Summary, p. 266.)

(4) Arrangements shall be made by the May District Synod for the hearing of each Candidate by three Ministers of the District, other than those who have heard him before his recommendation by the Synod; and such Ministers shall suggest a mark and immediately forward their Report to the Rev. ARTHUR E. SHARPLEY, B.A., B.D., Benacre, St. James Road, Sutton, Surrey. (Summary, p. 271.)

N.B.—Three different Trial Sermons are required from each Candidate; two preached, and one sent in manuscript to the Secretaries of the Special Examination Committee. (Summary, p. 272.)

In valuing all Examinations and Trial Sermons, a system of marks by numbers from 1 to 7 shall be adopted; number 1 being the highest value, and 7 the lowest.

The seven grades shall signify respectively, Excellent, Very Good, Good, Fair, Moderate, Poor, Very Poor. The marks 1, 2, 3, shall denote three grades of an Honours Division; and 4, 5, 6, 7, four grades in a Pass Division; "average" quality being indicated by the mark 4 (fair). (Summary, p. 265.)

(5) The Summary of Methodist Law and Discipline takes the place of the Large Minutes, and Candidates are required to read the Abridgment of the Summary. (Summary, pp. 169–70.)

(6) Except when the Conference directs otherwise, accepted Candidates shall be sent forthwith to the Institution. (Summary, p. 280.)

(7) Candidates for the Ministry from the Welsh Districts who are able to preach in English and who pass their Examinations in English, shall be regarded as eligible for the General Work. (Summary, p. 266.)

86. Candidates on the List of Reserve.—(1) Every accepted Candidate on the List of Reserve who is not appointed by the President shall be placed under the care of the Superintendent of the Circuit in which he resides, who shall be responsible for furnishing to the Designation Committee the required report concerning the said Candidate.

(2) Candidates on the List of Reserve who receive an appointment shall be required to take a course of Reading to be prescribed by the Probationers' Oversight and Examination Committee, varying according to the date of appointment. This Committee shall satisfy itself that its requirements have been observed, and shall report to the Designation Committee.

(3) As proper time for study is essential to the work of our Probationers, the Conference directs Superintendents of Circuits and Missions to arrange accordingly. The Conference directs the Secretary of the Examination Committee to report to the Designation Committee those cases in which, in consequence of pressure of special work, there has been comparative failure in the Examination for two successive years. (Summary, pp. 302–3.)

87. Memorandum of Agreement between the Conference and Candidates from other Churches.—(1) The Memorandum of Agreement between the Conference and the Candidates from other Conferences and Churches shall apply in all particulars to married men who are accepted in the ordinary way as Candidates for the Ministry; and the payments required therein shall be made, and the privileges described therein shall begin to be enjoyed, in both cases, at the time of their admission into Full Connexion with the Conference. (Summary, pp. 268–9.)

(2) The following is the revised scale of payments to be made to the Connexional Funds by Ministers received from other Conferences or Churches, and married men received as Candidates:

1. To the Home Mission Fund ..	£180.
2. To the Fund for the Maintenance and Education of Ministers' Children.	£96 16 0 for each child.
3. To the Worn-out Ministers' and Ministers' Widows' Fund ..	£9 for each year counted, upon admission by the Conference.

N.B.—(1) In view of the fact that, ordinarily, claims upon the Maintenance Section of the Children's Fund do not arise during the first five years of a Minister's term of service; and seeing that the Memorandum of Agreement does not contemplate the case of married men being received into the Wesleyan Methodist Church who may have children born during their probation, the scale of payments is revised so as to meet the equity of such cases, viz. that for each year of probation in which no claim arises one-fifth of the amount charged for maintenance shall be remitted.

(2) The amount charged for maintenance shall be fully paid up before such probationer is received into full Connexion, and before his child is admitted as a claimant upon the Fund.

(3) A written acknowledgment of every such arrangement shall by signed by the father of the child, and be preserved by the General Secretary.

(4) Where desired, payments to the Education Section of the Fund, entitling a child to receive the usual Education Allowances, may be spread over a period of years until the child is nine years of age; simple interest, at 5 per cent., being charged until the full amount has been paid, and until such time no claim for Educational Allowance shall be admitted. (Summary, pp. 268–70.)

88. Provincial Synods and Candidates for the Ministry.—In those areas of the mission field in which Provincial Synods have been established, the recommendation of the Provincial Synod shall be required: (1) Before a Candidate for the Ministry from a District within the Provincial area is received on trial by the Conference.

(2) Before a Candidate for admission into Full Connexion from a District within the Provincial area is received into Full Connexion with the Conference. (Summary, pp. 524–5.)

II. THE DISTRICT.

1. SYNODS.

89. District Synods, 1924.—The Annual Meetings of the several District Synods shall be held between May 13 and 20, with the exception of those of the Kent, First North Wales, Second North Wales, South Wales, Nottingham and Derby, Lincoln, Hull, Isle of Man, and Scotland Districts.

90. District Synods and Attendance of Ministers.—(1) The attendance of all the Ministers at their respective Synods (unless they are excused by dispensation of the Synod) is required by the Conference. No Minister shall be permitted subsequently to answering questions affecting character to absent himself from any of the sessions of the Synod without the permission of the Chairman. The above regulation shall be printed in the form summoning the Ministers to the Meetings of the Synod. (Summary, pp. 449–50.)

91. Supernumeraries and District Synods.—(1) Supernumerary Ministers, with the exception of those who have received permission to reside abroad, shall be considered to belong to the Districts in which their names appear in the Minutes of the Conference. They shall attend the annual Synods of their own Districts, unless they receive a dispensation allowing them to be absent. They shall be subject to their own Synods in all matters of discipline. In case of unavoidable absence from the Annual Synod, they shall send to the Chairman, in due time, a statement concerning their continued belief in our doctrines.

(2) A Supernumerary who removes into another District after the publication of the Minutes of the Conference may, by arrangement with his own Chairman, attend the Synod of the District in which he resides. In that case he must give notice to the Chairman of the District in which he is resident of his intention to be present at the Synod. Such attendance, however, shall not, in any degree, remove him from the jurisdiction of his own Synod, to which he is responsible in all matters of doctrine and discipline. (Summary, p. 372.)

(3) Since all Supernumeraries are required to attend the May Synod, their expenses shall be paid by the Secretary of the District Synod, and be included in the Synod Assessment on the Circuits for District Expenses. (Summary, pp. 372–3.)

92. Expenses of Interchanges of Ministers.—The expense of interchanges between Ministers residing in various Circuits appointed by the Conference shall in no case fall upon the Ministers themselves, but shall be provided by the Circuits concerned, under the direction of the District Synods. (Summary, p. 134.)

93. Additional or Fewer Ministers.—All applications for additional Ministers, or for the reduction of the number of Ministers in any Circuit, shall be considered by the District Home Mission and Chapel Committee, which shall report thereon to the May Synod. (Summary, p. 383.)

94. Election of Ministers to attend the Conference.—(1) The election of Ministers to attend the Conference in its Representative Session shall be made by ballot, after nomination, from among the whole number of Ministers in any District who may express desire to attend the Conference.

(2) The Ministers so elected shall have permission to attend the Conference in its Pastoral Session.

(3) The Ministers necessary to complete the number permitted to attend the Conference in its Pastoral Session shall then be elected.

(4) In the event of any Minister elected to attend the Conference in its Representative Session offering to provide for himself, his election shall not thereby be rendered void. (Summary, p. 464.)

95. Election of Lay Representatives to the Conference.—No Layman shall be eligible as a Representative, whether elected by the Conference, or by the May Meeting of the Synod, unless he be a Member of Society of five years' continuous standing, and, at the time of his nomination in the District Synod, a holder of office as a Trustee of Connexional Property, a member of a Circuit Quarterly Meeting, or a member of a District Synod. Any Layman nominated in a District Synod must be a Member of Society in some Circuit within that District. (Summary, p. 486.)

Duly qualified and elected women are eligible as Lay Representatives to the Conference. (Summary, p. 487.)

The election of Lay Representatives to the Conference shall be by the separate vote of the Laymen, taken by ballot after nomination, in the May Meeting of the District Synods; such nomination to be by the Lay members only. (Summary, p. 486.)

96. Substitutes for Representatives to Conference.—In the event of one or more of the Ministers or Laymen elected by the Synod to attend the Conference in its Representative Session being unable to fulfil their appointments, they shall inform the Chairman of the District before the beginning of the Conference, and their place or places shall then be taken by the person or persons who received the highest number of votes next to those elected. (Summary, p. 486.)

97. Re-election of Synod Committees.—In harmony with the legislation with reference to re-election on Connexional Committees [S.O. 2 (3)], the regulations in regard to the election of Members of Synod Committees shall read: one Lay member shall retire annually, but shall be eligible for re-election on the vote of two-thirds of the Synod. (Summary, ADDITIONAL LEGISLATION, 1916, p. 4.)

98. District Home Mission and Chapel Committees.—(1) The District Home Mission and Chapel Committee consists of ten Ministers and ten Laymen, to be chosen at the September Synod. The ministerial section of the Committee shall include the Chairman of the District and the Secretary of the District Synod, who shall be members ex-officio, and two Secretaries of the Committee to be appointed by the September Synod, one of whom shall have special charge of all schedules and documents relating to Chapel affairs. The Laymen so appointed shall during their tenure of office be members of the Synod.

(2) Two Ministers and two Laymen shall retire annually by rotation, but shall be eligible for re-election on the vote of two-thirds of the Synod.

(3) The Synod shall also have power, if it be deemed desirable, to appoint as associated members of the Committee five Ministers and five Laymen, the latter of whom may be selected from members of the Wesleyan Methodist Church in the District, whether members of the Synod or otherwise, but this election shall not constitute such persons members of the Synod.

(4) The Committee shall meet at stated intervals, to be determined in each case by the Synod, and at such other times as the Chairman shall see fit to summon it.

(5) The Committee shall discharge the duties heretofore assigned to the District Home Mission and District Chapel Committees respectively. Special consideration shall be given to all applications for Grants to dependent Circuits and Home Mission Stations, and to all requests for additional Ministers, or for the reduction in the number of Ministers, and the Committee shall prepare recommendations to the Synod on all such applications and requests.

(6) The Committee shall consider and advise the Synod respecting all proposals for the division or amalgamation of Circuits, or alteration of the boundaries of Circuits, and shall minutely inquire into the circumstances of our Churches, and of the population, and as to the number of effective Local Preachers, Class Leaders, and responsible Office-bearers, so as to avoid the creation of weak Circuits or of Circuits unable to deal with the needs of large and populous localities.

(7) The Committee shall either itself, or by its Sub-Committees, at least once in every year meet the Ministers, Circuit Stewards, and Lay Representatives in the Synod of each dependent Circuit and Home Mission Station in the District, and shall receive such statements of accounts and such other information as will enable them to give suitable advice respecting the finances and conditions of work in such Circuits.

(8) In any case in which the Conference shall empower the Synod to appoint a Committee for the management of any special Mission in the District, it shall be competent for the Synod, if it deem such a course desirable, to appoint the Home Mission and Chapel Committee of the Synod to act as such Committee of Management.

(9) The Committee may advise respecting the purchase of Sites, and the promotion of schemes for the extension of Methodism in both towns and villages.

(10) The Committee shall be empowered to institute inquiries as to the best methods of reviving and extending the work of God in those Circuits which are stationary or declining, or in which the growth of the population or the boundaries of the Circuit have made adequate efforts by the Circuit impossible.

(11) The Committee shall have power to appoint a Sub-Committee that can easily and promptly be called together to consider, in conjunction with the Chairman of the District, any ordinary applications intended for the Monthly Meetings of the Chapel Committee. All such applications, with the Resolutions adopted thereon, shall be reported at the next meeting of the Committee. Any case which shall be deemed by the Chairman specially important and critical shall be considered, in the first instance, by the full Committee.

(a) No sale of any Chapel for which a substitute is not to be provided, or respecting which there is a difference of opinion in the Circuit, shall be recommended without the sanction of the full Committee.

(b) The examination and report on the Annual Chapel Schedules shall be made at a Meeting of the full Committee to be held prior to the May Synod.

(12) The Committee may appoint one of its members as a Lay Treasurer for any Funds at the disposal of the Synod, and one of its members to be associated with the Ministerial Secretary, having special relation to Chapel affairs.

(13) Besides attending to the formal business of the Committee, it is hoped that all its members will take a personal interest in the Home Mission and Chapel schemes of the several Circuits, and will seek in every possible way to promote the interests of the General Funds in the District. (Summary, pp. 451–2, 498–501.)

99. Home Missionary Ministers.—A special inquiry shall be made at the May District Synods whether the regulations for the employment of Home Missionary Ministers, adopted by the Conference, have been faithfully observed in the Circuits to which Home Missionary Ministers are appointed ; and a Report in each case shall be made to the Conference. (Summary, pp. 387–8.)

100. Grants from Connexional Fund.—Application for Grants for Supplies, Circuit Travelling, Removals, Furniture, and Afflictions from the Connexional Fund shall be submitted to the District Home Mission and Chapel Committee, whose recommendations shall be reported to the May Synod. (Summary, p. 152.)

101. District Foreign Missions Committees.—(1) The Foreign Missions Committee consists of the Chairman of the District, the Secretary of the District Synod, the District Treasurer, two District Secretaries (one Minister and one Layman), with five other Ministers and six other Lay Representatives, two of whom are to be members of the District Women's Auxiliary. One Lay member retires annually by rotation. (Summary, p. 452; Minutes, 1920, p. 64.)

(2) The Synod has power to associate with the members of the Foreign Missions Committee other Ministers and Laymen of known missionary sympathy and experience, provided always that the Laymen so associated shall not thereby become members of the Synod. (Summary, p. 452.)

(3) The District Committee has power to associate with itself at any time during the year any person specially interested in Foreign Missions. (Journal, 1914.)

102. District Sunday School Committee.—(1) The Sunday School Committee consists of the Chairman of the District, the Secretary of the District Synod, four other Ministers, and six Laymen, who shall thereby become members of the Synod. One Layman retires annually by rotation. (Summary, p. 452.)

(2) The Synod appoints a Ministerial Secretary. The Lay Secretary is appointed by the District Sunday School Council, which also has power at its first meeting in each year to co-opt additional members in the proportion of one to every twenty, or fraction of twenty, of its members. (Summary, pp. 226, 452.)

(3) District Sunday School Committees shall have charge also of the interests of the Day Schools in their respective Districts. (Minutes, 1922, p. 44.)

103. District Local Preachers' Committee.—(1) The Local Preachers' Committee consists of the Chairman of the District, the Secretary of the District Synod, with four other Ministers and six Local Preachers. If any Local Preachers be chosen who are not already members of the Synod, they become members by this appointment. One Layman retires annually by rotation. The Synod appoints two Secretaries: a Minister and a Layman. (Summary, p. 453.)

(2) The Synod has power to associate with the members of the Local Preachers' Committee other Ministers and Local Preachers interested in the subject; provided always that the Laymen so associated shall not thereby become members of the Synod. (Summary, p. 453.)

(3) The Conference resolves that each Circuit Local Preachers' meeting in future be authorised to nominate annually in June one representative (Minister or Local Preacher), for appointment as an associated member of the District Local Preachers' Committee for the District in which such Circuit is situate. (Minutes, 1919, p. 88.)

104. District Class-Leaders' Committee.—(1) At the September Synod of each District a Class-Leaders' Committee shall be appointed, to consist of the Chairman, the Secretary of the District Synod, and four other Ministers and six Lay Class Leaders. One Lay member retires annually by rotation.

(2) Each Synod shall have power to associate with the members of the District Class-Leaders' Committee other Class-Leaders of the District, provided that the Leaders so associated shall not thereby become members of the Synod. (Summary, p. 453.)

105. District Temperance and Social Welfare Committee.—(1) The Temperance and Social Welfare Committee consists of the Chairman of the District, the Secretary of the District Synod, four other Ministers, and six Laymen, who shall thereby become members of the Synod. One Layman retires annually by rotation. (Minutes, 1918, p. 61.)

(2) Each Synod shall have power to associate with the District Temperance and Social Welfare Committee other Ministers and Laymen interested in the subject of Temperance, provided always that the Laymen so added shall not thereby become members of the Synod. (Summary, pp. 452–3.)

106. Lord's Day Observance.—The Temperance and Social Welfare Committee of each District shall take direct oversight of the Lord's Day Question; and inquiry shall be made in the Annual Synod what is being done in the District to promote the due observance of the Lord's Day. (Minutes, 1918, p. 61; Summary, p. 473.)

107. District Guild Secretary.—(1) At each September Synod a Ministerial District Guild Secretary shall be appointed, and shall be an ex-officio member of the District Guild Council. (Summary, pp. 511–12.)

(2) The Conference directs that in order that the Returns of all Young People's Societies other than Branches of the Wesley Guild may be presented to Conference, the Returns of such Societies as are now given in the President's Circular shall be obtained through all Synod Guild Secretaries and included in the Wesley Guild Report in the Conference Agenda. (Summary, ADDITIONAL LEGISLATION, 1915, p. 3.)

108. District Lay Representative to Auxiliary Fund Committee.—The Conference directs that each of the September Synods shall elect a Layman to represent the District as a member of the Connexional Committee of the Worn-Out Ministers' and Ministers' Widows' Auxiliary Fund. (Minutes, 1922, p. 99.)

109. District Treasurer of Auxiliary Fund.—All subscriptions, collections, and other moneys received in the Circuits for the Worn-out Ministers' and Ministers' Widows' Auxiliary Fund shall be paid to the District Treasurer and be remitted by him to the General Treasurer. (Summary, pp. 504–5.)

110. District Treasurer of the Theological Institution Fund.—The Conference authorises the appointment of a District Treasurer of the Theological Institution Fund by each Synod, who is thereby an ex-officio member of the Synod. (Minutes, 1922, p. 96)

111. District Treasurer of Sunday Schools. — The District Sunday School Council shall nominate to the September Synod a name for appointment as District Treasurer. If the Synod approves the nomination, the one so nominated shall be one of the six Laymen elected by the Synod as Members of the District Sunday School Committee, and shall report annually upon District Sunday School Finance. (Minutes, 1923, p. 63.)

112. Division of Circuits.—Before District Synods consent to the division of any Circuit, inquiry must be made whether due attention has been paid to satisfactory arrangements for the Trust Estates affected by the proposed division, expecially in reference to any debts existing thereon. (Summary, p. 177.)

For Regulations as to Division of Circuits, see Summary, pp. 174–7.

113. Insurance of Trust Property.—The District Home Mission and Chapel Committee shall see year by year that the Trust Properties are fully insured, and report to the Synod. A Report shall be presented to the Quarterly Meeting once every year as to the amount for which the several Trust Properties in the Circuit are insured. (Summary, p. 121.)

114. The Synods and Provisional Legislation.—The Conference declares that inasmuch as the purpose of the Conference in submitting new legislation to the Synods is to ascertain their minds on proposals laid before them, this provision of our Constitution permits them to suggest amendments to such legislation if they so desire. (Summary, p. 463.)

115. Admittance of Visitors to District Synods.—The Conference declares that it is competent for a Synod in its Representative Session to admit visitors, if the Synod so desires. (Minutes, 1922, p. 95.)

116. Neutrals in Voting in District Synods.—In all voting upon cases of discipline, or upon Candidates proposed for the Ministry in the District Synods, the number of neutrals shall be recorded. (Summary, pp. 271, 457.)

117. Suggestions to Conference from the Synods.—A copy of any Suggestion from a District Synod to the Conference, relating to any Connexional Department, shall be sent immediately after the District Synod to the Secretary of the Department concerned. (Summary, p. 495.)

118. Isle of Man District and Marriage Act.—It shall be a part of the business of the September Synod of the Isle of Man District to call the attention of Superintendents, and other Ministers who may be responsible, to the regulations as to the duty of making certain Quarterly Returns to the Registrar-General of the island, according to the provisions of the "Dissenters' Marriage Act Amendment Act, 1885," of the Isle of Man. (Summary, pp. 513–14.)

119. Minor Synod.—In all cases in which the holding of a Minor District Synod is rendered necessary, except under the Regulation of 1840 (Summary, p. 515), such Synod shall be held in the District in which the accused party resides; the accused and the accuser selecting respectively two Ministers from the said District, and the Chairman of the District other two; the six thus chosen, together with the Chairman of the District, to constitute the Minor District Synod.

Should either party refuse or decline to choose two Ministers to act as members of the Meeting, the Chairman is empowered and directed to nominate them, so that the number required by rule may be made up. (Summary, p. 515.)

In the case of the trial of an Appeal against a sentence of expulsion pronounced by the Chairman of a District in the capacity of Superintendent of a Circuit, the two members of the Minor Synod, who in ordinary cases are selected by the Chairman, shall be nominated by the President of the Conference. (Summary, p. 324.)

2. CHAIRMEN.

120. Circulars to Members of the Synod.—The Chairman shall send a Circular to the Lay members of the Synod requesting their attendance on the Wednesday, and, if necessary, on the Thursday, in the week of the Annual District Synod; specifying the business that will be brought forward, and particularly mentioning any subject that may have been specially remitted by the Conference to the consideration of such Synod.

A similar Circular shall be prepared and sent with reference to the Financial District Synod.

All Ministers who are members of the Synod shall also be summoned thereto by circular. (Summary, p. 447.)

121. Substitute for the Chairman of a District.—When the Chairman of a District is unable to attend any meeting of the District Synod, a Chairman for the occasion shall be elected by the Synod from among the Ministers then present. (Summary, p. 444.)

122. Inquiry into Discipline of Methodism at Synods.—The Chairmen of Districts are enjoined to make particular inquiries at the May Synods in reference to the several points of discipline specified on pp. 516–22 of Minutes, 1902. (Summary, pp. 454–5.)

123. Copies of District Minutes.—Chairmen of Districts are required to procure two complete copies of the Minutes of the several Annual and other Meetings of the Synods, transcribed according to the order of time in which such Synods shall have been held, and duly signed by the Chairman and Secretary.

One of these copies shall be inserted in the District Records; the other shall be sent to the Rev. J. Edwin Dixon, 18, Ferryhill Place, Aberdeen, not later than June 6, and delivered by him to the President on the first day of the Conference, to be preserved under his direction, as a document appertaining to the Connexion.

The copies of the latter class shall be written on foolscap paper, that they may be annually bound together in one volume.

The Secretary of the District Synod is required to furnish the Chairman with such extracts from the District Minutes as he will need at the Conference. (Summary, p. 496.)

124. Trial of the Chairman of a District.—In case of any complaint arising against the Chairman of a District, in reference either to his personal or his official conduct, the accuser, after duly apprising the Chairman of his intention, shall place his complaint in the hands of the President of the Conference for the time being, who shall have authority (if he deem such a course necessary or expedient) to summon a Meeting, consisting of the President of the Conference, the Secretary of the Conference (who shall act as the Convener of the Meeting), and twelve other Ministers who are in Full Connexion with the Conference, of whom six, wherever practicable, shall be chosen from among the Ministers of the District of which the accused is Chairman (each party having the right to challenge any or all of the persons first nominated by the President), and to place the Chairman on his trial before them; when, if the guilt of the accused be proved, the Meeting shall have power to suspend him till the ensuing Conference, or to depose him from the Chair; and in that case the members of the Synod concerned shall, as in the case of the death of a Chairman, elect another Chairman. (Summary, p. 445.)

The above resolution shall not apply to the legislation of 1835 (Minutes, vol. vii. [1835], p. 581) relative to the trial of an Appeal against a sentence of expulsion pronounced by the Chairman of a District in the capacity of Superintendent of a Circuit. (Summary, pp. 445–6.)

III. THE CIRCUIT.

125. Monthly Meetings of Ministers in Large Towns.—The Preachers of different Circuits, when resident in the same town, shall meet at least once in every month for the purposes of mutual conference and prayer, in order to promote brotherly love, and to afford frequent and regular opportunites for friendly consultation on subjects of common concern in their respective Circuits. (Summary, p. 322.)

126. Weekly Meetings of Ministers.—Ministers who labour together in the same Circuit shall meet together once a week, or as often as practicable, in order to converse freely with each other respecting the affairs of their Circuit. (Summary, pp. 321–2.)

127. Reading of the Liverpool Minutes.—These Resolutions, in the Abbreviated Form, with the introductory statement prefixed to them, shall be read in the May Synods, and at the Ministers' Meetings in September. Chairmen of Districts are directed to make inquiry concerning the due observance of this requisition, so far as the reading in the Ministers' Meeting is concerned. (Summary, pp. 357–66.)

128. Attendance of Ministers at Official Meetings.—All the Ministers and Preachers on Trial appointed to a Circuit have a constitutional right to take part as members in our Leaders' Meetings, and in all other official meetings of the Circuit to which they are appointed. (Summary, p. 70.)

129. Quarterly Fast-days.—(1) A general Fast shall be held in all our Societies the first Friday after New Year's Day, after Lady Day, after Midsummer Day, and after Michaelmas Day. (Summary, p. 59.)

(2) The days upon which the Quarterly Fast, appointed by Rule, is to be observed throughout the Connexion, for the ensuing year, are Fridays, October 5, 1923, January 4, March 28, and June 27, 1924.

130. Annual Return of Members.—The number of Members in the Society, and of persons admitted on trial, as taken at the March Quarterly Visitation in each year, and reported at the District Synods, shall be the number returned on the Minutes of the following Conference. (Summary, p. 330.)

These Returns of Members in the Society are to be forwarded, immediately after the May Synods, to the Rev. F. Luke Wiseman, B.A., 1, *Central Buildings, Westminster, S.W.*1.

131. Emigration Bureau.—All removal notes of Emigrants are to be sent to the Rev. Marshall Hartley, Secretary of Methodist Brotherhood, 1, *Central Buildings, Westminster, S.W.*1. (Minutes, 1917, pp. 108 and 386; Summary, pp. 29–30.)

132. Custody of Trust Deeds.—The Conference recommends that a Fire-proof Safe be provided in each Circuit, and that all Deeds relating to Trust Property shall be carefully preserved therein. (Summary, p. 110.)

133. Register of Trust Deeds.—A Register of all Deeds and Documents relating to Trust Properties in the Circuit shall be preserved in a book; and the Deeds and Documents shall be compared with this Register annually by the Superintendent Minister and the Circuit Chapel Secretary, or by some other person to be appointed by the Annual United Trustees' Meeting for the purpose. (Summary, p. 110.)

134. Lay Agents in Circuits.—(1) All Lay Agents employed in our Circuits shall be members of the Wesleyan Methodist Society, and shall be accredited as such by the Superintendents of the Circuits from which they come.

(2) A Lay Agent who is a fully accredited Local Preacher, having presented his Note of Removal and current Circuit Plan to the Superintendent of the Circuit in which he is to work as a Lay Agent, shall have his name placed at the foot of the list of Local Preachers on the Circuit Plan, unless the Local Preachers' Meeting, in exercise of the power given to it by the Conference (see Minutes, 1895, p. 436), shall decide to place his name in a higher position. The words "Hired Local Preacher," "Lay Agent," or otherwise, shall be added to his name on the plan; and while employed as a Lay Agent in the Circuit, he shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the Local Preachers' Meeting.

(3) Any Lay Agent desiring to offer himself as a Candidate for the Ministry must be proposed in and approved by the Quarterly Meeting of the Circuit of which he is a member, the directions concerning the residential qualification of Candidates for the Ministry being strictly observed.

(4) If a Lay Agent is not a Local Preacher, his name shall appear on the Circuit Plan, but not among the names of the Preachers. He shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the Local Preachers' Meeting in the same manner as Exhorters are subjected to that jurisdiction by the provisions of our Discipline. (Summary, pp. 96–7.)

135. Circuit Missionary Accounts.—In no Circuit shall the Missionary Accounts for the year be closed until they have been passed by the Local or Circuit Missionary Committee, and duly signed by the Superintendent of the Circuit. (Summary, p. 188.)

1. QUARTERLY MEETING.

136. Ministers' Allowances: Method of Payment.—The Conference recommends that as far as possible there shall be throughout the Connexion a uniform method in the payment of Ministers' Allowances, viz. that at the September Quarterly Meeting a full Quarter's Allowance should be paid to each newly appointed minister. The Conference directs that this recommendation be read in every September Quarterly Meeting. (Minutes, 1920, p. 100.)

137. Sanitary Condition of Ministers' Houses.—Circuit Stewards are required to have an inspection of every Minister's house, at every change of Minister, by an independent sanitary expert (and wherever possible such inspection shall be by the Sanitary Inspector of the Local Authority), and to forward a certificate of the good sanitary condition of the house to the Chairman of the District before August 21. (Summary, p. 159.)

The Conference directs that whenever a Minister is appointed to a Circuit or Department for more than three consecutive years, there shall be a sanitary inspection of the house in which he resides, and a certificate of its satisfactory sanitary condition shall be pre-

Attention shall be called to these requirements at the May Synod, and inquiry shall be made at the September Synod whether these requirements of the Conference have been carried out. (Summary, p. 159.)

138. Boundaries of Circuits.—Whereas difficulties have arisen from the want of accurate and recorded definitions of the boundaries of Circuits, the Conference directs that, in future, the boundaries of Circuits which are divided shall be fully stated in the Minutes of the District Synod to which they belong, and the Secretary of the Synod shall send a copy of the record to be inserted in the Minutes of the Quarterly Meetings of the Circuits concerned; and in such cases, copies of the Ordnance maps, or some other maps, of the localities concerned shall be coloured so as to show the boundaries and deposited in the safes provided for the custody of the Trust Deeds of the Circuits. These arrangements shall be made in all cases of alteration in the boundaries of existing Circuits. (Summary, p. 131.)

139. Discontinuance of Public Services.—(1) Before Public Services are finally discontinued in any Chapel held on a Connexional Trust, at least three months' notice of such intention shall be given by the Superintendent Minister to the District Home Mission and Chapel Committee, and also to the General Secretary of the Home Mission Committee, in order that steps may be taken, if thought advisable, to avoid such a necessity. (Summary, p. 97.)

(2) Before any place is taken off the Plan it is necessary to obtain the sanction of the Circuit Quarterly Meeting. (Summary, p. 94.)

140. The Ballot in Quarterly Meetings.—(1) At the elections in Quarterly Meetings of the Representatives to the District Synods the usage of open voting may be departed from, and the elections decided by ballot, after nomination by the Lay members of the Meeting.

(2) In respect of all other elections made at Quarterly Meetings, the Conference re-affirms its declaration of 1884, namely: "The practice of voting by ballot in the administration of Methodism in our Circuits is contrary to long-established usage, and its adoption would in various ways be injurious to the interests of our Societies." (Summary, pp. 140–1.)

141. Lay Representation of Circuits in the Synods.—(1) Each Circuit shall be represented in the Synod by its Circuit Stewards, or, in their unavoidable absence, by substitutes, in accordance with the existing regulation on that subject.

(2) In addition to the Circuit Stewards, the March Quarterly Meeting of the Circuits may elect, as members of the Synod at its next meetings in May and September, Laymen, who are considered suitable on general grounds, in the following proportion; viz. (a) Circuits providing for one or two Ministers in Full Connexion shall elect one representative; (b) Circuits providing for more than two Ministers in Full Connexion may elect one additional representative for each Minister in Full Connexion over the number of two. (Summary, pp. 171–2.)

142. Circuit Stewards and the Synods.—Circuit Stewards, who are otherwise members of the District Synod, shall not be at liberty to decline to attend the District Synod as Stewards, and then claim the right to sit and vote by virtue of any other office. (Summary, p. 172.)

143. Substitutes for Lay Members of Synods.—(1) The Circuit Quarterly Meeting in March is entitled to elect, provisionally, a substitute for each of the Circuit Stewards, whether he shall, or shall not, have declared his ability and willingness to attend the Annual Synod in May; also a substitute for each of the Representatives, or for the Representative. Any Circuit Steward or Representative who shall find himself unable to attend the Synod shall inform the Superintendent, who shall thereupon invite the substitute to be present.

(2) Substitutes for Circuit Stewards duly elected at the March Quarterly Meeting shall be empowered, if need be, to attend the September as well as the May Synod. (Summary, pp. 172–3.)

144. Eligibility for Membership of the Synods.—No one is eligible for membership of a District Synod, or upon any Committee thereof, who is not a Member of the Wesleyan Methodist Church. (Summary, p. 172.)

145. Quarterly Meeting Inquiry concerning Foreign Missions.—(1) In every Circuit Quarterly Meeting inquiry shall be made from the Chair as to the amount received on behalf of Foreign Missions during the quarter, and the payment thereof to the District Treasurer. (Summary, p. 181.)

(2) At the March Quarterly Meeting the Annual Report and Audited Accounts are to be presented, and the Circuit Missionary Committees and Officers for the ensuing year are to be appointed. (Summary, pp. 180–1, 187–8.)

(3) The above instructions [pars. (1) and (2)] apply also to the Women's Auxiliary. (Journal, 1916.)

146. Juvenile Home and Foreign Missionary Associations.—(1) In the case of Circuits which are not in a position to ask for the appointment of a Home Missionary Minister, and to give the pledge required, but which feel the necessity of adopting some plan of Home Missionary operations, the subjoined allocation is allowed: One-third of the sums received from Juvenile Associations to be paid to the Funds of the Foreign Missionary Society, it being expressly understood that in every case the contribution to the Foreign Missions shall be at least equal to what has been presented from Christmas Offerings, on the average of several preceding years; one-third to the Home Mission Fund; one-third to the Circuit, to be expended in support of local movements of a directly Home Missionary character, under the direction of the Superintendent and of a Committee to be appointed at the December Quarterly Meeting.

(2) A return of the gross amount collected in the various Circuits by Juvenile Missionary Associations, with the proportions of that amount allocated to the various objects, shall be made yearly, at the May Meeting of the District Synods. (Summary, pp. 162–3.)

147. The Weekly Offertory.—The weekly Offertory System shall not be adopted in any chapel without the consent of the Circuit Quarterly Meeting. (Summary, p. 144.)

148. Grants towards Removal Expenses.—If any Minister be appointed to a Circuit, after an invitation sent by that Circuit to the Minister, every expense incurred by his removal, beyond what the Circuit he is leaving may provide, shall be borne by his new Circuit. (Summary, p. 153.)

149. Report of Connexional Funds at June Quarterly Meeting.—The Circuit Quarterly Meeting affords a most valuable opportunity for bringing the Connexional principle before the leading officials of our Circuits; and the Conference recommends that at each June Quarterly Meeting this should be done, and a report made of the Circuit contributions to each Connexional Fund during the year. (Summary, pp. 181–2.)

For list of Connexional Funds, see pp. 348–50; also Summary, p. 182.

150. Wesley Guild Circuit Returns.—The Circuit Guild Returns which are prepared for the District Synod shall be submitted to and considered by the March Quarterly Meeting in the same way as other Departmental Returns. (Summary, p. 179.)

151. Memorials to Conference.—(1) Should a majority of the June Quarterly Meeting, in any Circuit, be of opinion that it is desirable to address to the Conference a Memorial on any Connexional subject, and agree to do so, that Meeting itself, subject to the regulations which follow, shall have authority to adopt and transmit to the Conference such a Memorial. And at such Meeting any member thereof may propose, for consideration, the propriety of addressing a Memorial to the Conference.

(2) Any member of the Quarterly Meeting intending to propose a Resolution, and bring the same before the June Quarterly Meeting as the basis of a Memorial to the Conference, shall give notice, with a copy in writing, of the particular Motion or Resolution which he intends to propose, either at the March Quarterly Meeting, or to the Superintendent Minister not less than seven days preceding the date of the June Quarterly Meeting; and no proposal of which such notice has not been given shall be brought forward that year.

But should the Quarterly Meeting adopt the substance or principle of a Resolution so brought forward, it may amend, as well as simply adopt or reject it.

(3) A Memorial, founded on such Motion or Resolution, if approved by a majority of the persons present, shall be signed by the Chairman of the Meeting; and he shall add a footnote stating the number of persons present, and also the number voting for and against the Memorial. (Minutes, 1891, pp. 331, 362.)

(4) Memorials from Circuit Quarterly Meetings are to be forwarded by the Superintendents of Circuits to the Convener of the Committee on Memorials and Suggestions, the Rev. C. Ryder Smith, B.A., D.D., Wesleyan College, Richmond, Surrey, not later than June 30. Any Memorial adopted by a Quarterly Meeting which is held too late for this to be done shall be forwarded as soon as possible to the Convener, who shall, if necessary, present it to the Conference without its being printed. (Journal, 1921.)

(5) All Memorials thus received by the Conference shall be referred to a Committee of its members, who shall carefully classify and consider the whole, and present their report thereon to the Conference.

(6) The Quarterly Meeting has complete freedom to memorialise the Conference. It is not competent for the Chairman of a June Quarterly Meeting to rule any Memorial out of order. The Conference reserves to itself alone the right to determine whether a Memorial contains a proposal of a revolutionary character, or is subversive of the doctrine or discipline of Wesleyan Methodism.

(7) The Conference cannot sanction such Memorials as involve a direct interference on the part of one Circuit with the local affairs or proceedings of any other Circuit.

(8) No Memorial can be received from the Quarterly Meeting of a Circuit except in manuscript.

(9) The consideration and determination of all questions raised by Memorials from Circuit Quarterly Meetings shall come within the province of the Conference when exclusively Ministerial, or when the Lay Representatives shall be present, according to the subject-matter thereof, respectively. In all cases in which there may be any doubt as to the province to which a matter belongs, the President shall decide. (Summary, pp. 182–4.)

152. Status of Wesley Deaconesses.—Inasmuch as Wesley Deaconesses are set apart to a Ministry of Women by the recognised authorities of the Wesleyan Methodist Church, after due training and examination, these Deaconesses when acting under the direction of the Warden and Committee of the Wesley Deaconess Institute and appointed by them to labour in our Circuits, with the approval of the Quarterly Meeting, shall be members of the Society and Quarterly Meetings of the Circuits to which they are appointed. (Summary, 1921, p. 251.)

153. Circuit Lay Treasurer of Connexional Funds.—The Circuit Official appointed as Lay Treasurer and Secretary on behalf of Connexional Funds to relieve Superintendents of their Financial and Statistical burdens, being a member of Society, shall be an ex-officio member of the Quarterly Meeting. (Minutes, 1921, p. 61.)

154. Circuit Lay Treasurer of the Theological Institution Fund.—The Conference authorises the appointment of a Lay Treasurer in every Circuit where possible, in order to obtain increased subscriptions. (Minutes, 1922, p. 96.)

155. Circuit Lay Secretary for Foreign Missions.—The Conference directs that in future the Circuit Lay Secretary for Foreign Missions be an ex-officio member of the Quarterly Meeting, provided he is a member of Society in that Circuit. (Minutes, 1922, p. 61.)

156. Circuit Secretary of the Women's Auxiliary.—The Circuit Secretary of the Women's Auxiliary, being a Member of Society in that Circuit, and whose election is made or confirmed by the Quarterly Meeting, shall be ex-officio a member of the Quarterly Meeting. (Minutes, 1923, p. 63.)

157. Lay Secretary of Circuit Sunday School Council.—The Conference directs that the Lay Secretary of the Circuit Sunday School Council, being a member of Society in the Circuit, and over twenty-one years of age, be ex-officio a member of the Quarterly Meeting. (Minutes, 1922, p. 61.)

158. Annual Circuit Meeting of Class Leaders.—An annual Meeting of Class Leaders shall be established wherever possible in every Circuit. The Meeting shall consist of all the Ministers and Preachers on Trial appointed to the Circuit, and all the Class Leaders and Assistant Leaders in the Circuit. All Leaders of Junior Society Classes shall be entitled to attend the meeting, but only those can vote who have reached the age of twenty-one years. The meeting shall be held annually at a time to be fixed by the September, or, where desirable, by the June, Quarterly Meeting. The Quarterly Meeting shall also appoint a Circuit Secretary. The Superintendent Minister is authorised to call special meetings when necessary. (Summary, pp. 80–2; Minutes, 1920, pp. 102–3.)

159. Central Mission Quarterly Meetings and Non-resident Trustees.—The direction that the Quarterly Meeting of the Manchester Mission (Oldham Street Circuit) shall include the Trustees of all Chapels and Mission Halls who are members of Society, whether such Trustees are resident in the Circuit or not, shall apply to all the Central Missions whose Committees are appointed by the Conference. (Summary, p. 588.)

2. SUPERINTENDENTS.

160. Probationers and the Lord's Supper.—Superintendents are required to make the necessary arrangements in their Circuit Plans for securing to their junior Colleagues proper facilities for partaking of the Lord's Supper. (Summary, p. 304.)

161. Reading of the Pastoral Address.—Superintendents are directed to appoint at each principal chapel in their Circuits a special Society Meeting, for the purpose of having the Pastoral Address read to the Society, and made the subject of suitable remarks and exhortations. (Summary, p. 42.)

162. The Covenant Service in Villages.—As many of the members of our Church in Village Societies cannot take part in the annual Covenant Service when held only in our principal chapels, the Conference directs Superintendents to arrange, when necessary, for additional Covenant Services for the smaller Societies, to be conducted by Ministers on the week-nights at the commencement of the new year; and that, in connection with these Services, the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper be administered. (Summary, p. 53.)

163. Administration of the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper on Weekdays.—The Conference is impressed with the advisability of arranging for the more frequent administration of the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper on week-days in those places where it is difficult to arrange for its administration on Sundays. The Conference directs Superintendents of Circuits to pay special attention to this important matter. (Summary, p. 49.)

164. Minute Books in Discipline Cases.—The Conference directs that in all our Circuits separate Minute Books shall be kept for cases of Discipline in Leaders' Meetings, and for such cases in Local Preachers' Meetings as seriously affect the moral character of Local Preachers; and that such Minute Books shall be under the care of the Superintendent Minister of the Circuit for the time being, who shall be responsible for their safe custody. (Summary, pp. 71, 72, 87.)

165. Names and Addresses of Trustees.—The Superintendent shall annually revise the Names, Addresses, and Occupations of the Trustees of all our Trust Properties, as entered in the Circuit Book. (Summary, p. 100.)

166. Expulsion of Members.—Inasmuch as a Superintendent is directed to bring before the weekly meeting of the Preachers of the Circuit every case of proposed expulsion of a member, in order that he may have the advantage of hearing the opinions and advice of his colleagues and co-pastors, before he shall finally decide on the course he ought to adopt; the Conference directs that when the Superintendent has not a colleague, and cannot therefore consult a weekly meeting of the Preachers of the Circuit, he shall, in every case of the proposed expulsion of a Member of Society, take counsel with the Chairman of the District. (Summary, p. 323.)

167. Names and Addresses of Circuit Stewards.—The Superintendents of Circuits are required to furnish the Chairman and the Secretary of the District Synod with names and addresses of the Circuit Stewards immediately after the December Quarterly Meeting; and, immediately after the March Quarterly Meeting, with the name and address of any person elected to attend the May Synod in the place of any Circuit Steward declaring his inability to attend such Synod; and also the names and addresses of those persons, in addition to the Circuit Stewards, who have been elected as Representatives to the Synod. (Summary, pp. 173, 187.)

168. Prison Chaplains.—Superintendent Ministers of Circuits in which County or Borough Prisons are situate are required to furnish each year in September to the Ministerial Secretary of the Home Missions' Prisons Sub-Committee the name and address of a Minister in the Circuit for recognition by the Governor of such jail as authorised to visit any Wesleyan prisoners. (Summary, p. 370.)

169. Pastoral Oversight of Wesleyans in County Asylums.—The Pastoral oversight of Wesleyans in County Asylums shall be regarded as part of the duty of the Ministers in those Circuits in which County Asylums are situated. (Minutes, 1908, p. 356.)

3. LOCAL PREACHERS.

170. Regulations regarding Local Preachers.—(1) Before any Candidate comes upon the Plan on Trial, he shall be examined by the Superintendent, or under his direction, in the Summary of Christian Doctrine and Bible History; and, when necessary, in the elements of English Grammar. (Summary, p. 92.)

(2) No Candidate shall be fully admitted as a Local Preacher until he has read the first four volumes of John Wesley's Sermons and his Notes on the New Testament; and until he has passed a satisfactory examination in the definitions and Scripture proofs of the leading Doctrines of Christianity, as there explained. (Summary, p. 91.)

(3) Before any Candidate is fully admitted as a Local Preacher he shall have been twelve months on probation. The Local Preachers' Meeting shall have power to extend the period of probation in individual cases if such a measure be deemed advisable. (Summary, p. 90.)

(4) All Local Preachers shall meet in class. (Summary, p. 89.)

(5) Wherever practicable, Local Preachers, after being received on Full Plan, shall be recognised at a Public Religious Service. (Summary, p. 92.)

The Conference resolves that in furtherance of the aim for the worthier admission of Local Preachers to Full Plan, a suitable Letter, signed by the President of the Conference, be given to each Local Preacher so received, such letter to be handed to him either on his acceptance on Full Plan or at a Public Recognition Service. (Minutes, 1922, p. 54.)

(6) A Local Preacher who shall be adjudged a bankrupt, or who shall make a composition with the general body of his creditors, shall thereby be suspended from his office as a Local Preacher until the Local Preachers' Meeting shall have decided whether the circumstances of the case are such as to justify his continuance on the Plan. (Summary, p. 96.)

N.B.—This regulation applies also to a Local Preacher who is a Director of a Company which is in similar financial circumstances. (Summary, ADDITIONAL LEGISLATION, 1915, p. 1.)

(7) Every duly accredited Local Preacher is entitled to be placed, without renewed trial or examination, upon the Plan of any Circuit to which he may remove; provided he present his Note of Removal and current Circuit Plan, and has become a member of Society in that Circuit. This, of course, does not apply to Local Preachers on trial.

The position of a Local Preacher on the Plan of the Circuit to which he may remove shall be decided by the Local Preachers' Meeting concerned. (Summary, p. 90.)

(8) Before a Local Preacher from another branch of the Methodist Church is put on the Circuit Plan he shall satisfy the Superintendent and the Local Preachers' Meeting that he holds our Doctrines, approves our Discipline, and has competent abilities for the work. (Summary, p. 83.)

(9) The necessities of our work require that suitable persons should be employed in the capacity of Exhorters; such persons having the approbation of the Superintendent and the Local Preachers' Meeting. (Summary, p. 93.)

171. Women Local Preachers.—The Conference declares that women are eligible to become fully accredited Local Preachers on the same conditions and shall hereafter enjoy the same rights and privileges as men who are Local Preachers. (Minutes, 1919, p. 88.)

172. Wesley Deaconesses and Women Preachers.—The Conference grants permission to Local Preachers' Meetings, in the case of Wesley Deaconesses and other women who have already been preaching under the sanction of the Regulations of the Conference of 1910, to receive them upon full plan without further examination. (Minutes, 1920, p. 263.)

173. Reading of Local Preachers on Trial.—(1) In every Local Preachers' Meeting the Superintendent shall inquire quarter by quarter as to the reading of Local Preachers on Trial, and especially as to their reading of Wesley's Sermons and Notes on the New Testament. (Summary, p. 96.)

(2) The Conference directs that the following question be added to the Order of Business for Local Preachers' Meetings:

> " Have the brethren on trial received information concerning the ' Union for Biblical and Homiletic Study,' and have they been advised to join ? "

N.B.—The names of any willing to join are to be sent to the Lay Secretary of the Connexional Local Preachers' Committee. (Summary, p. 95.)

174. Secretary of Local Preachers' Meeting and Connexional Committee.—The Secretary of the Local Preachers' Quarterly Meeting shall forward annually to the Connexional Local Preachers' Secretary the Circuit Plan for the March Quarter, and also send the name and address of any person received "on trial" as a Local Preacher or becoming a fully accredited Local Preacher in the Circuit. (Minutes, 1922, p 54.)

IV. THE SOCIETY.

175. Orthodoxy of Office-bearers.—No person shall, on any account, be permitted to retain any official situation in our Societies who holds opinions contrary to the total depravity of human nature, the divinity and atonement of Christ, the influence and witness of the Holy Spirit, and Christian holiness, as believed by the Methodists. (Summary, p. 62.)

176. The Society Meeting.—(1) The whole Society in each place shall, wherever possible, be called together, by appointment on the Circuit Plan, at least once a quarter, for purposes of general fellowship amongst its members, for testimony concerning Christian experience, and for pastoral guidance and common counsel in the things of the Kingdom of God, both as touching personal religion and the work of God in the congregation and neighbourhood.

(2) At the Society Meeting new members, after being reported to the Leaders' Meeting, shall be introduced by their Leaders to receive the right hand of fellowship. Members transferred from other Societies, or other Churches, shall be introduced. Baptisms that have taken place since the preceding meeting, and losses suffered through death or through the removal of any members of the Church, shall be reported. New appointments, and retirements of Class Leaders and Stewards, shall be announced. At the first meeting in the New Year the Roll of Membership, containing the names of all fully accredited members on the Class-books, as reported to the Leaders' Meeting, may be read in the Society, and each member shall be expected to answer to his name. It is recommended that once in the year, if not more frequently, the Society Meeting shall conclude with the observance of the Lord's Supper.

(3) None but members of our Church, with those on trial for membership, shall be admitted to the Meeting of the Society. It is desirable that the Quarterly Ticket of membership should be brought to the Meeting, and shown at the door on entrance. (Summary, pp. 41–2.)

177. Recognition of New Members.—The public and formal

Recognition of New Members of Society is in accordance with early Methodist usage. A public welcome given by the Society tends to encourage new members, whilst the formal recognition will deepen their sense of responsibility.

Such recognition should be associated, wherever practicable, with the Public Service of the Lord's Day, morning or evening, and be followed by the administration of the Lord's Supper. In some places it might be found more expedient to recognise New Members at a Society Meeting after the Quarterly Visitation of the Classes: or, in villages, a Recognition Service might take the place of a week-evening service.

The Conference therefore directs that, at least two or three times a year, if practicable, meetings for the Recognition of New Members be held in every Circuit, the frequency and exact nature of such meetings being left to the discretion of the Superintendent. (See "Form of Service," Minutes, 1894, pp. 448–54.)

If any have not previously received Christian Baptism, that Sacrament should be administered either before or in connection with the Recognition Service. (Summary, pp. 26–7.)

1. LEADERS' MEETING.

178. Representation of Members in the Leaders' Meeting.—(1) The representation of our members in Local Church Management shall be secured by the enlargement of the Leaders' Meeting.

(2) The elected members of the Leaders' Meeting shall be in the proportion of one in fifty, or fraction of fifty, members of Society in connexion with that Leaders' Meeting up to four hundred, thus providing for a maximum of eight elected members.

(3) Persons thus elected to the Leaders' Meeting shall thereby become members of the Circuit Quarterly Meeting.

(4) Persons eligible for election to the Leaders' Meeting shall not be less than twenty-one years of age, and shall have been in continuous full membership for at least three years.

(5) Persons eligible to take part in the election of representatives to the Leaders' Meeting shall have been full members for at least twelve months, and shall be not less than twenty-one years of age. This shall not exclude from voting those persons who are already members of the Quarterly Meeting.

(6) Representatives to the Leaders' Meetings shall be chosen after nomination, either by open voting or by ballot, as the Meeting of Members may determine. The nomination shall be made in the Meeting by any member who is eligible to take part in the election. The election in each case shall be for one year, provided the membership be maintained.

(7) The election of representatives shall take place annually at an aggregate Devotional Meeting of the Members of each Society to be held as early in the year as conveniently possible, and shall be presided over by the Superintendent Minister or one of his colleagues; the members to be admitted to the Meeting by showing their ticket of membership for the previous Quarter.

(8) If a vacancy in the number of the Elected Representatives should through any cause occur during the year, the place may be filled at a Society Meeting duly called, and constituted, as in the case of the Meeting described in the preceding paragraph. (Summary, pp. 43–4.)

(9) The disciplinary functions of the enlarged Leaders' Meeting shall be the same as those exercised by the Leaders' Meeting as heretofore constituted. (Summary, p. 71.)

(10) The chief or general Superintendent of each Sunday School shall be ex-officio a member of the Leaders' Meeting of that Society with which the Sunday School is connected, he being a member of Society and not a member of any other Leaders' Meeting. (Summary, p. 203.)

179. Admission of Members.—(1) The Leaders' Meeting shall have a right to declare any person on trial improper to be received into the Society; and, after such declaration, the Superintendent shall not admit such person into the Society.

(2) It never was intended that the names of all those who are on trial should be laid before a Leaders' Meeting for distinct and formal discussion; but solely that if there be, in the opinion of a Leader, any reasonable objection to the character and conduct of any person who is on trial, such objection may be stated by him, and that, if the validity of the objection be established to the satisfaction of the Meeting, a Member's Ticket shall not be given to the person so objected to at that Quarterly Visitation. (Summary, pp. 25–6.)

180. Trial of Members.—When a charge is brought against any Member resident in a place where no Leaders' Meeting is statedly held, the case shall be referred for investigation to the Leaders' Meeting of the principal Society in the Circuit town. The Leader or Leaders, and the Society Stewards, of the Society of which the accused is a Member, shall be associated with the Leaders' Meeting for the purposes of the investigation. (Summary, pp. 36–7.)

181. Trial of Members who are Trustees.—(1) No Trustee, however accused or defective in conformity to the Rules of the Society, shall be removed from the Society unless his crime or breach of Rule be proved in the presence of the Trustees and Leaders, namely, the Leaders of the particular Society of which he is a Member, together with the Trustees of the Chapel with which that Society is connected, such Trustees being themselves Members of the Methodist Society.

(2) When a charge is brought against any Member resident in a place where no Leaders' Meeting is statedly held, the case shall be referred for investigation to the Leaders' Meeting of the principal Society in the Circuit town. The Leader or Leaders, and the Society Stewards of the Society of which the accused is a Member, shall be associated with the Leaders' Meeting for the purpose of the investigation. If the accused person is a Trustee, then there shall also be associated with the Leaders' Meeting, as above constituted, the Trustees of the Chapel with which the Society of which he is a Member is connected; or, if there is no such chapel, then the Trustees of the Chapel in connection with the principal Society in the Circuit town. But no Trustee shall, in either case, be so associated unless he is himself a Member of the Society in the same Circuit. (Summary, p. 39.)

182. Appeal to the Leaders' Meeting.—No appeal to a Leaders' Meeting shall be received against an act of Discipline by a Minister, in withholding a Ticket of Membership, after the completion of twelve months from the time when the member has been informed by the Minister of such act of Discipline. (Summary, p. 40.)

183. Assistant Class Leaders.—Where a Society Class is large, a Leader infirm, or it appears otherwise expedient, an Assistant Leader may be appointed by the Leaders' Meeting on the nomination of the Superintendent, and such Assistant shall be a member of the Leaders' Meeting. The number of Assistant Leaders who shall be members of the Leaders' Meeting shall not exceed one Assistant for one class. Assistant Leaders shall be members of the Circuit Quarterly Meeting. The appointment of Assistant Leaders shall be an annual instead of a permanent one. (Summary, pp. 69, 70.)

184. Junior Society Classes.—In connection with our Societies, Classes shall be generally established which shall directly provide for the religious instruction of young people. They shall have as their object the early conversion of children to God, their instruction and training in Christian doctrines and morality, and the development of Christian experience and character. For these purposes Holy Scripture shall be largely used. As a rule, these Classes shall be met week by week. (Summary, p. 59.)

185. Leaders of Junior Society Classes and the Leaders' Meeting.—Leaders of Junior Society Classes shall be members of the Leaders' Meeting and the Circuit Quarterly Meeting, provided they have reached the age of twenty-one years. (Summary, p. 61.)

186. Quarterly Returns of Membership.—Where practicable, the numbers of each Society shall be read in the Leaders' Meeting immediately before each Quarter Day. (Summary, p. 76.)

187. Local Foreign Missionary Committee.—The Conference resolves that where a Local Foreign Missionary Committee is not otherwise appointed, the Leaders' Meeting shall act in that capacity, and have power, for the transaction of missionary business, to co-opt other members. (Minutes, 1919, p. 88.)

188. Combined Meetings in the Society.—For the purpose of representing, when necessary, the general interests of the Society in regard to any special purpose or object that needs to be dealt with, combined meetings of the Leaders' Meeting with the Trustees, the Local Sunday-school Council, or any other local body connected with the Society, may be held occasionally. (Summary, p. 72.)

2. TRUSTEES.

189. Political Meetings in Wesleyan Methodist Trust Premises.—Having regard to the fact that a desire has been expressed in some places to use our Trust Property for the purpose of Political Meetings, the Conference declares that such uses are not contemplated by the provisions of any of our Trust Deeds; and it reminds Superintendents and Trustees that our Trust Properties can only be lawfully used for the purposes provided for in the Trust Deeds. The Conference further expresses the conviction that any such use of the Premises as that suggested would be detrimental to the best interests of our Societies by endangering their peace and unity. (Summary, p. 58.)

In regard to allowing the use of Wesleyan Methodist Trust Property for meetings of Parish Councils, see Summary, p. 58.

190. Entertainments on Trust Premises.—The Conference has reason to believe that in certain localities entertainments have been allowed which are, to say the least, highly inexpedient, and that in a few cases the practice obtains of holding entertainments which are altogether inconsistent with the purposes for which our property is held in Trust. The Conference therefore directs that the greatest possible care must be taken not to allow premises set apart for religious purposes to be used for entertainments which would bring a reproach upon the Church or constitute a ground of offence to our people generally. The Conference further urges Ministers and Trustees to exercise a wise discrimination in regard to these matters, especially in view of the fact that certain entertainments which may be innocent in themselves are associated in the public mind with the gambling spirit of the age, and are altogether at variance with the objects for which the Methodist Church exists. At the same time the Conference is of opinion that in certain localities where the people have little opportunity of wholesome recreation, such recreation may with advantage be permitted. (Summary, pp. 56–7.)

The Conference regrets to find that in a few cases Trustees have proposed to apply for a Dramatic Licence for the purpose of allowing dramatic entertainments on our premises, and that in some parts of the country entertainments and amusements have been countenanced which ought not to be associated with places set apart for Religious Worship or for Sunday Schools. The Conference strongly disapproves of any application for Licences that might give the impression that our Trust property could under any condition be used for the purposes mentioned, which are so alien to the traditions, character, and aims of the Wesleyan Methodist Church. The Conference declares that dancing, card-playing, games of chance, entertainments which legally require a Dramatic Licence, and Amusements of a frivolous and vulgar type are contrary to the "General rules and usages of the people called Methodists" as affecting the use of our Trust property, and cannot be allowed. (Summary, p. 57.)

191. Trust Premises and other Religious Societies.—The Conference resolves that our Trust premises shall not be let for any public religious meeting unless the Superintendent of the Circuit concerned be able to accept general responsibility for the teaching which shall be given. (Minutes, 1922, p. 96.)

192. Friendly Societies and Meetings on Trust Premises.—Friendly Societies and Approved Societies under the Insurance Act may be encouraged to hold their Meetings in Wesleyan Methodist Schools or Vestries, especially where there is no other public building available for the purpose; care being taken to avoid any action which would render the Trust Property liable to rates. (Summary, p. 59.)

193. Voting in our Chapels on Municipal and other Matters.—It is not within the province of any person occupying our pulpits to submit Resolutions and take votes on municipal and semi-political matters, nor to ask the congregation to vote thereon at the close of the service in our chapels on the Lord's Day. (Summary, p. 58.)

3. SUNDAY AND DAY SCHOOLS.

194. Sunday School Official Meetings.*—The Superintendent Minister of the Circuit shall preside at the Annual Meeting of the Committee and Subscribers; also at all meetings of the Committee and at all meetings of the Teachers. If at any one of the said meetings the Superintendent Minister be not present, one of the other Ministers of the Circuit shall preside. If either at an Annual Meeting or at a meeting of the Committee no Minister is present, the meeting shall appoint one of the Officers of the institution to act as Chairman. If at any Teachers' Meeting no Minister is present, one of the Superintendents of the School shall preside. (Summary, p. 199.)

195. Representation of Sunday Schools in Circuit Quarterly Meetings.—(1) No one who is not a member of the Wesleyan Methodist Church of at least three years' continuous standing shall be ex-officio, or eligible to be elected as, a Representative from a Sunday School to the Circuit Quarterly Meeting. No person shall be deemed eligible to represent a Sunday School at the Quarterly Meeting of any Circuit in which he is not at the time a Member of the Wesleyan Methodist Church.

* This Standing Order applies to the old Regulations still in force in some Schools.

(2) The chief or general Superintendent of every Sunday School shall be a member, ex-officio, of the Quarterly Meeting.

(3) In Schools with an average attendance of one hundred to three hundred scholars, in addition to the ex-officio Representative, a special representative shall be chosen from the teachers and officers of the School at the Annual Meeting of the Local Council.

(4) In Schools with an average attendance of three hundred scholars and upwards, a second special representative shall be elected in like manner. The special representative or representatives shall be elected annually, the same persons being eligible for re-election. Only members of the Wesleyan Methodist Church shall vote for representatives.

(5) Where there are two sessions, the average attendance shall be that for the larger session, as given in the official returns for the year preceding that in which the election is made.

(6) Should any School Superintendent not be a member of the Church, the teachers and officers of the school may, at the Annual Meeting of the Local Council, elect from among their own number as a representative some other person who is duly qualified in respect of his membership.

(7) The time and place of the meeting when representatives are elected shall be fixed in consultation with the Superintendent Minister, either he or one of his colleagues being in the chair; and in the event of a Circuit Minister not being present, the chairman shall be elected by the meeting, such chairman being a member of the Church. (Summary, pp. 216–17.)

196. Local Secretary of Abstainers' League.—The Conference directs that the Local Secretary of the Abstainers' League be ex-officio a member of the Local Sunday School Council, and that one of the Circuit Temperance and Social Welfare Secretaries be ex-officio a member of the Circuit Sunday School Council. (Minutes, 1922, p. 61.)

197. Orthodoxy of Sunday School Officers and Teachers.—The Chapel Model Deed provides that in any School held in a building settled on the Trusts of the Chapel Model Deed the teaching is always subject to the Clause in the Deed respecting Doctrine; and the Conference has specifically directed that no person shall be continued as an Officer or Teacher who shall at any time be declared by the Local Sunday School Council or the Leaders' Meeting unfit in respect of general character or of religious opinions for the Office he sustains or for taking part in the Christian Education of the Young. (Summary, p. 203.)

198. Our Catechisms in our Sunday Schools.—The Conference attaches the utmost importance to doctrinal teaching in Sunday Schools by means of catechetical instruction, and directs that Ministers shall give special attention to this subject. Superintendents and Teachers are also urgently and affectionately recommended to do their utmost to promote the use of our Catechisms in our Sunday Schools. (Summary, p. 209.)

199. Correct Returns from Sunday and Day Schools.—(1) The Local Sunday School Council shall consider, at a meeting to be held not later than January 31 of each year, the School Returns for the year ending December 31 previous, and immediately forward the Schedule to the Circuit Secretary.

(2) The Report of each School is to be submitted by the School Secretary to the officers of the School, and countersigned by the School Superintendent before being sent to the Local Council.

(3) The Circuit Sunday School Council shall consider the Sunday School Schedules and report thereon to the Circuit March Quarterly Meeting.

(4) The statistics of the Day and Sunday Schools of each Circuit shall be read in the Circuit March Quarterly Meeting; but if sufficient time be not then available for the discussion of the Statistics, and for inquiry into the state of the Schools, such discussion and inquiry shall take place in the Circuit June Quarterly Meeting. (Summary, pp. 178–9.)

(5) The Education Schedules, having been duly filled up and presented to the March Quarterly Meeting, shall be sent by the Superintendents to the District Sunday School Secretary not later than April 3 in each year. (Minutes, 1922, p. 44.)

200. Returns of Bible-classes and P.S.A.'s.—The Secretary of the Sunday-school Department shall obtain the information from the Secretaries of the District Synods. The Returns of P.S.A.s are to be made in three columns. (Summary, pp. 472–3.)

201. Scholars' Removal Notes.—With a view to preventing, as far as possible, the loss of scholars by removal, "Scholars' Removal Notes" should be used in all our Schools. The Conference requests the Connexional Sunday School Council to supply, free of cost, in the first instance, a Specimen Book of Removal Notes to the officers, and to intimate the willingness of the Department to assist in any case of difficulty. (Summary, p. 210.)

202. Young People's Day.—The Conference directs that the Third Sunday in October be observed as a day of special prayer on behalf of our Young People, and that our Ministers and Local Preachers be asked to co-operate with the Sunday School Authorities in bringing before the young the necessity of immediate decision. (Summary, pp. 206–7.)

203. Erection of Sunday School Premises.—All trustees who are contemplating the erection or alteration of premises intended for Sunday School work shall communicate with the Connexional Sunday School Department before the plans are finally accepted and before they are submitted to the District Chapel Committee, for the purpose of receiving counsel as to their projected undertakings, and the adaptation of the premises to the system of instruction designed to be adopted. (Summary, p. 194.)

The Membership of the Society is open to all Wesleyan Ministers of the English and Irish Conferences.

The Annual Subscription is £5 5*s.* during Probation, and £6 thereafter throughout the period of active ministry. In certain cases of residence abroad an additional Subscription is payable, which amount is, in the case of Missionaries, paid by the Foreign Missionary Society.

Any married Member of the Society may, subject to the Rules, put his wife upon the funds (provided she is not more than twenty years younger than he is) upon paying the Marriage Premium applicable to his case, but no Member marrying after attaining the age of sixty years may do so.

The Society grants Annuities to Supernumeraries being Members of the Society, or Widows of Members of the Society, in respect of whom a Marriage Premium has been paid, the Annuities being graded according to the number of years travelled. There is also a provision whereby necessitous orphan children under sixteen years of age, whose parents would have been entitled to benefit had they survived, shall receive allowances.

Intending Members should apply for a copy of the Rules and last Report, and the Registrar or Secretary will be glad to answer any inquiries. Subscriptions should be sent to the Secretary at the Registered Office.

WESLEYAN METHODIST TRUST ASSURANCE COMPANY, LIMITED.

(See Advertisement in Insurance Section.)

THE Company was established in 1872 with the sanction and commendation of Conference for the insurance of Connexional property against loss by Fire. Powers were subsequently obtained for the transaction of other classes of insurance, including Workmen's Compensation, Third Party, and Burglary.

The Company does not solicit business from the general public, being limited by its Articles of Association to Connexional and Ministers' insurances. It is thus entirely dependent on Connexional support.

The Company exists for the benefit of the Connexion. The chief beneficiary under the Articles of Association is the Worn-Out Ministers' Fund, which has received £85,900 in annual grants since the foundation of the Company. In 1923, in addition to the ordinary annual grant of £5,000, a special extra grant of £2,500 was voted to the Fund, making £7,500 in all, free of income tax.

Figures for the year ended June 30, 1923: Net Premium Income, £20,499; Interest and Dividends received less Income Tax thereon, £6,876; Claims paid and Management and other charges including Income Tax on Profits, £10,319; Grant to Worn-out Ministers' Fund (Free of Income Tax), £7,500; other grants, £1,200; Invested Funds, £171,287.

SECTION VI.

ANNUAL ADDRESSES.

The Address

OF

TO THE

METHODIST SOCIETIES.

DEAR BRETHREN,—

For what we have seen since we last wrote to you we give thanks to God. A weight which was resting upon us is being lifted. For the last two decades we have been oppressed with the sense of strain and ineffectiveness. To do things, and to have to do things, but to lack the motives which make the doing of them supremely worth while—this had become one of the wearing maladies of the age, and the Church had not escaped its deadening influence. To-day this is rapidly disappearing. There is a new vision, a new joy, a new sense of possibility.

A New Fulness of the Time.

We are especially impressed by the wide range of what is happening. It is not one movement, but many movements, that we are witnessing. They are not confined to any one Church, and their influence is being powerfully felt outside the Churches. But they all come from Him, and are all converging on Him who is the Lord of all good Life. There have been notable efforts in our Universities, so that the Christian religion is being more effectively presented to students to-day than ever before. Central missions have been held in our large towns; there have been striking movements in some of our industrial areas—particularly a Methodist Crusade on Tyneside, which had notable results, and from which bigger consequences are yet to come, and in many rural areas the last few months have brought considerable success. At the same time, the Missionary outlook is full of encouragement. The many developments which have turned the world into a neighbourhood, and have linked it together more intimately than ever before, have been creating a new opportunity. This is being eagerly and wisely seized, and the many problems of world-wide Missions are being tackled with a new statesmanship, and with an enthusiasm which is all the deeper because it is based on a fuller and more sympathetic knowledge. By these much has been accomplished, but they are even richer in promise than they have been in attainment.

For some years there has been a steadying and intensifying of theological thought. The smoke is now clearing from the battle-field of the last half-century, and we see that, so far from the spiritual having been driven back, it is in possession of the field. Old truths are being reinterpreted and enriched by the new ways of looking at things which God has been opening up. The humanity of our Lord has become to us a larger and richer thing than it has been to any age since that of the eye-witnesses themselves. And along this line we are being driven back on the truth of which, perhaps, in years of perplexity,s ome were in danger of losing their hold that the amazing secret of Jesus is that He is God manifest in the flesh—God coming in love to offer Himself, and with Himself all His gifts, to those who were made for fellowship with Him.

Our Lord's teaching about the Kingdom of God has also been studied with a new thoroughness, and we have seen what immense consequences it must have, not only in individual, but in social, national, and international life ; all human concerns come within its frontiers ; all tracts of human life have to be purified and won for God. All these developments (with others that might be mentioned) inspire the hope that even now we are on the threshold of one of the creative ages of faith, at the beginning of another fulness of the times.

Evangelical Recovery.

In our own Church the outstanding event of the last year is a marked recovery of evangelical power. Preachers who had never regarded themselves as evangelists are finding that along ordinary lines, without what is sometimes the artificial stimulus of a special mission, folk are being brought to embrace Jesus' way of living. In the open air there has been increased activity, and a new response to the Message, and special missions and crusades have been attended by a rich success. Perhaps more significant than any of these is the fact that those who have found a new life in Christ are going forth to the daily round with the joyous sense that they have something to tell to others which is genuine good-news.

The Task before Us is not Light.

But while thankfully recognising what is happening, we feel that a warning note is necessary. Let us not imagine that because we have left the starting-point we are coming near the goal. The situation before us is a tremendous one; without God it would be utterly hopeless. England is still largely pagan; unchristian standards are still applied almost unconsciously to social and international questions; life is interpreted in terms of Mammon rather than of God. Our message, while convincing, is not utterly and triumphantly convincing; there are elements in the New Testament with which it is not fully reckoning. Under the eye of God we need to do much careful thinking, both individually and with others, as to what is the full Christian message, and what is its application to the whole of life and to the whole of society. This is incumbent, not only on those who are preachers, but upon all who are disciples of Jesus, for to all has been committed the word of reconciliation. As a call and encouragement to this we note in many different quarters an expectation that something which will bring a large illumination and enabling power to our age is to shine out of the New Testament.

We also feel that there should be much careful thinking about the evangelical appeal. Our fathers had an appeal which came home to the mind and heart with almost overwhelming force. Some elements in that appeal we have discarded, but we have not yet found effective substitutes. We must seek afresh where our age and the truth as it is in Jesus touch each other that we may reach the vital point. Probably there has never been a time when men were more earnestly asking how religion fits into every-day life. We would also urge that all who have to do with seekers and converts should be carefully selected and trained. They have to meet human souls in the most sensitive state in which they can be, naked and uncovered, before God, with all their conventional defences gone; and those who are to help them need a rare insight and sympathy, a deep and yearning tenderness, which only comes from a very intimate fellowship with Jesus.

The Need of Fellowship.

We report a large increase in our membership, which has come as an encouragement from God; but we feel that it points to a pressing need. If John Wesley had been an evangelist, and nothing more, there would have been no Methodist Church. Unless he had provided a rich and satisfying fellowship, thousands of those whom he won would have drifted back into their old life. And if we are to retain those whom we are beginning to move in large numbers, we must provide for them genuine fellowship. Of this fellowship the Communion should be the centre. In that sacred service, in which all down the ages the Bread of God has been broken to feed a hungry world, Christian fellowship is found in its most intense form. There we are one with our brethren, because we are so unutterably one with Christ. Those who have been in the habit of absenting themselves from the Lord's Table should be insistently, yet lovingly, invited to come again, and new converts should be brought into the Fellowship at that simple rite which our Lord asked us to observe in remembrance of Him. In addition to this, we earnestly advocate the revival of the fellowship-meeting. We rejoice that in many places there is a quickening in the society classes; we rejoice, also, that in many places others are finding in small, informal groups, often meeting in the home, what is satisfying their needs. We lay down no rigid lines, we plead for no one method, however consecrated by usage. We believe that God has many ways of fellowship, but we do call all our members to see that in connection with every one of our Churches there is some fellowship in which people can feel at home, in which they can talk easily and naturally of the things of the Spirit, and find that new possibilities in the way of thought, feeling, and action are opened up because they are taken out of themselves into a society.

From Discipleship to Apostleship.

It is in such a fellowship that we shall be able to train those who will be fitted to do Christ's work. The Christian needs to have every part of his nature developed; few ages have made such large and manifold demands as that in which we live; the work that lies before us is as vast as it is urgent. In far too many places, we fear, the work of God is being hindered through the lack of intelligence and enthusiasm. In the discipline which any genuine Christian fellowship imposes there is found that training of the mind by which its eye will be opened and turned to the light, that culture of the heart which creates true sympathy, and that strengthening of the will which turns hindrance into help, and difficulty into opportunity. Above all, we feel that here is to be found the school in which people will learn again all that prayer may mean. The coming years will imperiously require thousands and tens of thousands of well-equipped Christian workers. Unless they are forthcoming, the harvest will be ungarnered.

Methodist Union.

During the last year the question of Methodist Union has been submitted to our Quarterly and Trustees' meetings. So large a question inevitably awakens controversy, but we are thankful that a quiet spiritual tone has been present in much of the discussion. The work of God has not suffered in the way in which some feared it would. The result of the voting in our Circuit gatherings seems to indicate that a majority in our Church is turning its face towards union with the Primitive Methodist and United Methodist Churches. It does, however, seem something short of the full Christian spirit for a majority simply to outvote a minority and leave it unconvinced. We feel that persuasion, and sweet-reasonableness, and patient consideration of standpoints which differ from our own are more than ever incumbent upon us all. If Methodist Union is attained, let it be without the loss or wounding of any of our brethren.

We strongly urge that there should be co-operation not only with the other Methodist Churches, but, wherever possible, with all other Churches in all kinds of Christian work. We welcome the Conference on Christian Politics, Economics, and Citizenship which is to be held at Birmingham next April, and at which Christians of nearly all the Churches will unite. We urge all the members of our Church to give this gathering, which contains such possibilities, a place in their thought and prayer.

The Temperance Campaign.

The Temperance Campaign to which our Church gave itself two years ago is making substantial progress. A new public opinion is being formed, and old prejudices are being overcome. Intemperance—the fruitful cause of a host of evils—is being attacked, now at this point, and now at that, whilst all along the line the pressure against it is being increased. By the unwavering support of the Church notable reforms may be secured in the coming years, and the formidable organisation of a dangerous trade may be deprived of its power to hurt. Betting and gambling are dangerously rife, and the conscience of the nation seems drugged in regard to them. Through the Committee appointed by the House of Commons the question has been brought into political life. We are confident that the united voice of our Church will be raised against any proposal to legalise betting. Meanwhile, we would call all to do what they can to put down betting, especially to save young people from its terrible clutches. By fostering the love of unhealthy excitement and the lust for gain, it is fatally opposed to the Spirit of Jesus.

The Lord's Day.

In the face of renewed assaults, it is encouraging to notice a growing concern about the Lord's Day. Witness is being borne by many voices to the benefit, both for religion and for the general life of society, of quiet Sunday observance. To this work of reason there needs to be added the immense weight of Christian example. The family which is seen leaving home for the house of worship is calling all around to a universal duty and inspiration. Those Christian households, too, which show in their own practice how the intervals between worship may be intelligently and joyously spent in ways consistent with the spirit of religion are exerting an influence of the utmost value. Right living is not best secured by walling up the road of life on either hand with strictly defined duties ; a better way is to radiate the free and liberal spirit of the children of God so that others will see for themselves what they ought to do.

God All in All.

One all-embracing task is specially incumbent upon us. In the New Testament in many different forms there is the thought of winning all the different tracts and relationships of life for God. We have already pointed out that one element in our Lord's vision of the Kingdom is that of human life completely related to God. We fear that many spheres of human activity, through the wrong attitude that is taken to them, have been separated from God, and through this unnatural separation a wasting power has rested upon them. Art and literature, business and commerce, sport and amusement, have been too much regarded as spheres of life with which God has no immediate concern; they have been called secular, and the Christian has not been sure in many cases where he stood in regard to them. Hence his attitude has been marked by timidity, suspicion, and even by rigid aloofness. The thought of the Fatherhood of God must lead us to think of these things in a new way. If God is a Father, He is interested in all the innocent and healthy concerns of His children. In all spheres of life, whilst withstanding and rooting out the sensual, the selfish, and the degrading, let us claim for Him what is of His spirit. Let us see Him in all truth, enjoy Him in all beauty, and receive as coming from His ungrudging hand the simple pleasures which make life full and joyous, and the activities which bring with them such endless interest.

We believe that great days lie before us, but they are days which will bring an immense demand. They will call for the united ministries of mind, heart, and hand, all raised to their highest power by the indwelling presence of God. A genuine awakening has begun. Individuals here and there, in some places small groups, in other cases Churches, are discovering God afresh in Jesus, discovering that He more than meets all the needs of life. This discovery is making those to whom it has come the hopeful children of the Church militant, and they are preparing for a Crusade which is to last not for ten days, or a winter, but for a lifetime. They feel that while at times God works slowly, He never works slowly when He can work quickly just as well, and in this swiftly moving modern world they are looking to Him who can do in one day the work of a thousand years. With a new devotion which does not speak the language of duty and sacrifice, because all is taken up into love and joy, they are going forth to do His work. Into such a fellowship of joy and effort we call all our people. Let us forget the things which are behind, past joys as well as past sorrows, past successes as well as past failures.

"REMEMBER YE NOT THE FORMER THINGS, NEITHER CONSIDER THE THINGS OF OLD. BEHOLD I WILL DO A NEW THING: NOW SHALL IT SPRING FORTH, SAITH THE LORD."

ADDRESS OF THE IRISH CONFERENCE OF 1923 TO THE BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1923.

HONOURED AND BELOVED FATHERS AND BRETHREN,—

In our Annual Conference assembled, it is our privilege once again to greet you in the name of the Lord. From you we first caught the inspiration of the great Evangelical Revival almost 180 years ago, to you our hearts turn with loyalty and affection still. Whatever changes may come in the new constitution of our common Church, we on this side the Channel pray that they may lead to no diminution of fellowship and brotherhood.

Our hearts have been rejoiced that God has afresh visited you and that multitudes have been turned to the Lord. Your increase in membership is the outward sign of a returning tide of grace. We read with joy of the movements towards Christ in many of your great centres of population. To God be the glory. We also rejoice, since to some extent we have become sharers with you in it, in the return to fellowship among both ministers and people, believing that only in such spiritual communion can believers offer their best service to Christ.

A year ago thousands of Irish hearts, to whom he was known as a friend, looked forward to seeing the late lamented William Goudie occupy the Chair of our Conference. We esteemed him, trusted him, loved him. He kindled missionary zeal all over our island. His last public utterance was to the students of our college. But God has called His servant suddenly to eternal honour.

Permit us to say that no one you could have chosen to fill the vacant Chair of Conference could be more welcome to us than the Rev. John E. Wakerley. He is no stranger to Ireland. His well-known gifts and evangelistic zeal make him peculiarly welcome to us at this time of revival in Northern Ireland. His powers as leader and administrator have been enhanced by his conduct in the Chair as President. We have been gratified by the return of the Ex-President, Rev. J. Alfred Sharp. His services, especially appreciated at this time on behalf of temperance reform, have laid us under fresh obligation to him. The presence of Rev. J. W. Lightley, M.A., B.D., and Rev. E. A. Bennett gave us additional pleasure, and their public utterances and personal fellowship have helped and inspired us afresh. Your lay representative, Sir Thomas Rowbotham, has also cheered us by his presence, counsel, and evangelistic zeal.

It is with gratitude we report the continued prosperity of God's work during another year. In the ordinary work of the ministry souls are continually being saved. Despite trade depression and the aftermath of war, our people have shown a spirit of hope, courage, and generosity beyond praise. While we have been favoured with an increase in membership, we lament, however, a lack of candidates for our ministry, and pray that God may thrust forth labourers into His harvest. Owing to depletion of membership in the South and West, and to large accessions in the North, our Conference is compelled to grapple with a readjustment of our work. We look to the Head of the Church for wisdom, courage, and power.

In Northern Ireland, opportunity for Methodist ideals presented itself in two Bills now before Parliament: one, on Education, has been influenced not a little by representatives of our Church, and the Bill when law will, we believe, make for the development of good citizens; the other, on Temperance Reform, has the enthusiastic support of our people. The example of British and American Methodism on the Drink Traffic has been an incentive and challenge to us.

We watch with interest and gratitude your successful advance towards Methodist Union, believing it to be for the greater glory of God.

During the year we lost two beloved brethren from the ranks of our ministry. One, Rev. Alexander Fullerton, was gathered home in old age—like a shock of corn fully ripe—after many years of faithful service. The other, Rev. Thomas J. McCord, was cut off by disease in the early flower of manhood, leaving behind him an example of fidelity, patience, and affection. Both brethren adorned the doctrine of God our Saviour.

We have chosen as our delegate to your Conference Rev. James W. Parkhill, a man trusted among us for his sound judgment, fidelity, and devotion to Christ. As his companions we have appointed Rev. Horatio G. Collier and Rev. W. L. Northridge, M.A., Ph.D., and Mr. Richard Jagoe. These brethren will tell you more particularly of our affairs, and in person will convey our affectionate greetings. We are filled with great hope. God is visiting you and us alike. Brethren, pray for us that the Word of the Lord may have free course and be glorified.

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

ROBERT M. KER, Secretary.

THE REPLY OF THE BRITISH CONFERENCE TO THE ADDRESS OF THE IRISH CONFERENCE.

HONOURED AND DEAR BRETHREN,—

The British Conference assembled at Bristol has received with sincere pleasure the Address of the Conference of the Methodist Church of Ireland, and the kindly greetings which it contains. We are mindful of the great work which Methodism wrought in days of yore in your country. We call to remembrance the many journeys which John Wesley made to Ireland, and the love which he bore to its people, and the welcome your countrymen gave to him. We are mindful of the heroic labours of his helpers, of their saintliness, and their triumphant campaigns as preachers of the Word. We rejoice to know that our brethren in Ireland are true to their high and noble traditions. We have held you in our prayers while your beloved country has been passing through days of strife and war. We rejoice to hear that you have entered upon better days, and trust that a full peace and a true prosperity may be restored to your country. It is with pride that we hear of the great constancy of our people in days of great distress. Our hearts have been deeply moved by the stories of your patience, and of your ministry of reconciliation. We know that God's grace and love have been sufficient for you in days of great strain. We rejoice that you have possessed amidst all your trials the pilgrim's soul, and that you have been able to make your contribution to the restoration of peace in your country.

We have heard with great gladness that in days of trouble you have had times of refreshing from the presence of the Lord, and that the fires of revival have broken out in your midst. We pray that God's blessing may continue to rest upon your ministry, and trust that you may gather even a greater harvest. We are delighted that inspiration came to you through the visit of the President, Rev. John E. Wakerley, and the Ex-President, Rev. J. A. Sharp, Rev. J. W. Lightley, M.A., B.D., and the Rev. E. A. Bennett. We know that while they gave of their best to you, they received great blessing from their visit.

It is with pleasure that we hear that in Northern Ireland the Methodist ideals have found a place in two Bills now before Parliament—one for Education, and the other for Temperance Reform. We trust that the Church in Ireland will continue to be able to influence its Parliament in all schemes for educational and social reform.

The Conference has greatly appreciated the presence of your delegation, Rev. James W. Parkhill, Rev. Horatio G. Collier, and Rev. W. L. Northridge, M.A., Ph.D., and Mr. Richard Jagoe.

We hear with sorrow of the passing of two beloved brethren from the ranks of your ministry—Rev. Alexander Fullerton, after many honoured years of service, and Rev. Thomas J. McCord in the early flower of manhood. May God's comfort rest upon their loved ones, and His blessing on their labours. May the One in whom was light, and whose Light was the Life of men, guide and inspire you, and may you in all your work hear Him say—" Lo, I am with you all the days even unto the end of the Ages."

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

THOMAS KIRKUP, Secretary.

THE ADDRESS OF THE FRENCH CONFERENCE TO THE BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1923.

DEAR AND HONOURED BRETHREN,—

After an interval of fifteen years, our Conference met at Nîmes, the capital of French Protestantism. From this town, full of Huguenot memories, where our Methodist pioneers laboured and wept and won victories, we send you our most cordial greetings.

As the apostle Paul, in Athens, felt his soul grieved at the sight of the altars set up to strange gods, so we also have been afflicted at the sight of the magnificent Roman Arena where bull-fights still go on. This suffices to make us remember that Methodism has still its place in our beloved country. We are probably the smallest Conference in the world, but in no wise have the smallest task. The history of David and Goliath has sometimes for us a very present application, and we might well be tempted to be discouraged, did we not recall that great saying of Wesley: " The best of all is, God is with us."

We are very much touched by the sincere and cordial affection you show us, the patient and persevering help you give, the confidence you grant. We are trying, by zeal and courage in the work before us, not to deceive your hopes.

In calling to preside over your Conference at Bristol the Rev. Thomas Ferrier Hulme, M.A., the apostle and champion of the evangelisation of the villages in England, you remind us that the great task of Methodism is that of evangelisation. We are therefore quite sure of your sympathy and kind interest in the tremendous task that is before us. We too have our problem of the evangelisation of villages, and the fact that some 34,000 places in France are not evangelised is distressing, and shows, more than anything else, the urgency of the problem.

We have welcomed with hope the movement called " La Cause," grouping together earnest workers of different ecclesiastical bodies all united in one great ambition: France for Christ! We have been happy to lend Rev. Emile Ullern for this work; in many places he has held missions that have been greatly blessed.

Our General Superintendent, Rev. Théophile Roux, has encouraged us by his visits to our Churches, his counsels and affection. Ministers and laymen have met together for spiritual seasons of prayer and Bible study. One of the subjects that have been studied is that of the "average minister," and the most inspiring discourse of your Ex-President, Rev. John E. Wakerley, at the pastoral session of your last Conference has been a great help. We would like to thank our venerable brother for his vindication of the ministry that has been so much decried in our days.

Our presence at Nîmes put us in touch with our Girls' Boarding School, where anxious parents are happy to place their daughters in a training establishment where they are protected against the dangers of the present times, and where many have recently given their hearts to God.

We hail with joy the appointment of two young French missionaries of the Paris Missionary Society in the mission field of Togo-Dahomey. The close collaboration of this society with your Wesleyan Methodist Missionary Society realises the wish you expressed in your Address to our Conference last year, that intimate bonds of co-operation and good-will may unite our two countries.

It is precisely because we are convinced that Christ alone is our peace, that He only can overthrow the walls of separation, that we wish, with all our heart, to make Jesus King. By the triumph of the Gospel we want to make war impossible.

We rejoice that your efforts during the year have been crowned with an increase of membership; we also have been happy to register a small increase. Brethren, pray for us, as we pray for you. May the Lord give us times of revival as of old!

We received with much pleasure and profit the visit of the representatives of the Missionary Society at our Conference, Rev. C. W. Andrews and Rev. George Whelpton; their messages were a means of great blessing to our souls.

"Let the favour of the Lord our God be upon us: and establish Thou the work of our hands."

In the name of the French Conference,

HENRI FAURE, Moderator.

LEWIS-D. PARKER, Secretary.

THE REPLY OF THE BRITISH CONFERENCE TO THE ADDRESS OF THE FRENCH CONFERENCE.

DEAR BRETHREN,—

Like yourselves in Nîmes, we in Bristol have been meeting in a city of many memories. From this city, hallowed in Methodist history, the scene of our early triumphs, we send you our most cordial and affectionate greetings.

We thank you heartily for the Address. The presence of our beloved brother, the Rev. George Whelpton, M.A., at our Conference is a sure token that your work in France will not be forgotten by us. In his own way he has been seeking to spread the news of the present opportunity in Brittany, in which part of your field, as is but natural, he is specially interested. We pray that both there and around our other stations in France there may speedily be a new religious awakening.

We observe with great pleasure the signs of growing unity and co-operation among various ecclesiastical bodies of your land, in the movement known as "La Cause." We too have to record that our longings after unity among the religious bodies of this country have received great encouragement at this Conference, in the visit of the Archbishop of Canterbury. Never before has the occupant of the throne of Augustine stood side by side in the Conference with the occupant of the chair of John Wesley. The message of the Archbishop was a masterly historical review. It served to strengthen our belief that God has been guiding the thought of our time, and preparing the minds of men for a great movement of the Spirit. Already we feel ourselves called to our vast task. It is a time of renaissance. Our land needs that message of the New Birth which alone can save our civilisation and build up among us the kingdom of God.

We welcome every sign of closer co-operation of the various missionary societies on the foreign field, and rejoice with you in the appointment to Togo-Dahomey of the two French missionaries of the Paris Missionary Society. By this token we are reminded that we are brothers in the greatest of crusades ; let us go forward unitedly for the evangelisation of the world.

But such a crusade entails a quest. We may well be baffled by the vastness of our task. At such a time we turn again to the infinite resources that are ours in Christ Jesus. We would recapture that power which will enable His followers to transcend the barriers of race and nationality, and to proclaim this Gospel to the world with the convincing power of brotherly love.

We believe in your mission to France because we believe in ours to our own country. We know that Christ is the one hope for this distracted, war-weary world. Wherever Protestantism flourishes, Catholicism is the purer for its presence ; and the leavening influence of men who are in close personal touch with our Lord will be out of all proportion to their numbers. Further, those who thus know the fellowship of the Spirit will be able to transcend any international misunderstandings and strengthen the cause of world-peace.

You will join with us in praise to God for the saintliness, the ability, the human charm of our brother the Rev. Daniel Alfred de Mouilpied, who has been called to higher service in the year that is past. His experience during his nine years of labour in Paris, his passionate sympathy with France, his intimate knowledge of your history and literature were invaluable to us as to you. His ministry was a bond of union between British Methodism and the Protestantism of France.

In a spirit of love, like to his own, we would join hands with you in the great tasks that are both yours and ours.

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

THOMAS KIRKUP, Secretary.

THE ADDRESS OF THE CONFERENCE OF THE WESLEYAN METHODIST CHURCH OF SOUTH AFRICA OF 1923 TO THE YEARLY CONFERENCE.

DEAR AND HONOURED FATHERS AND BRETHREN,—

Assembled in our forty-first Annual Conference, in the Borough of King William's Town, the old historic capital of British Kaffraria, in close proximity to the first mission station established by William Shaw and named Wesleyville in the year 1823, celebrating the Centenary of our Mission Work in South-East Africa, we send you our hearty and affectionate greeting.

We thank you for the confirmation of the appointment of the Rev. John W. Housham to the Presidential Chair of this Centenary Conference. As one of our most honoured missionaries he truly has come to the kingdom for such a time as this. We greatly feared that through ill-health he would be unable to preside at the Conference, but Almighty God has been gracious to him and gracious to our Church, and by the help of the Lord he has been used mightily to stir our hearts and to lead our enthusiasms.

The same spirit that animated William and Ann Shaw in 1823 has been upon us, their descendants, in 1923, and we also have been led to stretch out once more into the regions beyond. For some three years the call to enter Tanganyika Territory in what was known as German East Africa has sounded in our ears and searched and stirred our hearts. Our delegation, consisting of the Revs. W. Wilkinson Rider and Martin J. White, sent out three years ago, brought back a wonderful report of a land great in its need and opportunity. But with a scarcity of men and a depleted exchequer we feared to launch out into new enterprises which, situated so far from the base, must prove costly both in men and means.

But the spirit of a century of mission work, which God has mightily blessed and owned, has been upon us in our Conference, and this coupled with the insistent offer of two of our ministers, one of whom was the junior minister of our delegation, and the other a young man who spent a year of military service in that region and who acquired a knowledge of the Swahili language, has stirred the Conference to action. So even though our stations are not filled, and though our Missionary Fund is £3,500 in debt, yet the Conference, with great enthusiasm and abounding faith, has set apart Martin J. White and J. Wesley Hunt to be our pioneer missionaries in that distant and needy country of wide spaces, to be the bearers of the message of Divine love to eight millions of people. Thus at the close of 100 years of strenuous missionary effort, witnessing the wondrous things the Lord hath done, steadfast in faith, patient in hope, we set up our banners in the Name of the Lord and march forward to fresh fields and further conquests for Christ.

An outstanding feature of our Centenary Conference has been the opening of our Hostel at the Fort Hare Interstate Native College. The Conference travelled over the land made sacred to Methodists for ever by the feet of our pioneers and the wagons that conveyed the first missionaries to the first of the "Chain of Stations" afterwards to be established. The Hostel was opened amid scenes of great enthusiasm and sacrificial giving. Buildings costing over £15,000 were opened, and the debt now remaining is but a little more than £1,000. The opening of this Hostel, the first to be erected by any of the Churches, is a fitting conclusion to 100 years of patient toil in day-school teaching.

Again we thankfully record a substantial increase in our numbers. The returns show a total of members meeting in class of 206,231, an increase on the year of 4,189. At the end of 100 years of sowing and reaping God has given to us a membership so great, a heritage so vast, a work so extensive in this wide land. And we are not unmindful of the hosts of those sons and daughters of this Africa who have washed their robes and have entered into the palace of the King.

We face the coming century with joyful hope and renewed consecration, confident that the best is yet to be.

With our house in better order, with our machinery more complete, we wait for the mighty outpouring of the Holy Spirit upon our Church and people, our schools and colleges, that we might be caught in the rapture of a mighty revival. We have read with great delight of the wonderful blessing that has come to the old land in the missions conducted by Gipsy Smith, whose great work in this country we remember with gratitude. We too can record the droppings of the shower, for in lonely places God has been pleased to reveal His willingness to save. We pray and wait in faith for a great spiritual rain.

But amid our rejoicing we have sorrowfully to record the death of three of our English ministers and four of our Native brethren. Samuel Barrett Cawood was a soldierly character with a tender heart who in times of war was ever ready to do his duty. His services during the two Boer wars will never be forgotten, when he greatly comforted the gallant garrisons of beleaguered Potchefstroom and Ladysmith. William Cliff's name in many of our circuits is as ointment poured forth, a gentle, winsome character who served our Church with the utmost devotion for forty-sixth years. And Joseph Henry Cox, a young man of great promise, cut down in the spring of his days, William G. Mtembu, Henry Matebula, Paul Tuta, and Simon Nqana were men of whom any Church would be proud, men of devotion and ability who greatly advanced the Redeemer's kingdom.

We have also to note with great regret the retirement from the active work of the ministry of three of our foremost ministers and missionaries. William J. Hacker, a former President of our Conference, and William Baker have served with marked distinction in our Native Circuits and are men trusted and beloved by the Native races of this land. W. Wilkinson Rider is a cultured and powerful preacher and lecturer, who retires, glad at heart that his great plea for Tanganyika Territory has at last met with the response that he has so earnestly and so eloquently urged and so greatly desired. He has filled the responsible position of Principal Chaplain of our Church for a period of twenty-one years, and in that capacity has twice gone on active service. His services have been of the utmost value to the Empire and the Church. The service of these three brethren totals in the aggregate 130 years.

We have been very happy in the presence with us of the Chairman of the Transvaal and Swaziland District, the Rev. J. W. Allcock, and also of the Rev. John White, Chairman of the Rhodesia District for so many years, whose words of wisdom and of inspiration have cheered us all.

It has been our pleasure also to welcome the Rev. Charles Crabtree, Superintendent of the Primitive Methodist Church Missions in South Africa, who conveyed to us the fraternal greetings of that Church.

We assure you of our deep interest in the subject of Methodist Union in the old land, and our prayers are mingled with yours that you may be guided by our Lord towards the fulfilment of His desire in all that He meant when He prayed that " they might be one."

We have nominated as our President for the Conference of 1924 the Rev. John M. Watkinson, and beg you so to appoint him. He is a brother greatly beloved, alike for his personality, culture, and marked gifts of administration. He has rendered distinguished service in various parts of our South African field, and as Chairman of the Grahamstown District, and in particular as Principal of the largest and most important of our Native Training Institutions. Healdtown, under his wise and stimulating rule, has achieved a commanding place among such institutions in South Africa.

We have appointed the Revs. J. Henry Roberts and Frank Jones, with Messrs. M. S. Coster and Duncan Taylor, to represent us at your next Conference to be held at Bristol, and we cordially commend them to you.

And now, Honoured Fathers and Brethren, in the words of our President in his inaugural address, we "reassert our unshaken faith in the standard of doctrines as set forth in the sermons of Mr. Wesley, and his Notes on the New Testament. And we here pledge again our loyalty to the Discipline, to the Ministry, and to the Brotherhood of the Methodist Church."

We testify to our deep interest in all your great work at home and in other lands, and we ask for your continued sympathy, interest, and prayers on behalf of South African Methodism.

Signed on behalf of the Conference,

WILLIAM H. P. CLULOW, Secretary.

KING WILLIAM'S TOWN,
April 1923.

THE REPLY OF THE BRITISH CONFERENCE TO THE ADDRESS OF THE SOUTH AFRICAN CONFERENCE.

DEAR BRETHREN,—

Assembled in our Annual Conference at Bristol, a city whose Methodist history and traditions are peculiarly moving and sacred, we have rejoiced to receive the Address of the South African Conference and to welcome your representatives.

We thank God and congratulate you upon the successful close of the first century of your work. The good hand of God has been upon you through all the years, and He has enabled you to carry the Gospel into regions of which our fathers scarcely dared even to dream. Your membership report indicates how full of blessing and prosperity the century has been, and as you review the past you will have abundant cause to take courage for the future. But the happiest circumstance in connection with your centenary is the decision which you have reached to enter the Tanganyika Territory, and so to claim for Christ another vast area and a great population. That you have resolved upon this forward movement in the face of great difficulties, both of the supply of workers and of finance, is not only in keeping with the greatest traditions of our Church, but is a challenge to the faith and zeal of our people to which, we are sure, they will nobly respond. We pray for this, your latest venture, the abundant blessing of God.

Some of your most capable and devoted ministers have been called to higher service, and we offer to you our sympathy upon the loss which the Church has thus sustained. They were men who maintained the honour of their office by the greatness of their labours, and they will long be remembered with deep affection.

We have received and endorsed with much pleasure your nomination of the Rev. John M. Watkinson as President for the Conference of 1924, and pray that under his direction all the manifold activities of the Church may prosper. We shall also welcome to our Conference in Nottingham next year the representatives whom you may appoint. We value very highly the opportunities given year by year for personal association with brethren, both ministerial and lay, who visit us from your Conference.

It is with special rejoicing that we record a year of unusual blessing and success in our work both at home and abroad. Not only is there a substantial increase in our membership, but over the whole country the Spirit of God is moving, and in great central missions in our cities we have been privileged to see thousands finding their way to Christ. What is of not less importance is that in great numbers of smaller places, and through the work of the circuit ministers and their helpers, remarkable revivals are taking place. Men and women are realising that, whether in their own life or in the solution of social, national, and international problems, their only hope is in the acceptance of Jesus Christ as Saviour and Lord of life. We cannot yet tell whereunto this will grow, for the wave of revival is very far from being spent, and we look forward with confident hope to still greater triumphs during the coming year.

On our mission fields we are confronted with a harvest greater than we can reap. Men and women in thousands are pressing in to the Kingdom of God, or are pleading for the opportunity to learn more of the Christ of whom they have heard. The labour and sacrifice of our fathers is bearing abundant fruit, and we pray that in this day of the Lord our Church may have the vision and the courage to see and to grasp so unparalleled an opportunity.

We pray that in all branches of our growing work you and we may be ever conscious of the presence and direction of the great Head of the Church.

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

THOMAS KIRKUP, Secretary.

APPENDIX I.

LAY WORKERS' COLLEGE.

Cliff College has enjoyed the most glorious year in its history. The session began in October, after a three-months' campaign of open-air services at a dozen seaside resorts. The passion for evangelism, which made that effort so successful, has characterised the life of the College throughout the year. Each term the full accommodation of the College has been required. Discipline has been excellent, studies have been eagerly pursued, and the high tone of the corporate life of the College has been well maintained.

The educational status of the students has varied considerably. Two or three have reached matriculation standing, but for the most part they have had the ordinary elementary school education. Some have needed, slowly and painfully, to begin again. But the occasional ushering in of the literary classes to the strains of "O pilgrim bound for the Heavenly Land" or "Wonderful, wonderful Jesus," has helped to shed a softening gleam and to call out a patient perseverance which goes far to explain the remarkable mental development of many backward students.

"Aggressive Evangelism" has been the watchword of the College throughout the year. Throughout the winter more than twenty evangelists were conducting Special Missions in town and country. The students have been wonderfully blessed of God in their week-end appointments. Each Saturday an open-air meeting has been held in one of the towns close at hand—Sheffield, Chesterfield, Buxton, Matlock, or Bakewell, and it has not been unusual to see conversions in the open air.

The activity of the year has been crowned by a great Revival at Rotherham. The campaign lasted for nine days, and the students conducted evangelistic services in all the Methodist Chapels of the town and district. Each day huge open-air meetings were held. The whole town was stirred. Memorable scenes occurred in the College Square. Men and women, in the agony of conviction, knelt on the hard stones, before hundreds of people, seeking salvation. The Churches were quickened, many Christians found a new zeal for spiritual work, and close upon two thousand people confessed conversion.

The Anniversary on Whit-Monday was a bigger success than ever. Special trains were run, and with scores of motor-cars and chars-à-bancs, brought over five thousand people to the meetings. Tea was served to nearly three thousand people. The generosity of the many friends of the College met the needs of the year.

The season of blessing through which the Church is passing has brought us many applications for admission which we have been unable to accept. Throughout the year there has been a long "waiting list." The Committee has therefore felt impelled to undertake a scheme for extending the accommodation capacity of the College, and the new building is to be ready for opening next Whitsuntide. In thankfulness to God for a year of abundant blessing, the staff is planning a yet more extended campaign of evangelistic work for next winter.

APPENDIX II.

METHODIST LAW AND OTHER MATTERS.

The Way of Devising a More Satisfactory Method of Election into the Legal Conference.

Report of Committee to Conference of 1922.

In the Report of the Committee to the Conference of 1921 there was an "Historical Statement" (Minutes, 1922, pp. 381–8), which dealt with two questions—(1) The method of election laid down in John Wesley's Deed of Declaration; and (2) The changes which have been made in that method up to the present time. After considering the historical facts, the attention of the Committee last year was directed to the following questions:

(1) The eligibility of Ministers, who have been in "full connexion" with the Conference for one year, for election into "the Legal Hundred."

(2) The possibility of improving the present system of nominating members of "the Hundred."

(3) The advisability of changing the method of creating vacancies caused by the superannuation of members of the Legal Conference.

(4) The necessity of strictly observing the provisions of the Deed of Declaration when members of "the Legal Hundred" are elected.

The First Question.—On the first question the tenth clause of the Deed of Declaration was examined. It provides that "no person shall be elected a member of the Conference who has not been admitted into connexion with the Conference as a preacher and expounder of God's Holy Word for twelve months." The Committee was of opinion that the eligibility of preachers who have been in full connexion with the Conference for one year was not only implied but affirmed in the clause. The opinion of Grindrod in his Compendium of the Laws and Regulations of Wesleyan Methodism, published in 1842, was considered and accepted. He says that "any preacher who has been one year and upwards in 'full connexion' is legally qualified to be elected into the Deed" (p. 2); and this he affirms more than once. During the course of the present inquiry the Journals of the Conference have been searched for light on this point, and evidence has been discovered which proves that during the period from 1784, when the Deed was signed, to 1791, when John Wesley died, preachers who had been in full connexion for one year were elected.

After Wesley's death a change was made. Grindrod, referring to it, says that the Conference then limited its choice to the senior Ministers of the Connexion until the year 1814, when the following resolution was passed: "The Hundred shall continue to fill up three out of every four vacancies in the Deed on the ground of seniority; but in every fourth case of vacancy which shall occur, all the preachers present at the Conference who have travelled fourteen years and upwards shall have the right of nominating by ballot, any preacher who to them may appear proper for immediate admission into the number of the Hundred; and the Hundred shall be requested in such case to elect the person so nominated as a member of the Legal Conference. No person shall be elected who has not travelled at least fourteen years." This important resolution was closely considered by the Committee.

Grindrod was not able to fix the year when the usage of electing preachers to the Hundred "on the ground of seniority" was commenced. He considered the usage "immemorial." In order to assist the Committee in its present inquiry the Journals of the earliest Conferences have been searched, and a list of the elections to the Hundred from 1784 to 1814 has been compiled. That list shows that elections "on the ground of seniority" were not the rule in Wesley's lifetime. From 1784 to 1790 the tendency was to elect young men. At the last Conference at which Wesley presided, the Conference of 1790, there were ten vacancies in the Hundred. Those vacancies were all filled by men who had been less than ten years in "full connexion with the Conference"; one of them having been admitted into full connexion the year before. In consulting the compiled list it is difficult to detect any pronounced signs of the adoption of the policy of selecting the members of the Hundred from the senior preachers until we reach the year 1800. Two missionaries, one of whom had been in full connexion for fifteen years, and the other for fourteen years, were then elected; but with them two men in the home work who had been in full connexion for eleven years were chosen. It must be borne in mind that "seniority" is a term that has to be carefully used. If we consider the ages of all the "seniors" chosen for the Hundred from 1803 to 1814, we shall find that out of the forty-four men chosen, thirty had been in "full connexion" for sixteen years and under. Another fact must also be remembered. The list shows that the method pursued was to take the men of two or three years together, and from the group to select the number required to fill the vacancies; the year after, the men of the next two or three years were taken, and so on. There is scarcely any sign of going back on years which had already contributed their quota of "seniors" to the Hundred. This plan of choosing the members of the Hundred caused many of the oldest men to remain outside the Legal Conference.

The resolution of the Conference of 1814, quoted by Grindrod, was not printed in the Minutes, but was entered in the Journal. In after years it was published; but it has been much altered. It now stands as follows: "All Ministers in full connexion permitted to attend the Conference, and being present in its Pastoral Session, shall have the right of nominating, by ballot, any preacher for admission into the number of the Hundred, and the Hundred shall be requested in such cases to elect the person so nominated as a member of the Legal Conference. No person shall be so elected who has not travelled at least fourteen years." (See Summary, p. 626.) This new regulation is not quite clear. It may be expounded as meaning that "any preacher" may be nominated, but that no preacher who has not travelled at least fourteen years may be elected by the Hundred. We cannot think that such was the intention of the Conference. The Committee, having all the facts before it, recommends that the closing sentence of the present regulation shall disappear; and that the Conference shall recognise the fact that, according to the Deed of Declaration, all Ministers who have been in full connexion with the Conference for one year are eligible for election into the Legal Hundred.

The Second Question.—The second recommendation of the Committee concerned the nomination of Ministers to fill vacancies in the Hundred which are caused by the death, or the absence of any of its members for two successive years without "consent or dispensation of the Conference." As it is necessary to constitute the Legal Conference in the first meeting of the Representative Session, a list of nominations has to be prepared in the Pastoral Session of the preceding year. In that Session a list containing the names of all the Ministers in full work who have travelled not less than thirty-six years is presented, and from it twelve Ministers are selected by ballot, whose names are sent on to the Conference of the next year to guide the choice of the Legal Hundred when filling up the vacancies. In the Pastoral Session the question has sometimes been asked whether the twelve Ministers to be nominated must be chosen from the names appearing in the list, and whether men who have travelled less than thirty-six years may be included in "the twelve." The Committee on Law was of opinion that a greater liberty of choice than is supposed to exist at present is desirable. Having considered the matter, it was agreed to recommend that instead of voting on the names contained in a "prepared list," the Pastoral Session should exercise the right of "open nomination" as it does in the case of filling up the vacancies caused by "superannuation." The Committee was also of opinion that instead of twelve Ministers, not more than eight should be nominated.

The Third Question.—The Committee carefully considered the advisability of changing the method of creating vacancies in the Hundred in the case of Supernumeraries. It was felt that the use of the eighth clause of the Deed of Declaration in order to create such vacancies, though legitimate, was open to serious objection.

The clause provides that "the Conference shall and may expel and put out from being a member thereof, or being in connexion therewith, or being upon trial, any person member of the Conference, or admitted into connexion, or upon trial, for any cause which to the Conference may seem fit or necessary; and every member of the Conference so expelled and put out shall cease to be a member thereof to all intents and purposes, as though he was naturally dead; and the Conference immediately after the expulsion of any member thereof as aforesaid shall elect another person to be a member of the Conference in the stead of such member so expelled." (Summary, p. 663.)

From the records in the Journals it is possible to get an idea of the process pursued in the last Conference Wesley attended. It has already been said that in 1790 there were ten vacancies in "the Hundred." The names of the men who were then "dropt from being members of the Conference" are recorded. Two had "left us." Three were excluded for "impropriety of conduct"; they ceased to be members of "the Hundred," but they remained in "full connexion" with the Conference, and were appointed to Circuits. Two were expelled for immorality. Associated with these men we find the name of Christopher Hopper, who was "superannuated," and who is described as "our dear and much respected Brother," and two other preachers who were also "superannuated."

The Committee felt that, if possible, some better method of causing a vacancy in "the Hundred" should be discovered than the application of the eighth clause of the Deed of Declaration to the case of a "superannuated" Minister. It was suggested that as it is now possible for a member of "the Hundred" to resign his position at any time, the principle of "voluntary resignation" should take the place of "compulsory exclusion" in the case of supernumerary members. The recommendation of the Committee to the Conference is that "Ministers who are members of 'the Hundred,' and have not been Presidents of the Conference, when they become Supernumeraries shall be asked to 'resign' their membership at the end of two years from the date of their retirement from the active work of the Ministry." If this arrangement is not accepted by Supernumeraries, the remedy of the eighth clause still remains.

The Fourth Question.—As to the election of a new member by the Legal Hundred, the Committee considered it imperative that in each election the provisions of the Deed of Declaration shall be observed. The Deed provides that there must be forty members of the Legal Conference present at the doing of the act; and that the member elected must have a clear majority of the total number of the votes cast. On the latter point the Committee suggested that the rule observed in the nomination of the President and Secretary of the Conference should be followed in the case of elections to the Legal Hundred. When a clear majority of the Legal Hundred is not obtained on the first ballot, a second, and, if necessary, a third ballot should be taken on the names on the list which have the largest number of votes. (See Minutes, 1917, p. 376.)

The Statement and the Synods.—In addition to the preparation of a "Statement," the Committee has been asked "to advise the Conference as to those parts of the Report which should be sent to the Synods." The Committee presumes that this request means that some of the foregoing proposals come under the rule concerning "new laws" which came into operation in 1878. So far as the Pastoral Session of the Conference is concerned that rule is as follows: "No new law on any subject within the province of the Conference when composed of Ministers only, proposed during any Conference, shall come into force until it shall have been submitted to the District Synods when Ministers only are present, and until their reports, if any, shall have been considered, and such law shall have been confirmed by the next Conference when so composed." (Summary, pp. 462, 671. See also Report of Committee on Methodist Law, Minutes, 1912, pp. 618–20.)

The Committee considered the question: "What proposals in our recommendations are of the nature of 'new laws' on subjects which are within the province of the Pastoral Session of the Conference?" It was agreed that the replies should be as follows:

(1) The Committee is of opinion that a proposal concerning the strict observance of a provision of a legal document like the Deed of Declaration is not a "new law." The observance of the provisions of the Deed is imperative so long as they have not been varied or abolished by the processes of the civil law. Recognising the fact, the first and fourth proposals of the Committee are not "new laws." To ask the opinion of the Synods on the question of observing, or not observing, the provisions of a legal document, is a proceeding which the Committee cannot recommend.

(2) In examining the second and third proposals of the Committee it is necessary that we should remember the distinction between "a new law," and "an administrative regulation" passed by the Conference for the better conduct of its business. Bearing that distinction in mind the Committee is of opinion that, so far as its second recommendation is concerned, a resolution of the Conference substituting "open voting" for voting from "a prepared list," is "an administrative regulation" and not a "new law" in the sense in which the term is used in the "scheme" of 1877. The Committee is strengthened in its opinion by the fact that the resolution which it is now proposed to amend was drafted by the Committee on Methodist Law in 1909, and that the Conference did not then consider the resolution "provisional legislation." It was accepted, and was not sent down to the Synods.

The third recommendation concerns the advisability of changing the method of creating vacancies in the Legal Hundred in the case of Supernumeraries. The Committee is of opinion that it is a suggestion to the Supernumeraries, and not a " new law." If the suggestion is not taken, then, as has been said, recourse to the eighth clause of the Deed of Declaration remains. Some light on the subject may be gained by noticing the procedure of the Conference in 1890, when an enlargement of liberty was granted in the case of " Temporary Supernumeraries." The following resolution was then passed: " In the case of a member of the Legal Conference, who has been permitted to retire for one or two years, he shall not thereby cease to be a member of the Legal Conference provided he then (that is to say, at the end of the first or second year), returns to the Full Work, and he shall remain a member of the Legal Conference for two years after becoming a Supernumerary permanently." (Minutes, 1890, p. 212. Revised 1895, p. 361.) This resolution, which extends the privileges of a Supernumerary member of " the Hundred," was not sent down to the Synods as " a new law." The Committee is of opinion that a proposal which suggests the voluntary resignation of a Supernumerary member of " the Hundred " instead of his expulsion under the eighth clause of the Deed of Declaration is not " a new law " that must be submitted to the judgment of the Synods.

The Committee, in closing its report, would suggest that Standing Order No. 29 (5), Min., 1921, requires revision. It is as follows: " In the case of a member of the Legal Conference having been entered on the Minutes as without Pastoral Charge . . . the Conference resolves that, at the expiration of four years from the commencement of such an arrangement, he shall cease to be a member of the Legal Conference. The effect of this Resolution shall not be retrospective." This resolution was passed in 1890 ; its last clause applies to Ministers whose names had been entered on the Minutes as " without Pastoral Charge " before that year. (Minutes, 1890, p. 212 ; 1921, p. 276.)

APPENDIX III.

GENERAL SUSTENTATION FUND.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE.

I.—The Work of the Year.

In reviewing the work of the year, the Committee is gratified to report that by the help of the Sustentation Fund the Minimum Allowances recommended by the Conference have again been assured. Twelve months ago the Conference recommended the maintenance of the higher standard of Allowances generally adopted by Circuits, and, particularly, that the existing scale of Minimum Stipend should be continued in the weaker Circuits. While the Committee was fully persuaded that this recommendation was just and reasonable, it was clearly foreseen that its fulfilment under the new economic conditions would make heavy demands upon the Connexion as a whole, and especially upon the Sustentation Fund to which the weaker Circuits look for aid. It is all the more gratifying, therefore, to report that the aims of the Committee have been realised, and that, so far as has been ascertained, no Minister or Probationer has received less than the Minimum Allowances suggested by the Conference, either for Stipend or Children's Maintenance.

The demands upon the Fund, however, have not been met by the receipts of the year. The total net income has been £17,149 18*s.* 10*d.*, a decrease of £1,814 13*s.*, as compared with the previous year. The total expenditure has been £18,263 0*s.* 3*d.*, a decrease of £77 2*s.* 5*d.*

Of the total Income, £11,723 5*s.* was received from Collections taken on behalf of the Fund in November last. The Collections for the past three years have been as follows :—

1921–22	12,509	15	3
1922–23	11,723	5	0

Nearly three-fourths of the income has been received from this source. The principal decreases in the Income of the Fund are as follows :—Collections, £786 ; District Contributions, £464 ; Subscriptions on Conference List, £366.

The fact that Grants made in respect of Minimum Stipends are practically the same as in the previous year reflects great credit upon Circuits which have maintained their payments rather than make application to the Fund for help. On the other hand, an increasing number of Circuits have ceased to make the supplementary payment for Children's Maintenance, with the result that the claims upon the Fund under this head have increased from £701 to £966.

The outstanding fact of the balance sheet is that to meet the requirements of the year a serious inroad upon the reserves of the Committee has been necessary. The net credit balance of £1,630 10*s.* 7*d.*, in May 1922, has been reduced to £517 9*s.* 2*d.* As no debt can be contemplated, the deficiency between Income and Expenditure in this year's working must be taken into account in any future arrangements.

Attention is called to the generous assistance—over £2,000—given to the Welsh Circuits in realising the minimum Stipends recommended by the three Welsh Districts. In no part of the Connexion is the help of the Fund more urgently necessary and more widely appreciated.

An analysis of Expenditure shows that 230 Circuits received help during the year. Of these, 144 have received Grants for Stipend only, 61 for Stipend and Children's Maintenance, and 25 for Children's Maintenance only. In all, 484 Ministers have benefited by the Fund.

II.—Proposals for the Future.

(1) In respect of future proposals the Committee has carefully considered whether there should be any change in the Minimum Stipend for the year 1923–24, in the realisation of which the Committee is more directly concerned. With great regret the Committee recommends a slight modification of the present scale so far as it affects Superintendents and Ministers who have travelled ten years and upwards. The recommendation is based not only upon changed economic conditions and the financial ability of Circuits, but particularly upon the fact that the claims upon the Sustentation Fund during the present year have exceeded the Income of the year by more than £1,100.

The Committee is of opinion that if the resources of the Fund permit, the supplementary Grant for Children's Maintenance to Ministers who are in receipt of the Minimum Stipend only should be continued.

(2) As the period covered by the resolution of the Conference of 1920, which authorised the formation of the Fund for four years (1920–24), will expire at the Conference of 1924, the Committee has explored the whole situation both in respect of the probable need for the Fund beyond that date, and the ways and means necessary for its support, with a view to making recommendations upon the subject.

The Committee recognises that at its inception, the Sustentation Fund was regarded as a temporary provision sanctioned by the Conference for meeting the exceptional needs of the weaker Circuits in the years immediately following the War. When the Fund was authorised, it was hoped that by the year 1924 the cost of living would have reverted to something approaching a normal standard, and that the complete maintenance of the Ministry might then fall upon the Circuits to which, by Methodist tradition and usage, the responsibility belongs. This hope, however, has not yet been fulfilled, for at the present time the cost of living is still 70 per cent., at least, above pre-war rates.

(3) While the whole economic situation, as it affects the Methodist people generally, may compel some slight reduction of the present Minimum Allowances in the near future, the sub-Committee is of opinion that under no conditions should the Conference allow Stipends to revert to anything approaching the pre-war standard. It is equally clear to the Committee that the weaker Circuits, now partly dependent upon the Fund, have not the ability, from their own resources, to provide the Minimum Allowances which both need and equity will demand.

The Committee, therefore, recommends the Conference to sanction an extension of the operations of the Fund for a further period of three years (1924–27), the Collections to be made annually as heretofore, and Subscriptions solicited toward the support of the Fund during the period named.

APPENDIX IV

MINISTERS' CHILDREN'S FUND.

In accordance with the directions of the Conference (Minutes, 1922, p. 14), "That the whole question of the Educational allowances for Ministers' Children be considered with a view to a more equitable treatment of those Ministers whose children are not at the Schools."

The Committee reports that the present variation of advantage received from the Children's Fund, as between Ministers who send their Children to Kingswood and Trinity Hall and those who do not, is largely optional. The principal difference is occasioned by the maintenance of Kingswood, the privileges of which are available for those parents who apply, and experience shows that all boys who are able to fulfil the needed elementary educational requirements are received.

The accommodation at Trinity Hall is too limited to provide for some daughters for whose admission application is made. It would be necessary to enlarge the girls' school if the parents' option of School or Education allowance should be as free for girls as for boys, but it must be remembered that by far the larger part of the expenditure on the schools is associated with the boys. Moreover, the difference in the cost of those educated at the Schools and the allowance for those educated at home has been considerably reduced by reason of the charges which those having children at the schools are now required to pay. If Kingswood should be used for the sons of laymen as well as for the sons of Ministers it is anticipated that the cost per head provided by the Children's Fund would be proportionally lessened, and this would bring additional diminution of the variation between those who use the School and those who do not.

If the Schools were closed it is unlikely that the money saved would be available for distribution as Educational allowances, for they have ever had and still have a great place in the goodwill of our people and their closure would not only be a great loss to Ministers and their families and the Connexion, but would probably diminish the interest of the appeal for the Children's Fund. The Committee is of opinion that the great majority of our Ministers and people regard the Schools as meeting a real need and desire that they shall continue to be efficiently maintained.

In that case more equitable treatment in the participation of the benefits of the Children's Fund, than is at present afforded, cannot be provided unless those having children at the Schools were required to pay more than they do now or unless the Fund paid a larger sum for Educational allowances. Neither of these alternatives is practicable.

The Committee therefore advises the Conference to continue the present arrangement for the distribution of the benefits of the Children's Fund as the best now possible.

As requested by the Conference, the Committee has also considered whether Kingswood should come into the category of Schools receiving Government Grants, and is of opinion that it would not be to the advantage of the School to make the change.

THE GENERAL ASSESSMENT.

For the year 1923–24 the sum of £57,750 is to be raised—to be distributed as follows:

To the Ministers' Children's Fund	£30,000
„ Auxiliary Fund	26,500
„ Theological Institution Fund	1,000
„ Connexional Fund	250

The amounts to be raised in each District are given in Schedule B on the next page.

The Ministers in Departments and those without Pastoral Charge are not included in the Numbers and Assessments given in Schedule B. The Assessment in these cases is £36 per Minister for the Children's Fund, and £9 per Minister for the Auxiliary Fund.

In the case of the increase of the number of Ministers in any five-yearly period the amount of the District Assessment shall be increased by the amount of the Assessment for each additional Minister called out; but there shall be no decrease in the amount of the District Assessment during such period. (Minutes, 1884, p. 272.)

RYDAL SCHOOL

COLWYN BAY

A METHODIST PUBLIC SCHOOL

Boarders only. Admission from 12 years of age.

Fees: Forty Guineas a term. Entrance Scholarships are awarded each year, and there are leaving Scholarships.

The School was founded in 1885 by T. G. Osborn, greatest of Methodist schoolmasters. The Osborn tradition still lives.

The School is situated in one of the healthiest spots in the British Isles, and the health record is remarkably good.

The present reputation of the School is accounted for largely by the excellent staff that it possesses. Each department is under the headship of a competent and experienced master. The Headmaster is the REV. A. J. COSTAIN, M.A.

Any particulars concerning the school will be readily supplied on application. Full particulars can be found in the PUBLIC SCHOOL YEAR BOOK, 1923, pp. 93–94, or in the School Prospectus.
